FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1847.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of October 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain do issue Writs for further proroguing the Parliament, from Thursday the eleventh day of November next, to Thursday the eighteenth day of November next.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the eleventh day of November next, We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said eleventh day of November next, to Thursday the eighteenth day of November next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Writ Patent for proroguing the same accordingly: and We do hereby further, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Thursday the eighteenth day of November next, assemble and be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Thursday the eighteenth day of November next.

Given at Our Court, at Windsor, this thirtieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and in the eleventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of October 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Hanover, whereby due protection has been secured within the dominions of Hanover for the authors of books, dramatic works, or musical compositions, and the inventors, designers, or engravers of prints and articles of sculpture, and the authors, inventors, designers, or engravers of any other works whatsoever of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain and of Hanover do now or may hereafter give their respective subjects the privilege of copyright, and for the lawful representatives or assigns of any such authors, inventors, designers, or engravers, with regard to any such works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to international copyright," doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works (that is to say), books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, and any other works of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain give to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers, respectively, shall, as respects works first published within the kingdom of Hanover, after the twenty-eighth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, have the privilege of copyright therein for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of the like works, respectively, first published in the United Kingdom are by law entitled to, provided such books, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, prints, articles of sculpture, or other works of art have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve months after the first publication thereof in any part of the said kingdom:

And it is hereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions which shall, after the said twenty-eighth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, be first publicly represented or performed within the said kingdom, shall have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British dominions such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom are entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same; provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve calendar months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the said kingdom:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of October 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her present Majesty, for reducing, under certain circumstances, the duties payable upon books and engravings," it is enacted, that whenever Her Majesty has, by virtue of the authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared, that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, or makers of any books, prints, or other works of art, first published in any foreign country or countries, shall have the privilege of copyright therein, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to declare that, from and after a day to be named in such Order, in lieu of the duties of Customs from time to time payable on the importation into the United Kingdom of books, prints, and drawings, there shall be payable only such duties of Customs as are mentioned in the said Act :

And whereas Her Majesty hath this day, by virtue of the authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of books, prints, and certain other works of art, first published within the dominions of Hanover, shall have the privilege of copyright therein :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the day of the date of this Order, in lieu of the duties of Customs now payable upon books, prints, and drawings, published at any place within the said kingdom, there shall be payable only the duties of Customs following (that is to say) :

On books originally produced in the United Kingdom, and republished at any place within the said kingdom, a duty of two pounds ten shillings per hundred weight.

On books published or republished at any place within the said kingdom, and not being books originally produced in the United Kingdom, a duty of fifteen shillings per hundred weight.

On prints and drawings, plain or coloured, published at any place within the said kingdom,

*Chamber of London, Guildhall,
November 4, 1847.*

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annuity or annual sum of £200, granted in respect of the sum of £5000, advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by five bonds or obligations of £1000 each, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 5th December 1833, and numbered 19—46 to 19—50, both inclusive; also the annuity or annual sum of £840, granted in respect of the sum of £21,000, secured by twenty-one bonds or obligations of £1000 each, numbered 20—1 to 20—21, both inclusive, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the said 5th December 1833; also the sum of £12, part of the annuity or annual sum of £40, granted in respect of the sum of £1000, secured by one bond or obligation, numbered 20—22, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the said 5th December 1833; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after notice of such intention shall have been given, in the manner by the said Act directed, upon payment or tender of the sums of £5000, £21,000, and £300, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £200, £840, and £12, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sums of £200, £840, and £12, will cease and determine. Nevertheless, such person or persons, at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office, the said sums of £5000, £21,000, and £300, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £200, £840, and £12, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same; and the said annual sums of £200, £840, and £12, will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine. A. Brown, Chamberlain.

London and Blackwall Railway Improvement and Branches to the St. Katherine's and London Docks.

Notice of Application to Parliament for Re-introduction of Bill in the next Session.

WHEREAS notices were duly published, in the month of November last, in the London Gazette and in the Times Newspaper, that application was intended to be made to Parliament in the then next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of several Acts relating to the London and Blackwall Railway, and to enable the London and Blackwall Railway Company to alter the gauge of their railway as at present constructed, notwithstanding the provisions of an Act, passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the gauge of railways;" and also to enable the London and Blackwall Railway Company to take certain property near to certain streets, called Crutched Friars, Railway-place, Church-row, and London-street, or some of them, in the parishes of St. Olave Hart-street, St. Katherine Coleman, Allhallows Staining, and Allhallows Barking, or some of them, in the city of London; and also for powers to make and maintain the following branch railways (that is to say), a branch railway, from and out of the London and Blackwall Railway, at or near to White Lion-street otherwise Leman-street, in the parish of St. Mary Matfelon otherwise Whitechapel, in the county of Middlesex, passing thence through or into the parishes and places of St. Botolph Without Aldgate, the Tower liberties and precincts, St Katherine near the Tower, and St. John of Wapping, or some of them, in the county of Middlesex, and terminating in or near the London Docks, in the said parish of St. John of Wapping; also a branch railway, from and out of such last-mentioned branch railway, at or near to the street called Upper East Smithfield, in the said parishes of St. John of Wapping and St. Botolph Without Aldgate, or one of them, and terminating in or near the St. Katherine's Docks, in the last-mentioned parish. And that it was also intended to alter the levels of part of the London and Blackwall Extension Railway, at or near its junction with the Eastern Counties Railway, in the parish of St. Mary Stratford-le-Bow, in the county of Middlesex.

And whereas plans, sections, and books of reference were duly deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at Clerkenwell; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the city of London, at his office in the Old Bailey; and also with the parish clerks of the several parishes in which such branch railways and works would be made, on or before the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

And whereas, in pursuance of the aforesaid notices, application was made to Parliament in the last session for a Bill comprising the aforesaid works and objects, except the last-mentioned alteration of levels of part of the London and Blackwall Extension Railway, and under the authority of the resolutions of the Right Honourable the House of Lords and of the Honourable the House of Commons, dated, respectively, the tenth day of June last, the said Bill was suspended in the Right Honourable the House of Lords, at the close of the last session.

And whereas such Bill was intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the London and Blackwall Railway, and to authorize the Company to alter the gauge of their railway, and to make certain improvements in the approaches to the said railway, and to make branches to the London and St. Katherine's Docks;" and the short title thereof was "London and Blackwall Railway improvement and branches to the St. Katherine's and London Docks."

Now notice is hereby given, that it is intended in the next session of Parliament to apply to Parliament for leave to re-introduce the said Bill, and to pass the same into a law, with such modifications therein as to Parliament may seem meet.—Dated this twenty-sixth day of October 1847.

The Dover Landing Pier.

(For incorporating a Company for the Construction and Maintenance of a Landing Pier or Jetty at Dover, in the county of Kent.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to incorporate a company, and to give such company the necessary powers for making, erecting, and maintaining, and to ratify the making, erecting, and maintaining, a pier or jetty for facilitating the embarking and landing the British and foreign mails and passengers, carriages, luggage, and merchandize, in the bay of Dover, in the county of Kent, at a place immediately to the eastward of the land belonging to Her Majesty's Board of Ordnance, at Waterloo-crescent, in the parish of St. James the Apostle, in Dover, in the county of Kent, and projecting thence into the sea to an extent necessary to afford fifteen feet water at the head of such pier or jetty at low tides; and also to construct and maintain all necessary approaches, toll-houses, cranes, weighing machines, and other erections, buildings, works, and conveniences, in the said parish, attached to the said pier or connected therewith.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended in the said Bill to apply for powers to purchase lands for the purposes aforesaid, either by compulsion or agreement, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be taken; and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the said proposed pier or jetty and works, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans, shewing the said intended work, together with books of reference to the said plans, and also a copy of the notice for the Bill as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, as relates to the said parish of St. James the Apostle, Dover, in which the said works are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of the said notice will be deposited, on or before the said thirtieth day of November, with the parish clerk of the said parish, at his residence within the said parish.—Dated this twenty-sixth day of October 1847.

Thomas Baker Bass, Solicitor for the Bill.

Grocers'-Hall,
November 5, 1847.

By Authority of Parliament,
HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Clerkenwell Improvement.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the formation of the new street to Clerkenwell-green, in the county of Middlesex, in continuation of the new street from Farringdon-street, in the city of London, called the Clerkenwell Improvement, and which Acts were respectively passed in the sessions held in the third and fourth, in the fifth and sixth, and in the ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And it is intended to extend the time granted and continued by the said Acts, or any of them, for the compulsory purchase of the property authorized to be taken for the said improvement, and which has not yet been purchased or taken by the Commissioners acting in the execution of the said Acts.

And it is also intended to enable the Commissioners to transfer their powers, either to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the city of London, or to any other corporation or persons; and to enable such Commissioners, Corporation, or persons, to carry out the said improvements, and execute the said Acts; and also to authorize the advance of a further sum of money by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, out of the funds appropriated or to be appropriated to metropolitan improvements, or out of any other fund under the management and controul of the said Commissioners, and Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, or of either of them.

And it is intended to vary or extinguish any rights or privileges of any persons or parishes under the said Acts, or any of them.

And provision will be made for more effectually carrying out the said improvements, and for authorizing agreements with any person or company, with reference to the leasing or sale of the ground now or hereafter vested in the Commissioners, and to make further provisions with reference to such leases or sales, and the raising of money for carrying the said improvements into effect.—Dated this first day of November 1847.

Burchell, Kilgour, and Parson, Solicitors for the Bill.

Kew Bridge Amendment Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or repeal the following Acts of Parliament, that is to say, an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His Majesty George the Second, intituled "An Act for building a bridge or bridges cross the river of Thames, from a certain place in Old Brentford, in the parish of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, known by the name of Smith or Smith's-hill, to the opposite shore, in the county of Surrey;" and also another Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-first year of His Majesty George the Second, intituled "An Act for building a bridge or bridges cross the river of Thames, from a certain place in Old Brentford, in the parish of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, known by the name of Smith or Smith's-hill, to the opposite shore, in the county of Surrey;" and also another Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-second year of His Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for building a stone bridge cross the river of Thames, from the parish of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite shore, in the hamlet of Kew, in the county of Surrey;" and to grant and provide other and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And it is intended to apply for powers to impose fines and penalties for any infringement or infringements upon the rights and immunities already granted by the said Act or Acts.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to enable the owner or owners, or reputed owner or owners, of the said bridge, to grant leases of the tolls of the said bridge, for any period not exceeding seven years.

J. Mander, Solicitor, No. 9, Lincoln's-Inn.

North Western Railway.

(Diversions at Skipton, Casterton, and Sedbergh.)

WHEREAS a Bill was introduced into Parliament in the last session, intituled "A Bill for enabling the North Western Railway Company to make certain alterations and diversions in the main line of their railway, at Skipton, Casterton, and Sedbergh." And whereas, during the progress of the said Bill in the Honourable the House of Commons, provision was made therein authorizing an alteration in the line or course of one of the proposed diversions; and also a diversion of the turnpike road leading from Skipton to Clitheroe, and the carrying the line of the proposed Skipton Diversion of the said North Western Railway across a certain highway on the level; and also authorizing a diversion or alteration in the line of the Lancaster Branch of the North Western Railway, as already authorized by Parliament, not defined on the plans and sections, nor referred to in the books of reference deposited previously to the introduction of the said Bill.

And whereas further proceedings upon the said Bill were (pursuant to the resolutions of the House of Commons, passed on the tenth day of June last), suspended upon the Report from the Committee of the House of Commons, to whom the said Bill was referred, being considered and agreed to by the House of Commons.

Now notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to reintroduce the said Bill, with all such clauses, provisions, matters, and things therein as were contained in the said Bill, at the time that it was suspended in the House of Commons, during the last session of Parliament, as before mentioned.—Dated the 1st day of November 1847. John Sharp, Lancaster, Solicitor to the said Bill.

CONVEYANCE OF HER MAJESTY'S
MAILS AND DISPATCHES BY STEAM
VESSELS BETWEEN SOUTHAMPTON AND THE CHANNEL ISLANDS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, November 2, 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 23d instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to receive tenders, under conditions, which may be seen at the above Office,

For the Conveyance, for five years certain, from the 26th day of April next, of Her Majesty's Mails and Dispatches three times every week, between Southampton and Guernsey and Jersey, by means of not less than three Steam Vessels, of not less than 120 Horse Power each.

All tenders to be made upon the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained upon application at the said Office, and to be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, with the words, "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails," and "Comptroller of Victualling," in the left hand corner of the envelope.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and, if by an agent, be accompanied by the written authority of the parties tendering, and it must also express when and where the vessels will be ready for survey, and when they will be completely ready for sea, and also state the address of the party tendering.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR MALTA.

Department of the Storekeeper
General of the Navy, Somerset-
Place, November 3, 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 18th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering

At Malta, by the 31st of March 1848, 6000 Tons of Coals, fit for the service of Her Majesty's Steam Vessels.

The conditions of the contract and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £2000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR CANDLES.

Department of the Comptroller for Vic-tualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, November 2, 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 11th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into the Royal Marine Barracks at Portsmouth and Plymouth,

All such quantities of Tallow Candles as shall, from time to time, be demanded for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

The conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office, and (together with samples of the candles) at the Offices of the respective Barrack Masters.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Candles," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100, for the due performance of each of the contracts.

CONTRACT FOR WELSH COALS FOR JAMAICA.

Department of the Storekeeper
General of the Navy, Somerset-
Place, October 27, 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 11th of November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering

Into Store, at Her Majesty's Naval-yard at Jamaica, 1300 Tons of Welsh Coals, fit for the service of Her Majesty's Steam Vessels.

The conditions of the contract and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.
