

And Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 31, 1847.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration, that, upon the decease of Spencer the fifth Baron Rodney; without issue (which happened on or about the 15th day of May 1847), the dignity of Baron Rodney, of Rodney-Stoke, in the county of Somerset, devolved upon Robert-Dennett now Baron Rodney, as the only son and heir of Robert Rodney, Esq. commonly called the Honourable Robert Rodney, a Captain in the Royal Navy, deceased, whilst living the next brother of the said Spencer late Baron Rodney, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the only sister of the said Robert-Dennett now Baron Rodney cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to her in case her late father, the said Robert Rodney, had survived his elder brother, the said Spencer Baron Rodney, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Rodney, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that Anne, wife of Manaton Pipon, Esq. late a Captain in the First Regiment of Dragoon Guards (only sister of the said Robert-Dennett Baron Rodney), shall have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, preeminence, and precedence as if her late father, the said Robert Rodney, had survived his brother, the said Spencer Baron Rodney, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Rodney:

And Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.
