NOTICE is hereby given, that Edward Ambrose Curty, son of John Curty, deceased, a seaman on board the ship Monsiech, in Admiral Lord Duncan's engagement of the 11th October 1797, is requested to apply at this office, within twelve months from this date, otherwise he will be excluded the benefit arising from the decease of his said father, John Curty.

T. P. RUST, Secretary.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Whitfield versus Lequentre, at the Mart, Bartholomew-lane, in the city of London, on Thursday the 20th day of January 1848, at one o'clock in the afternoon, with the approbation of Sir William Horne, the Master to whom the said cause stands referred, by Messrs. Brown and Roberts, the persons appointed by the said Master for that purpose;

The Chingford Flour Mills, most substantially built, working six pair of stones, with a handsome residence, lawn, garden, stables, and out-buildings, situate in or adjoining the river Lea, distant only seven miles from London, with the right of tolls over the river Lea leading to Edmonton, held for an unexpired term of seventeen years, at a ground rent of £40 per annum; also three cottages on the Edmonton side of the Lea, together with the right of water for fishing, &c. from Lee's Piles to Mount Mead, in the said river, and sundry small allotments of land, held under lease from the Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's, for an unexpired term of nine years, at a nominal ground rent. The whole will be sold in one lot, producing rentals amounting together to £471 per annum.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Mr. Clare, Solicitor, No. 5, Size-lane, Bucklersbury; Mr. Parker, Solicitor, No. 18, St. Paul's Church-yard; Mr. Cooper, Solicitor, No. 17, Hatton-garden; at the Angel Inn, Edmonton; the King's Head, Chingford; at the Mart; and of Messrs. Brown and Roberts, Auctioneers, No. 22, Throgmorton-street.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Wilder versus Parratt, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-room of the said Court, at the Gray's-inn Coffee-house, Holborn, on Wednesday the 19th day of January 1848, at twelve o'clock at noon, in one lot;

A freehold property (land tax redeemed), at the Hyde, in the parish of Kingsbury, in the county of Middlesex, two miles on the London side of Edgware, being one undivided moiety or equal half part of a cottage residence, coach-house, stabling, &c., a garden, and about 8½ acres of meadow land, in the occupation of Mr. Edward Oldfield.

The property may be viewed by leave of the tenant; and particulars had (gratis), in London, at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Mr. Steele, Solicitor, No. 1, Lincoln's-inn-fields; and Messrs. Palmer, France, and Palmer, Solicitors, Bedford-row.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Davenport against Crackanthorpe, the creditors of Edward Davies Davenport, late of Capes-thorne-hall, in the county of Chester, and of Lower
