AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 10th day of August 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for " building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in the words following, viz.

" Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and within the diocese of Exeter, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church, called Christ Church, situate in the said parish, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of every or any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the church building Acts; and that such district should be named, " The Chapelry District of Christ Church, Plymouth," and that the boundaries thereof should be as follows, that is to say :

" The district is bounded by a line drawn at the junction of York-street, Morley-street, and Richmond-street, and proceeds in a northerly direction up the middle of York-street to its junction with Bell Vue-place and Cobourg-street; it then proceeds in a north westerly direction up the middle of the road to Saltash, as far as the stream running into the mill lake; along which stream it proceeds westerly as far as the Tea-house at Pennycombe-quick; it then proceeds in a straight line south westerly from the southern corner of the said Tea-house, to the north western corner of Claremont-place; and then proceeds along the western side thereof to the rear of that place, and proceeds southerly down enclosures of the back of the houses on the western side of Claremont-street, to the western side of Cambridge-lane West, at the western side of Cambridge-street, and proceeds still southerly down the said lane, as far as the turning into Cambridge-street, up the middle of which street it then proceeds northerly as far as Morley-street, along the middle of which street it then proceeds easterly to the point at the junction of the same with York-street and Richmond-street, where the boundary commenced, and as such district is more particularly delineated on the plan thereof hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

" That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, and also burials, upon a burial ground being provided for the said district, should be solemnized and performed in the said church, called Christ Church; and that all the fees to arise therefrom should be received for, on account of, and paid to, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, during his incumbency thereof; and that from and after his avoidance of such incumbency the said fees should belong and be paid to the Minister or Incumbent, for the time being, of the said church, called Christ Church :

" That the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Lord Bishop of Exeter, as Bishop of the diocese, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Henry Lord Bishop Exeter has signed and sealed this representation :

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

JOHN PATERSON, Witness.
A. ROBERTSON, Witness.

Vice Chancellor Knight Bruce.—Thursday the 29th day of July, in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria 1847, between John Harvey, plaintiff; William Renou, defendant.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Smith, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this Court against the defendant, on the 2d day of July instant, and took out process of subpoena, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill; but the defendant has not yet appeared thereto; that it appears by the affidavit of Thomas Henry Strangways, that the defendant has been within the jurisdiction of the Court within two years before the subpoena issued; and that, upon inquiring at his usual place of abode, he could not be found so as to be served with process, and that there is good ground to believe that the said defendant has absconded to avoid being served with process; it is thereupon ordered, that the said defendant do appear to the plaintiff's bill, within six weeks from this time.

THO. H. STRANGWAYS, Plaintiff's Solicitor,
11, King's-road, Gray's-inn.

Vice Chancellor Knight Bruce.—Thursday the 29th day of July, in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria 1847, between John Mason Guest Underhill, plaintiff; Anthony Theophilus Merry and Eliza Richards, defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Prior, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the original bill in this cause, filed the 17th December last, was filed for the purpose of obtaining a declaration of the dissolution of a partnership theretofore existing between defendant, the said Anthony Theophilus Merry, and one Henry Richards, since deceased, as Platers and Dealers in Metals, in Birmingham, in the county of Warwick; and that the said bill charges the said defendant, Anthony Theophilus Merry, with the receipt of various monies to the extent of about £2000, which he kept secret from his said partners; and with various alterations made in, and omissions from, the partnership books, in respect of the said monies; and with pledging the partnership credit and using the partnership monies for his own private purposes; that for a period of about a month prior to the filing of the said original bill, and up to the day of filing it, and subsequent thereto, deponent had frequent and almost daily interviews and conversations with the said defendant, Anthony Theophilus Merry, touching the said matters; and that the said Anthony Theophilus Merry, in his presence, and in the presence of an accountant employed on the accounts, and in the presence of other persons, went through the said several accounts and matters, and admitted said several matters to the extent of £1800 or thereabouts; that the defendant has been informed, and believes that the answer of the said Anthony Theophilus Merry to the said original bill was filed on the 20th February last, and that notice was given thereof on the 21st February last, and not before; that plaintiff was in London the 24th and 25th February last, and left on the morning of the latter day; and that on arriving at Birmingham aforesaid, on the said 25th day of February, the said plaintiff met the Rev. John Merry (the nephew of the said defendant, Anthony Theophilus Merry), who informed him, that his uncle, the defendant, was off for America, and that his going had been kept very quiet; and plaintiff was subsequently informed, and verily believes, that Mr. Henry Merry, the brother and partner of the said Anthony Theophilus Merry, did not know of the time of the said defendant leaving, until a few hours before he left; that the American packets principally sail from Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, where the said defendant has relations residing, and such knowledge said defendant well knew plaintiff possessed; that plaintiff has been informed, and believes that to avoid his taking advantage of his said knowledge, and also to avoid delay in his departure from this country, the said defendant, Anthony Theophilus Merry went direct to Havre, in France, and thence sailed for New Orleans, in America, for the purpose of proceeding into some part of the interior of America; that plaintiff has been informed, and believes that his family have since caused enquiries to be made at Havre, to ascertain whether the said defendant, Anthony Theophilus Merry had actually sailed or not; that the said defendant, Anthony Theophilus Merry, prior to his departure, caused to be raised various large sums of money, by the sale of his property or otherwise, and that plaintiff has heard, and believes, that the said Anthony Theophilus Merry has expressed his determination not to return to England whilst this suit is depending; that the said plaintiff caused the papers to be immediately laid before Counsel, who advised that the Bill should be amended; and such was accordingly done; but that in consequence of defendant's unwillingness to interrupt a negotiation then pending between deponent and the said Henry Merry (who as plaintiff, is informed by said Henry Merry, and believes is empowered, by power of attorney, to act for and in the absence of the said Anthony Theophilus Merry, for the settlement of the suit), the same was not then filed; that he has been informed, and believes that the amended Bill was filed in this cause on the 6th day of May last; and that a subpoena to appear to and answer such amended bill, was on that day served on Messrs. Clark, Gray, and Woodcock, the Agents for the said defendant in the original Bill; and that application was made at the residence of the wife and family of the said Anthony Theophilus Merry, in Birmingham aforesaid, who represented that the said defendant had left England for America; that, to the best of plaintiff's judgment and belief, the said defendant, from the nature of his answer, must at the time of his so leaving England, have been aware, or have considered it highly probable, that it would become necessary to amend the said original Bill, and certainly to take other proceedings in connection with the said suit; and that from all the foregoing circumstances, he verily believes, and has no doubt whatever, that the said Anthony Theophilus Merry has gone out of this realm to avoid being served with process, and to obstruct him (the said plaintiff) in the prosecution of this suit; that the original Bill was filed in this cause on the 17th day of December 1846, and that Charles Marston Stretton thereupon caused the defendant, Anthony Theophilus Merry to be duly and personally served with a subpoena, to appear to and answer such Bill, and he accordingly, on the 20th January last, entered an appearance to the said Bill, by Messrs. Clark, Gray, and Woodcock, as Agents for Messrs. Wills and Oliver, of Birmingham, his Solicitors, and obtained an office copy of the said; and the said Anthony Theophilus Merry put in his answer thereto on the 20th day of February 1847, but that no notice of the filing of such answer was given on that day, according to the rules and practice of this Court; and that on the 24th day of February aforesaid, he received from the said Messrs. Clark, Gray, and Woodcock, the following notice—"Dear Sir, Merry against Underhill, this answer has been filed, yours truly, Clark, Gray, and Woodcock, 20, Lincoln's-inn-fields. 24th February 1847, C. M. Stretton, Esq." That the said Charles Marston Stretton afterwards, on the 4th March, heard from the above-named plaintiff, that the defendant had, immediately after filing his said answer, left England, and gone to America; that instructions were immediately placed before Counsel to advise on the answer, and that it subsequently became necessary to amend said Bill, and that the amended Bill (being a fresh ingrossment) was filed on the 6th May last; and that a subpoena to appear to and answer the amended Bill, was duly issued, and a copy thereof was on that day served on Messrs. Clarke, Gray, and Woodcock, the town Agents of the said defendant's Solicitors; and he caused application to be made at the residence of the wife and family of the said defendant at Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, for the purpose of effecting service of the said subpoena on the defendant personally; but the said defendant was stated to have left England for America, which he has no doubt at all was the fact; that no appearance has been entered in this cause to the said amended Bill, nor has any answer been filed thereto; that he has no doubt that the said defendant left this country at the time he did, for the purpose of obstructing the plaintiff in his proceedings in this cause; whereupon, and upon hearing the affidavits of the plaintiff, and of Charles Marston Stretton read, it is ordered, that the defendant, Anthony Theophilus Merry do appear to the plaintiff's Bill on or before the last day of next Michaelmas Term; and it is ordered, that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette, and one or more of the public journals of the United States of America circulated in New Orleans. CECIL MONRO, Registrar.

ANTHONY THEOPHILUS MERRY, take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own showing.
