East India-House, January 19, 1848:

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That a Special General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leaden-hall-street, on Wednesday the 2d February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the desire of nine Proprietors of East India Stock, as expressed in the following letter, viz.

London, January 15, 1848.

To the Chairman and Directors of the East India Company.

Honourable Sirs,

We, the undersigned, Proprietors of East India Stock, duly qualified by law, request that you will convene a Special General Court of Proprietors, for the purpose of taking into consideration the accompanying resolutions, and that you will be pleased to publish the same with this our requisition.

We have the honour to be;
Honourable Sirs,
your obedient servants,

(Signed) Joseph Hume.
J. Sullivan.
Arthur James Lewis.
Geo. Thompson.
Chas. Grant.
Robt. J. Bagshaw.
Chas. Forbes.
John Poynder.
J. W. Graham.

Resolved—That as the peace and security of our possessions in India depend mainly on the faithful observance of existing treaties, it is most important that the East India Company should maintain all engagements with the Native States with inviolable good faith and honour.

That a treaty of perpetual friendship and alliance between the Honourable East India Company and his Highness Maharaja Pertaub Shean, his heirs and successors, was concluded on the 25th of September 1819, and afterwards duly ratified, by which, in consideration of the antiquity of the House of his Highness the Raja of Sattara, and for State reasons of paramount importance, the British Government agreed to cede, in perpetual sovereignty to him, his heirs and successors, the territory of Sattara, for the maintenance of his family in comfort and dignity.

That his Highness the late Raja, for upwards of seventeen years, governed his country and fulfilled all the conditions of his treaty with the British Government in so exemplary a manner, that, in December 1835, the Court of Directors, unanimously, with the sanction of the Board of Control, sent a sword of honour and a letter to his Highness, which letter was expressed in the following words:—

"Your Highness,

"We have been highly gratified by the information from time to time transmitted to us by our Government, on the subject of your Highness's exemplary fulfilment of the duties of that elevated situation in which it has pleased Providence to place you.

"A course of conduct so suitable to your Highness's exalted station, and so well calculated to promote the prosperity of your dominions and the happiness of your people, as that which you have wisely and uniformly pursued, while it reflects the highest honour on your own character, has imparted to our minds the feelings of unqualified satisfaction and pleasure.

"The liberality also which you have displayed in executing, at your own cost, various public works of great utility, and which has so justly raised your reputation in the eyes of the Princes and people of India, gives you an additional claim to our approbation, respect, and applause.

" Impressed with these sentiments, the Court of Directors have unanimously resolved to transmit to you a sword, which will be presented to you through the Government of Bombay, and which we trust you will receive with satisfaction, as a token of their high esteem and regard.

" With sincere wishes for your health and prosperity, we subscribe ourselves, in the name of the Court,

" Your Highness's most faithful friends,
(Signed) W. S. Clarke, Chairman.
J. R. Carnac, Deputy.

29th December 1835."

That, notwithstanding this unexampled testimony to his merits as a sovereign and as a man, the late Raja of Sattara was deposed by the Government of Bombay, on the 5th of September 1839, for an alleged breach of treaty, and has recently died an exile at Benares, solemnly protesting his innocence, and never ceasing to demand, to his dying hour, the opportunity of proving it.

That Major J. D. Carpenter, the Officer who had the custody of the Raja's person, and was in constant communication with him for more than seven years, from the time of his arrival at Benares up to the day of his death, wrote his own deliberate opinion, when called upon, in his letter to the Governor General, dated Benares, 25th May 1846, in the following words (see Parliamentary Papers, No. 711, of 1847): " To this end I carefully studied the whole of the voluminous documents connected with his (the Raja's) case, and the result was a belief in his innocence; and this belief has been confirmed, beyond a doubt, by subsequent disclosures, and by his pledging himself to prove it (his innocence) if permitted to do so, in his letter to Sir Henry Hardinge, of the 12th December 1844, forwarded through me, which pledge I am fully persuaded he (the Raja) is able to redeem."

That it further appears, that the whole of the late Raja's private property was seized contrary to a distinct written pledge under the hand of Sir James Carnac, the Governor of Bombay, confirmed by three notes from Colonel Ovens, the Political Resident at Sattara, which property was never restored.

Therefore resolved, that, considering the responsible functions entrusted to this Company by the Legislature, and having regard to the honour of the empire, and the security and good government of the people and Princes of India, this Court earnestly recommends to the Court of Directors to obtain the sanction of the Board of Control to the instituting of a public and impartial enquiry into the charges brought against the late Raja of Sattara, and into the manner in which the published evidence against him has been obtained, in order that the truth or falsehood of that evidence may be made manifest, and the British Government purged from the imputation of having treated the late Raja of Sattara harshly, illegally, or vindictively.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.
