

Whitehall, August 9, 1847.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Hercules Brabazon Sharpe, of Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, and of Brabazon-park, in the county of Mayo, Esq. Her royal licence and authority, that, in compliance with a condition in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, Sir William John Brabazon, of Brabazon-park aforesaid, Bart. deceased, he and his issue may take and assume the surname of Brabazon only, instead of that of Sharpe, and also bear the arms of Brabazon; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 9, 1847.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Robert Blake, of Swafeld, in the county of Norfolk, Esq. Her royal licence and authority, that, in compliance with an earnest wish and request expressed in the last will and testament of John Humfrey, late of Wroxham, in the said county of Norfolk, Clerk, he and his issue may henceforth take and bear the surname of Humfrey immediately after that of Blake, and also quarter the arms of Humfrey with those of Blake; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.
