Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1847.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 22d day of July 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to carry into effect a convention of commerce concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, and a treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal," whereby, after reciting certain provisions contained in certain treaties or conventions, made between His said late Majesty and the United States of America, and between His said late Majesty and the Prince Regent of Portugal, divers provisions were made respecting the duties payable and the bounties and allowances to be granted upon the importation and exportation of goods, wares, and merchandize into or from the United Kingdom in vessels of the United States and in Portuguese vessels, and respecting the repayment to certain corporations, bodies politic and corporate, and sundry other persons, of the amount of the sums of money of which they would be deprived by means of the said Act :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting duties of Customs," it is, amongst other things, enacted and declared, that, from and after the ratification of any treaty heretofore made by Her Majesty, and any of Her royal predecessors, subsequently so the said first hereinbefore recited Act, or of any treaty which may hereafter be made by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, with any foreign power, in which treaty have been or shall be contained provisions similar to those recited in the said first hereinbefore recited Act, all and every the provisions, clauses, matters, and things in the said first hereinbefore recited Act contained, shall apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such foreign powers, respectively, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as to the trade and shipping of the said United States and of the said kingdom of Portugal, and also shall apply and extend to differential duties or charges on goods imported or exported in the ships of such foreign powers as well as to differential duties on the ships of such foreign powers :

And whereas by the last recited Act it is further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, by any Order or Orders to be by Her or them made with the advice of Her or their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time to declare what are the foreign powers with which any such treaty or treaties aforesaid is or are subsisting, and that the said recited Acts shall apply and shall be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, doth hereby declare, that a treaty has been concluded and is now subsisting between Her Majesty and His Imperial and Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Tuscany :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Ashby-de-la-Zouch Canal Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in the session of Parliament held in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, an Act of Parliament was passed, entitled "An Act to enable the Midland Railway Company to make a railway from Burton-upon-Trent to Nuneaton, with branches, and to purchase the Ashby de la Zouch Canal."

And notice is hereby further given, that by such Act of Parliament it is amongst other things enacted, that at the expiration of three calendar months next after the day on which the sum of £110,000 (the purchase money for the said canal) should have been paid by the said Railway Company, the Committee of the said Company of Proprietors of the said Canal should, in case the whole of the monies to be distributed under the authority of the said Act should not then have been called for, cause a notice or advertisement to be inserted three times in the London Gazette, and also in two or more newspapers published and circulated in the counties of Leicester and Derby, and also in some newspapers published in London besides the London Gazette, containing the names, in alphabetical order, of the several persons appearing in the books of the said Company of Proprietors to be holders of shares therein, who might not have called for or claimed their shares or proportion of the monies in respect of which, respectively, all calls to the amount of £113 should have been duly paid, and by the said Act ordered to be distributed amongst the Shareholders in the said Company of Proprietors, and stating that if such persons, or their representatives, should not make and substantiate their claim to such monies, within a time to be limited in such notice, being six calendar months from the day on which the said sum of £110,000 should have been paid, the amount of such monies would be paid into the Bank of England, and should also cause a copy of such notice as last aforesaid to be given or sent by the post unto or left at the last known usual place of abode in England of the last proprietor appearing in the books of the said Company of Proprietors to have been possessed of such unclaimed shares, at least one calendar month previously to the expiration of the said period of six calendar months, provided that in case the last or usual place of abode in England of any such proprietor could not be ascertained upon enquiry, then the insertion as aforesaid of such notice in the London Gazette, and such newspapers as aforesaid, should be deemed sufficient notice to such proprietor and all persons claiming under him of the matters contained in such notice.

And notice is hereby further given, that by the said Act of Parliament it is further enacted, that at the expiration of six calendar months from the day on which the said sum of £110,000 should have been paid, in pursuance of the said Act, the Committee of the said Company of Proprietors should cause all such sum and sums of money as should not have been distributed amongst the Shareholders in the said Company of Proprietors, or their respective executors, administrators, or assigns, and as should then remain in the hands of the said Committee, either from the same not having been called for by the persons entitled thereto, or from the persons claiming the same not having shown a sufficient title thereto to the satisfaction of the said Committee, or from any other cause (except on account of the existence of adverse claims as therein mentioned), to be paid into the Bank of England in the name and with the privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to his account there to the credit of the party or parties who upon the books of the said Company of Proprietors should appear to have been last entitled thereto, describing him or them as he or they might be described in the said books of the Company of Proprietors, pursuant to the method prescribed by the Act of the 12th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the First, chapter 32, and pursuant to the general orders of the said Court, and without fee or reward, according to the Act of the 12th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, chapter 24.

And by the said first-mentioned Act it is further enacted, that all money paid into the Bank of England in the name of the said Accountant General, under the authority of the said Act, should there remain until the person or persons, or some one or more of the persons entitled, or claiming to be entitled thereto, should, upon petition to be presented to the Court of Chancery in a summary way, and which such person or persons is and are thereby authorized to make at his, her, or their own expence, obtain an order for the transfer thereof into his, her, or their own name or names, or otherwise; and that the said Accountant General should, from time to time, invest the monies so paid in, and the dividends, from time to time, to accrue thereon, when the same should amount to a competent sum, in the purchase of stock in the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, for the benefit of the respective parties entitled thereto, subject to the orders and directions of the said Court; and that the said Court, on the application of any person or persons making claim for such sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, should be and was thereby empowered in a summary way of proceeding, or otherwise as to the said Court should in each case seem meet, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the public funds, and to order distribution thereof, or payment of the dividends thereof, according to the respective estates or interest of the person or persons making claim thereto, and to make such other order in the premises as to the said Court should seem just and reasonable.

And notice is hereby further given, that the said sum of £110,000 was paid by the said Railway Company to the said Canal Company on the 7th day of June last.

And notice is hereby further given, that the following list contains the names, in alphabetical order, together with the addresses and descriptions, according to the books of the said Company, of the several persons appearing in such books to be holders of shares therein, who have not called for or claimed their shares or proportion of the monies in respect of which, respectively, all calls, to the amount of £113, have been duly paid, and by the said Act ordered to be distributed amongst the Shareholders in the said Company of Proprietors:

CONTRACT FOR DANTZIC OAK THICK-STUFF AND PLANK.

Department of the Storekeeper General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, September 15, 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 23d instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock-yards, during the years 1848 and 1849, with Dantzic Oak Thickstuff and Plank.

A distribution and form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Dantzic Oak Thickstuff and Plank," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £5000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR LIGNUM VITÆ.

Department of the Storekeeper General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, September 14 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 23d instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store, at Her Majesty's Dock-yard at Portsmouth, 20 Tons of White Bahama Lignum Vitæ, of from 5½ to 7 inches in diameter.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Lignum Vitæ," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS for SALT BEEF and PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 13, 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 30th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT MEAT,

Of the Cure of the United Kingdom, or elsewhere, equal to 5,000 Tierces of Navy Beef, and 1,000 Tierces of Navy Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part; and also an unlimited power of selection, according to quality.

The tenders, both for beef and pork, to specify the place where the meat is intended to be cured.

All the beef to be delivered in tierces, and a quantity of pork, equal to 150 tierces (and for which separate tenders are to be made), to be delivered in casks, containing 100 pounds each, and of the remaining quantity of pork, three fourths to be delivered in tierces, and the remaining one fourth in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

Beef, two thirds on or before the 31st March 1848, and one third on or before the 31st May 1848;

Pork, one third on or before the 31st March 1848, and two thirds on or before the 31st May 1848; and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantities beyond those specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, except for the pork, to be delivered in casks containing 100 pounds each.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorized in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef, and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words, "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaged to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACTS for JACKETS, STOCKINGS, and CAPS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 14, 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 7th October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the under-mentioned articles, viz

TRINIDAD.

In the Supreme Civil Court, 4th May 1847.

No. 145 A.—In the Matter of the Concorso of the Creditors of Samuel Span, deceased, and the Paradise and Cane Farm Estates.

PUBLIC notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of the said Samuel Span, and the Paradise and Cane Farm Estates, will be held before this Court, on Tuesday the 26th day of October next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of appointing a judicial administrator of the said estates, in the room, place, and stead of Robert Neilson, Esq. and also of determining as to the advisability of effecting an immediate sale of the same estates.

By the Court,

THORNTON WARNER, Registrar.

Branch versus Browne.

TO be sold, in lots, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Branch versus Browne, with the approbation of Sir William Horne, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Royal Hotel, in the city of Norwich, some time in the month of October, of which due notice will be given;

Certain valuable freehold and copyhold estates, situate at Loddon, in the county of Norfolk, late the property of Mr. Edmund Dennis Browne, of Loddon aforesaid, deceased.

Particulars whereof may in a short time be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Mr. Copeman, Solicitor, Loddon; Mr. Durrant, Solicitor, Surrey-street, Norwich; Messrs. J. W. Bromley and Aldridge, Solicitors, No. 1, South-square, Gray's-inn, London; Messrs. Wood and Blake, Solicitors, No. 8, Falcon-street, London; and the Auctioneer, Mr. William Butcher, Theatre-street, Norwich.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes Bellas versus Hanmer, Bellas versus Congreve, and in the matter of an Act of Parliament of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, with the approbation of John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, by Messrs. Farebrother, Clark, and Lye, at the Hind's Head or Congreve Arms Inn, in the village of Aldermaston, in the county of Berks, on Tuesday the 5th day of October 1847, at two o'clock in the afternoon;

A freehold estate, situate in the parish of Aldermaston aforesaid, consisting of four freehold coppices, containing 67 A. 3 R. 39 P. of land, situate at the north end of the said parish of Aldermaston, surrounded by the property of William Mount, Esq.

Printed particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Messrs. Hawkins, Bloxam, Stocker, and Bloxham, New Boswell-court, Lincoln's-inn; Messrs. Tatham and Procter, No. 10, New-square, Lincoln's-inn; Messrs. Lee and Brookes, Whitechurch, Salop; of Messrs. Parker and Hignett, Chester; at the place of sale; and at Messrs. Farebrother, Clark, and Lye's offices, No. 6, Lancaster-place, Strand.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Saunders v. Vautier, with the approbation of Sir William Horne, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Angel Inn, in Bury St. Edmunds, in the county of Suffolk, by Messrs. Deek and Newson, the persons appointed by the said Master, on Wednesday the 6th day of October 1847, at twelve for one o'clock precisely, in one lot;

A valuable freehold and part copyhold estate, called Stanton-park, in the county of Suffolk, situate ten miles from Bury St. Edmunds, the same distance from Stowmarket, twenty-two miles from Newmarket, two miles from Ixworth, thirty from Norwich, and eighty-two from London, consisting of a very capital family residence, situated on an eminence, and in the centre of a park of about thirty acres, studded with ornamental timber, containing every convenience, and in excellent repair, surrounded by pleasure grounds and gardens tastefully arranged, and in a high state of perfection; a paved yard communicates with the coach-houses and stables and a range of offices, and immediately adjoining are the agricultural buildings, consisting of barns, stables, cow-houses, bullock-lodges, large granaries, cart sheds, piggeries, and every requisite convenience for a large occupation, well arranged in a quadrangular form, most substantially built, and in excellent repair.

The farming premises are well situate in the centre of 367 acres and 9 perches of productive arable, pasture, and wood land, intersected by roads, and divided into convenient inclosures. About sixty acres of the estate and a detached barn and cottage are copyhold, of the manor of Stanton-hall, with Mickfield and Bardwells, the remainder is freehold, and the greater part land-tax redeemed. There are three cottages and an old farm-house, subdivided into tenements for the labourers on the estate, and detached barns and stables, conveniently placed for the occupation of the farm; and the whole is in the occupation of Mr. John Woodard, as tenant from year to year, at the rent of £500. Near the entrance of the park is a comfortable small family residence or cottage orneé, with dining and drawing rooms, six bed-rooms, offices, and every convenience, with gardens, stables, &c.; also a small dwelling-house, containing three sitting-rooms, kitchen, and offices, four bed-rooms, garden, stable, and appurtenances.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis), fourteen days prior to the sale, at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, London; of Messrs. Marten, Thomas, and Hellams, Solicitors, Commercial Sale-rooms, Mincing-lane, London; of Messrs. Deek and Newson, Auctioneers, Bury St. Edmund's; and at the principal inns in the neighbourhood.
