THE Queen has been pleased to appoint John Thomson Gordon, Esq. Advocate, to be Sheriff of the shire or sheriffdom of Edinburgh, in the room of Graham Spiers, Esq. deceased.

Whitehall, December 28, 1847.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William-Wright Worthington of Flixton-house, in the parish of Flixton, in the county palatine of Lancaster, Esq. Her royal licence and authority, that he may, in compliance with a provision contained in the last will and testament of Ralph Wright, late of Flixton-house aforesaid, Esq. deceased, assume and take the surname of Wright, in addition to that of Worthington, and also quarter the arms of Wright with those of his own family, in conformity to the intention and terms of the will of the said testator, and according to the laws of arms; and that such surnames and arms may, in like manner, be taken, borne, and used by his issue; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

We, the undersigned, being three of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act, passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," appoint Newport to be a port in that part of the United Kingdom called England; and Cardiff, to be a port in that part of the United Kingdom called Wales; and we do hereby declare, that the limits of the said port of Newport shall commence at Redwick Pill, in the county of Monmouth, being the western extremity of the port of Chepstow, and continue along the coast of the said county to the river Rumney, which divides the counties of Glamorgan and Monmouth:

And that the limits of the said port of Cardiff shall commence at the river Runaney aforesaid, and continue along the coast of the county of Glamorgan to a place called Nash Point, in the said county:

And that the limits seaward of the said port of Cardiff shall extend to a distance, from low water mark, of three miles into the sea, including all islands, bays, harbours, rivers, and creeks within the said limits.

And we, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby annul all former limits of the said ports.

in the county of Rutland, he intends to apply to the Justices, at their first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the said county in the first week after the 31st day of March next, being the time by law appointed for holding the Quarter Sessions of the Peace formerly directed to be holden in the first week succeeding the close of the Feast of Easter, to have two persons, not being interested in the matter, named by the said Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third person to be chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by the means mentioned in the above Act, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat, within the county of Rutland, for the ten years then last past, for the purpose of ascertaining the corn rent, in lieu of tithes, to be issuing and payable for the next ten years out of the several allotments and inclosures charged by the award of the Commissioners under the said Act with a corn rent, in lieu of tithes.—Dated the 31st day of December 1847.

Henry Atlay.

Parish of Latton, Wilts.

THE undersigned, the Right Honourable Edward Granville Earl of Saint Germans, being the owner and proprietor of the allotment or allotments of land situate, lying, and being in the parish of Latton, in the county of Wilts, upon which the yearly sum of money or corn rent mentioned or referred to in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-first year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, for dividing, allotting, and laying in severally the open and common lands and grounds within the parishes of Down Ampney, in the county of Gloucester, and Latton and Eisey, in the county of Wilts, is by the award of the Commissioner made, in pursuance of the said Act, charged and made chargeable, and out of which allotments the same yearly sum of money or corn rent has been issuing and payable, and has been due and payable, by virtue of the said Act, for fourteen years and upwards previous to this application, to the Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Latton aforesaid, for the time being, in lieu and satisfaction of, and full compensation for, all vicarial tithes, both great and small, moduses, compositions, and other dues and payments whatsoever (except as in the said Act is excepted), for or in respect of the lands and grounds, within the said parish of Latton, which were heretofore titheable to the said Vicar, do hereby give notice, that, pursuant to, and in conformity with, the powers and provisions contained in the said Act of Parliament, I shall, by writing under my hand, apply to the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Wilts after the close of the Feast of Easter, that is to say, on the 27th day of June 1848, to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or
