

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1847.

A Gazette, containing Notices of intended Applications to Parliament for Bills (which Notices must be inserted in the Gazette before the end of the present Month), will be published To-morrow, Saturday the 27th November instant.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, November 23, 1847:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

HER Majesty has ordered us to declare to you the causes which have induced Her to call Parliament together at the present time.

Her Majesty has seen with great concern the distress which has for some time prevailed among the commercial classes. The embarrassments of trade were at one period aggravated by so general a feeling of distrust and of alarm, that Her Majesty, for the purpose of restoring confidence, authorized Her Ministers to recommend to the Directors of the Bank of England a course of proceeding suited to such an emergency. This course might have led to an infringement of the law.

Her Majesty has great satisfaction in being enabled to inform you that the law has not been infringed, that the alarm has subsided, and that the pressure on the banking and commercial interests has been mitigated.

The abundant harvest with which this country has been blessed has alleviated the evils which always accompany a want of employment in the manufacturing districts. Her Majesty has, however, to lament the recurrence of severe distress in some parts of Ireland, owing to the scarcity of the usual food of the people. Her Majesty trusts that this distress will be materially relieved by the exertions which have been made to carry into effect the law of the last session of Parliament for the support of the destitute poor. Her Majesty has learnt with satisfaction that landed proprietors have taken advantage of the means placed at their disposal for the improvement of land.

Her Majesty laments that in some countries of Ireland atrocious crimes have been committed, and a spirit of insubordination has manifested itself, leading to an organized resistance to legal rights.

The Lord Lieutenant has employed with vigour and energy the means which the law places at his disposal to detect offenders, and to prevent the repetition of offences. Her Majesty feels it, however, to be Her duty to Her peaceable and well-disposed subjects to ask the assistance of Parliament in taking further precautions against the perpetration of crime in certain counties and districts in Ireland.

Her Majesty views with the deepest anxiety and interest the present condition of Ireland, and she recommends to the consideration of Parliament measures, which, with due regard to the rights of property, may advance the social condition of the people, and tend to the permanent improvement of that part of the United Kingdom.

Her Majesty has seen with great concern the breaking out of civil war in Switzerland.

Her Majesty is in communication with Her Allies on this subject, and has expressed Her readiness to use, in concert with them, Her friendly influence for the purpose of restoring to the Swiss Confederation the blessings of peace.

Her Majesty looks with confidence to the maintenance of the general peace of Europe.

Her Majesty has concluded with the Republic of the Equator a treaty for the suppression of the slave trade.

Her Majesty has given directions that this treaty should be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty has given directions that the estimates for the next year should be prepared, for the purpose of being laid before you. They will be framed with a careful regard to the exigencies of the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty recommends to the consideration of Parliament the laws which regulate the navigation of the United Kingdom, with a view to ascertain whether any changes can be adopted, which, without danger to our maritime strength, may promote the commercial and colonial interests of the empire.

Her Majesty has thought fit to appoint a Commission to report on the best means of improving the health of the metropolis; and Her Majesty recommends to your earnest attention such measures as will be laid before you relating to the public health.

Her Majesty has deeply sympathized with the sufferings which afflict the labouring classes in the manufacturing districts in Great Britain and in many parts of Ireland, and has observed with admiration the patience with which these sufferings have been generally borne.

The distress which has lately prevailed among the commercial classes has affected many important branches of the revenue; but Her Majesty trusts that the time is not distant when, under the blessing of Divine Providence, the commerce and industry of the United Kingdom will have resumed their wonted activity.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22d day of November 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Richard More O'Ferrall was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of October 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the church building Acts," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in that behalf vested in them under the church building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in the words following, viz.

" Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Worplesdon, Ash, and Wanborough, severally situate in the county of Surrey, and within the diocese of Winchester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite certain contiguous parts of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Mark, at Wyke, in the said parish of Worplesdon, under or by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act for the further amendment of " the church building Acts," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the church building Acts, and that such consolidated chapelry should be called, " The Consolidated Chapelry of Wyke;" and that it should consist of the hamlet of Wyke, which is a detached portion of the said parish of Worplesdon, and such portions of the adjoining parishes of Ash and Wanborough as lie between the said hamlet of Wyke and the remaining part of the parish of Worplesdon; the boundary of such consolidated chapelry commencing at a bound stone placed on the north west side of Henley-park, on the boundary line separating the parishes of Pirbright and Ash, and to proceed in a straight line south westerly from that bound stone to another placed on the boundary line separating the said hamlet of Wyke from the said parish of Ash, and from the last-mentioned bound stone to proceed along such boundary line northerly, westerly, and southerly, until it reaches the boundary line separating the said hamlet of Wyke from the parish of Wanborough, along which said boundary it proceeds south easterly and north easterly until it reaches the road leading from Ash to Down Farm and Compton, and then proceeds along the southern side of that road easterly until it meets the boundary line of the parishes of Worplesdon and Wanborough, and then proceeds northerly and north westerly along the said boundary until it meets the parish of Ash, and continuing along the boundary of the parishes of Ash and Worplesdon northerly and north easterly to the point where the boundary line of the parishes of Pirbright, Worplesdon, and Ash meet, and then to continue along the boundary of the parishes of Ash and Pirbright south westerly and north westerly as far as the point where the first bound stone is placed north west of Henly-park, as such consolidated chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink, green, and yellow :

" Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, and also with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard Lord Bishop of Winchester, as the Bishop of the diocese, it has been mutually agreed between the Provost and College of the Blessed Mary of Eton, near unto Windsor, in the county of Bucks, as the patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Worplesdon, the Warden and Scholars of Saint Mary Winton College, near Winchester, in the county of Southampton, as the patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Ash, and Frederick Mangles, Charles Edward Mangles, and Albert Mangles, Esquires, as the devisees, in trust, of James Mangles, Esq. deceased, and as such devisees the patrons, in trust, of the parish church whenever one shall be built and consecrated in the said parish of Wanborough, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Mark and consolidated chapelry of Wyke should belong to and be exercised (whenever occasion may require) by the Reverend George Bethell, the present Rector or Incumbent of the said parish and parish church of Worplesdon, during such time only as he shall continue to be the Rector or Incumbent thereof; and that, upon his resigning or otherwise avoiding the said parish church of Worplesdon, the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Mark and consolidated chapelry, of Wyke should for ever thereafter belong to and be exercised (whenever occasion may require) by the Provost and College of the Blessed Mary of Eton, near unto Windsor, in the county of Bucks :

" That the consents of the said Charles Richard Lord Bishop of Winchester, as Bishop of the diocese, and of the said patrons of the said three parishes, have also been severally obtained to the formation of such proposed consolidated chapelry, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Charles Richard Lord Bishop of Winchester has signed and sealed this representation, and the said Provost and College, and Warden and Scholars, have affixed their respective common seals hereto, and the said Frederick Mangles, Charles Edward Mangles, and Albert Mangles, have severally signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement, in respect of the right of presentation or appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church and consolidated chapelry, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Truro Turnpike Roads.

(Continuation and Extension of Trust, and Formation of new Road, with powers to vest certain Roads in the Trustees ; to surrender part of an old Turnpike Road ; and to amend several Acts of Parliament.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to continue the Trust established by an Act of Parliament, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, cap. 3, and intituled "An Act for making, repairing, and improving certain roads leading to and from Truro, in the county of Cornwall ;" and to enable the Trustees of, or acting under the said Act, to make and construct a new road, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing from the present turnpike road, leading from Truro aforesaid, to and through Grampound, in the said county of Cornwall, at or near certain messuages, lands, and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Saint Clement, in the said county, now in the several occupations of Edward Wright, Philippa Cock, and Richard Edgecombe ; and passing thence from, in, through or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Saint Clement, Truro River, Truro Creek, and the beds and shores thereof respectively, Truro, and Saint Mary, all in the said county of Cornwall, and terminating on the Truro Town Quay, in the parish of Saint Mary, and county of Cornwall aforesaid, at or near a certain building used as a cellar or warehouse, in the occupation of the Truro Shipping Company ; and to construct a bridge or viaduct for carrying the said road over the Truro River or Truro Creek aforesaid, with all necessary approaches, piers, arches, and abutments thereto ; and also to widen and improve the existing road through the said parish of Saint Mary, leading from and over the said Quay, into and through Prince's-street, in the said parish of Saint Mary. And it is also intended by the said Act or Acts, to be applied for as aforesaid, to vest in the said Trustees, and make turnpike, a certain publick road or highway, situated in the said parish of Saint Clement, which diverges from the turnpike road, leading from Truro aforesaid, to and through the town of Mitchell, in the said county, at or near the first mile stone thereon, at a place called Buck's Head, and extends from the said point of divergence to the place where it falls into and joins the turnpike road leading from Truro aforesaid, to and through Grampound aforesaid, at or near the first mile stone on the said last-mentioned road ; and also to vest in the said Trustees, and make turnpike, a certain other road or highway, which commences at Ferris town, in the parish of Kenwyn, in the said county, at or near certain messuages and hereditaments in the several occupations of William Douglas Clinton, George Hall, and William Mc-William, and which extends therefrom, to or near Bosvigo-bridge, in the said parish of Kenwyn. And also to enable the said Trustees to alter, widen, and improve the said several roads proposed to be vested in them as aforesaid, and to erect and establish turnpike gates and toll bars thereon, and to levy, take, and receive tolls, rates, and duties for, or in respect of, the use of the same, and to grant exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties.

And it is also intended by the said Act or Acts, to be applied for as aforesaid, to enable the said Trustees to surrender and give up and convey and assure to Christopher Henry Thomas Hawkins, Esquire, his heirs and assigns, so much of the old turnpike road, leading from Truro aforesaid, to Grampound aforesaid, as extends from or near the Trewithen Bar, in the parish of Probus, in the said county, to the River Fal at Grampound aforesaid.

And it is also intended by such Act or Acts, to be applied for as aforesaid, to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads, railways, tramways, harbours, docks, sewers, pipes, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers, within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, with which it may be necessary to interfere in the construction of the said intended roads and works, or any of them.

And it is also intended by the said Act or Acts, to be applied for as aforesaid, to take powers for the purchase of lands and houses by compulsion or agreement, for all or any of the proposes aforesaid, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said intended roads and works, to be made, widened, and improved, or any of them, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the roads vested or to be vested in the said Trustees, or any of them ; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties respectively, and other rights and privileges.

And it is further intended by such Act or Acts, to be applied for as aforesaid, to vary, repeal, or extinguish, all existing rights or privileges, in any manner connected with the lands or houses proposed to be purchased or taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended roads and works so to be made, widened, and improved respectively, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is further intended by the said Act or Acts, to be applied for as aforesaid, to enable the said Trustees to raise all such sum and sums of money, as may be necessary for all or any of the proposes aforesaid, upon the credit of the tolls, rates, and duties already existing and created by the said Act of the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, or of any tolls, rates, and duties, to be authorized by the said Act or Acts, to be applied for as aforesaid.

And it is proposed by the said Act or Acts, to be applied for as aforesaid, to alter, amend, enlarge, and repeal, so far as may be necessary for effecting the purposes aforesaid, the said Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, and another Act of Parliament passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, cap 100, intituled " An Act for the better paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and otherwise improving the borough of Truro, in the county of Cornwall, and for forming a new street within the same borough."

And notice is hereby further given, that maps or plans and sections, describing the line, situation, and levels of the said intended roads and other works so to be made, widened, and improved respectively, and the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office at Saint Austell, in the said county ; and that, on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said maps or plans and sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said roads and works respectively are intended to be made, widened, and improved respectively, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively, at their respective residences.—Dated the tenth day of November 1847.

Great Northern Railway (Isle of Axholme Extension).

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of the Great Northern Railway Company to reintroduce into Parliament in the next session thereof, a Bill "to enable the Great Northern Railway Company to make an extension of their railway from the parish of Saundby, in Nottinghamshire, to the Askern branch of the Wakefield, Pontefract, and Goole Railway, in the parish of Owston, in the west riding of Yorkshire, with a branch to rejoin the Great Northern Railway in the parish of Snaith, in the said west riding," which Bill was suspended in the House of Commons in the last session of Parliament, after the report of the committee, to whom the same Bill had been referred, had been considered by the House.

Dated this fourth day of November 1847.

Baxter, Rose, and Norton, 3, Park-street, Westminster; Johnston, Farquhar, and Leech, Moorgate-street, London; John Collinson, Doncaster; Solicitors for the Bill.

North and South Western Railway (Harrow to Brentford).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to authorize the making and maintaining a railway or railways, with all proper, necessary, and convenient stations, erections, bridges, wharfs, warehouses, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, to commence by a junction with the line of the London and North Western Railway, in the parish of Harrow otherwise Harrow-on-the-Hill, in the county of Middlesex, at or near a point thereon, one hundred and seventy-five yards, or thereabouts, to the north-west of the mile post indicating the ninth mile and a half of the said railway, and to terminate by a junction with the loop line of the Windsor, Staines, and South Western (Richmond to Windsor) Railway, as at present authorized to be made in or near a certain market garden, numbered 5, in the parish of Isleworth, in the said county of Middlesex, on the deposited plans of the said loop line of the said last-mentioned railway, referred to in the "Windsor, Staines, and South Western Railway Act, No. 1, 1847," and which said intended railway and works will pass from, into, and through the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Harrow otherwise Harrow-on-the-Hill, Pervale otherwise Greenwood Parva otherwise Greenford Parva, Greenford otherwise Great Greenford, Norwood otherwise Norwood Precinct; Southall, Hayes, Hanwell, Ealing, Little Ealing, New Brentford, Heston, and Isleworth, all in the county of Middlesex.

And also to make and maintain a branch railway from and out of the intended railway, commencing by a junction therewith, in or near to another portion of the said market garden, No. 5, and passing thence in or through the said parish of Isleworth, and terminating by a junction with the said loop line of the said Windsor, Staines, and South Western (Richmond to Windsor) Railway, in or near a certain market garden, numbered 10, in the same parish, on the deposited plans of the said last-mentioned railway before referred to.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Act to incorporate a company for the purpose of carrying into effect the proposed works, or some part thereof, and to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid; and also to levy and collect tolls, rates, or duties upon or in respect of the said railway or railways and works, and to alter existing tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended to apply for powers in the said Act to make lateral deviations from the line or lines of the proposed railways and works, to the extent or within the limits defined upon the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and also to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike roads, parish roads, streets, and other highways, rivers, streams, canals, navigations, sewers, pipes, bridges, railways, and tramroads, within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places aforesaid, or some or one of them, as may be necessary to cross, divert, alter, or stop up for the purposes of the said railways and works.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended railway or railways and works, with a book of reference thereto, and also a published map, with the line or lines of railway or railways delineated thereon, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Middlesex, at his office in Clerkenwell, in such county; and that, on or before the said thirtieth day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said intended railway or railways and works are intended to be made, with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his place of abode, and in case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining to such extra-parochial place, at his dwelling-house.—Dated this twelfth day of November 1847.

Lane End or Longton Market.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for better establishing, enlarging, improving, and regulating the market-place and markets at and within the liberty, township, hamlet, or vill of Lane End, or Longton, commonly called Lane End Market, in the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, and for enabling the proprietors of the said market to improve, enlarge, extend, and alter such market and market-place, and the approaches to, and to the neighbourhood of the same; and also to increase, alter, or decrease the existing markets, tolls, rents, stallage, or duties, and to levy the same, or other tolls, rents, stallage, or duties, and for defraying the costs and expences of obtaining and passing the said Act; and for borrowing money on the credit or security of the market duties, tolls, rents, stallage, hereditaments, and premises; and it is further intended by such Act to empower the said proprietors to purchase all such lands, houses, and buildings, by compulsion or agreement, as may be deemed requisite or desirable to be taken for the purposes aforesaid.—Dated this eighth day of November 1847.

General of the Navy, Somerset-
Place, November 22, 1847.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 13th January next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying

- 10,000 Loads of British Oak Timber (rough contents, but to be delivered in a rough or sided state, as the said Commissioners shall direct);
- 3,700 Loads of British Oak Thickstuff and Plank;
- And 300,000 British Oak Treenails;

to be delivered at Her Majesty's several Dock-yards, by the 31st of December 1848, at prices, including all carriage and other expences.

A tender may be made for the whole contract, or for the quantities required for any one or more of the yards, but not for less than the full quantities of timber, thickstuff, plank, and treenails required for any one yard.

A form of the tender, showing the distribution, sidings, and dimensions of the timber, thickstuff, plank, and treenails, and all other necessary particulars, may be had on application to this Office, by letter or otherwise.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for British Oak," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £13,000, for the due performance of the whole contract, or in a due proportion for a part only.
