

"And whereas an agreement was entered into, on the thirteenth day of August last, between us and the Reverend Charles Hawkins, the present Prebendary of the said prebend of Barnby, otherwise Barnby upon the Moor, that the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned :

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Hawkins, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes, tenements and other hereditaments and endowments whatsoever (except the prebendal house, situate in Stonegate, in the city of York, mentioned in the said agreement and any right of patronage) now belonging to the said Charles Hawkins as such Prebendary as aforesaid, or to or in which, as such, he has or ought to have any title or interest, shall, together with all right, title and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Charles Hawkins to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Charles Hawkins, on the third day next after the day of the gazetting of the said Order of your Majesty in Council, the sum of eight hundred pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, with interest thereon, at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum, from the said thirteenth day of August last, according to the tenor and upon the terms of the agreement aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

C. C. Greville.
