

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1848.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 18, 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold Levees, at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, 1st March next.

Wednesday, 22d March next.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure, that presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty, through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Levee on the 1st March, it being a Collar-day.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend the Levees, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of February 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the church building Acts," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in that behalf vested in the said Commissioners under the church building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Saint Michael and the Holy Trinity, in the borough of Coventry, and within the diocese of Worcester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parishes, known as the hamlets of Keresley and Coundon, into one consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate in the said hamlet of Keresley, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the church building Acts," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the church building Acts, and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named, "The Consolidated Chapelry of Keresley and Coundon;" and that the same should be bounded on the west by the parish of Allesley; on the north by the parish of Corley; on the north east and east by the parishes of Exhall and Foleshill; and on the south east and south by the remaining part of the said parish of the Holy Trinity,

Coventry, from which such proposed consolidated chapelry is separated by the original boundary lines of the said hamlets of Keresley and Coundon, and as such proposed consolidated chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow and blue :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the Right Honourable John Russell, commonly called Lord John Russell, First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, as patron (on behalf of your Majesty) of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Michael, Coventry, and of the Right Honourable Charles Christopher Baron Cottenham, Lord High Chancellor of England, as the patron, in right of the Crown, of the parish church of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Coventry, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Thomas, at Keresley, and proposed consolidated chapelry of Keresley and Coundon, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, the Right Reverend Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester, and his successors, Bishops of Worcester, for ever :

"That the consents of the said Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester, as Bishop of the diocese, and of the said Lord John Russell and Charles Christopher Baron Cottenham, as such patrons as aforesaid, have been severally obtained to the formation of the said proposed consolidated chapelry, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester, Lord John Russell, and Charles Christopher Baron Cottenham, have respectively signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement, in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church and consolidated chapelry, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of February 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "church building acts," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority for that purpose vested in the said Commissioners under the church building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Saint Michael and Saint Chad, in the city and diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous parts of the said parishes into one consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church, called Christchurch, situate in the said parish of Saint Michael, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "church building Acts," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority for this purpose vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the church building Acts; and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should comprize the south western part of the said parish of Saint Chad, and a portion of the western part of the said parish of Saint Michael, and should be called, "The Consolidated Chapelry of Christchurch, Lichfield," and that the same should commence opposite Fossey-way-house, and take the boundary of the Wall district, in a north westwardly direction, until it joins the Burntwood district, and then proceed along the boundary of that district, in a north westwardly and in an eastwardly direction, to the corner of Leamonsley-mill, at which point it leaves the Burntwood district, and proceeds in an eastwardly direction through the parish of Saint Chad, along the middle of Leamonsley-brook to the corner of a plantation adjoining the Beacon-house lawn, and then takes the fence of the said plantation, in a northwardly direction, till it reaches Upper Shaw-lane, up the middle of which it extends about halfway, and then takes the boundary of the Beacon-house pleasure grounds, in a south eastwardly direction, till it reaches the carriage-drive to Beacon-house, up the middle of which it proceeds to Beacon-street, and then down the south side of the said street to the top of Shaw-lane, down the middle of which it goes, and crossing at the bottom, extends along a fence in a southwardly direction, till it again joins the Leamonsley-brook, along the middle of which it proceeds in a south eastwardly and eastwardly direction to Bird-street, opposite the Minster-pool, into which the same brook runs, and then extends along the south west side of Bird-street to the boundary of Saint Chad's parish, against Saint Mary's parish, and then in a south westwardly direction, keeping the said boundary of Saint Chad's parish against Saint Mary's parish, and proceeding to a public foot-road leading from the Bowling-green into the city of Lichfield, down which it proceeds in a westwardly direction, taking the Friary-grounds for its boundary, and turning abruptly, in a south eastwardly direction, still keeping the Friary-grounds for its boundary, for the length of one field, and then continuing in the same direction along a fence, between lands in Saint Michael's parish, till it reaches the Bowling-green-lane, down the middle of which it extends to the Birmingham turnpike road, along the middle of which it goes in a southwardly direction till it reaches the Fosseway, and then south westwardly, along the middle of the Fosseway, till it comes opposite Fosseway-house, where the said proposed consolidated chapelry commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green and pink :

“ And your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the Reverend Henry Gilby Lonsdale, Vicar of the parish of Saint Mary, in Lichfield, and as such the patron in right of his vicarage of the parish churches of the said parishes of Saint Michael and Saint Chad, in Lichfield aforesaid, has agreed, with the approbation of your Majesty’s said Commissioners, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church and proposed consolidated chapelry of Christ Church, Lichfield, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, and by his successors, bishops of Lichfield, for ever :

“ That the consents of the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, as bishop of the diocese, and the said Henry Gilby Lonsdale, as such patron as aforesaid, have been severally obtained to the formation of the said proposed consolidated chapelry of Christ Church, Lichfield, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield and Henry Gilby Lonsdale have signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement, in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church and consolidated chapelry, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of February 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Oldenburg, whereby due protection has been secured within the said duchy for the authors of books, dramatic works, or musical compositions, and the inventors, designers, or engravers of prints and articles of sculpture, and the authors, inventors, designers, or engravers of any other works whatsoever of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain and of Oldenburg do now or may hereafter give their respective subjects the privilege of copyright, and for the lawful representatives or assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, or engravers, with regard to any such works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, intituled “ An Act to amend the law relating to international “ copyright,” doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the day of the date hereof, the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works (that is to say), books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, and any other works of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain give to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers, respectively, shall, as respects works first published within the said grand duchy, after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, have the privilege of copyright therein for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of the like works, respectively, first published in the United Kingdom are by law entitled to, provided such books, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, prints, articles of sculpture, or other works of art have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve months after the first publication thereof, in any part of the said duchy :

And it is hereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions which shall, after the said first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, have been or be first publicly represented or performed within the said duchy, shall have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British dominions, such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom are entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same; provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve calendar months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the said duchy:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of February 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her present Majesty, for reducing, under certain circumstances, the duties payable upon books and engravings," it is enacted, that whenever Her Majesty has, by virtue of any authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared, that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, or makers of any books, prints, or other works of art, first published in any foreign country or countries, shall have the privilege of copyright therein, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to declare that, from and after a day to be named in such Order, in lieu of the duties of Customs from time to time payable on the importation into the United Kingdom of books, prints, and drawings, there shall be payable only such duties of Customs as are mentioned in the said Act:

And whereas Her Majesty hath this day, by virtue of the authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of books, prints, and certain other works of art, first published within the grand duchy of Oldenburg, shall have the privilege of copyright therein:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the day of the date of this Order, in lieu of the duties of Customs now payable upon books, prints, and drawings, published at any place within the said duchy, there shall be payable only the duties of Customs following (that is to say):

On books originally produced in the United Kingdom, and republished at any place within the said duchy, a duty of two pounds ten shillings per hundred weight.

On books published or republished at any place within the said duchy, and not being books originally produced in the United Kingdom, a duty of fifteen shillings per hundred weight.

On prints and drawings, plain or coloured, published at any place within the said duchy,

Single, each, -	-	-	-	0½d.
Bound or sewn, the dozen, -	-	-	-	1½d.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of February 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the

"limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Northumberland, in quarter sessions assembled, at Alnwick, in the said county, on the twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, representing, that the number of polling places within the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that the town of Rothbury may be a polling place for the said division :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said first-mentioned Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said place named in the said petition, namely, the town of Rothbury, shall be a polling place for the northern division of the county of Northumberland ; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as in the said Act secondly above mentioned is mentioned, shall, conformably to that Act, divide the said northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of February 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division ; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Stafford, in general quarter sessions assembled, in and for the said county, on the eighteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, representing, that the number of polling places within the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that the town or place of Tunstall may be a polling place for the said division :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said first-mentioned Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the place named in the said petition, namely, the town or place of Tunstall, shall be a polling place for the northern division of the county of Stafford ; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as in the said Act secondly above mentioned is mentioned, shall, conformably to that Act, divide the said northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Exchequer Bill-Office, No. 2, Whitehall-Yard, February 18, 1848.

THE Exchequer Bills, dated in the month of March 1847, viz.

Per 9 Victoria, cap. 15, £18,380,200, 1846, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 16th day of March 1848, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily, from half past ten o'clock till two, until and including the 6th day of March, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 16th day of March, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of two pence halfpenny by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 16th day of March, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal of the Exchequer Bills issued under the above-mentioned Act, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 6th day of March, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 17th day of March.

The bills to be classed in separate lists, according to the Acts under which they have been issued.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills charged on Supplies, dated prior to March 1847, have been advertised to be paid off.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Wesleyan Chapel, situated in Hackney-road, in the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex, and in the district of Bethnal-green aforesaid, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 14th day of February 1848, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 16th day of February 1848,

Robert Brutton, Superintendent Registrar, Bethnal-green, Middlesex.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Ramoth, situated at Cwmfelin-monach, in the parish of Llanwinio, in the county of Carmarthen, in the district of Carmarthen, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 9th day of February 1848, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 15th day of February 1848,
William Davies Phillips, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to give further time for making certain railways," the Ashburton, Newton, and South Devon Railway Company have made application, in writing, to the Commissioners of Railways, setting forth, that the Ashburton, Newton, and South Devon Railway Company are desirous that the period of time limited by the Act for making a railway from Ashburton, in the county of Devon, to join the South Devon Railway at Newton Abbot, in the same county, for the completion of the railway and works connected therewith thereby authorised to be made, should be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act; and also that the period of time limited by the same Act, for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purpose of constructing the said railway and works connected therewith, should be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that any persons who may think themselves aggrieved by such proposed extension of the time for the completion of the said railway and works connected therewith, and for the compulsory purchase of the said lands, and who desire to object thereto, may bring such objections before the Commissioners of Railways, by sending a written statement thereof, by post, on or before the thirteenth day of March next, addressed to the Secretary of the Commissioners of Railways, Whitehall, London.—Dated this eighth day of February 1848.

George Caunter, Secretary.

Grocers'-Hall,
February 18, 1848.

By Authority of Parliament,
HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership hitherto subsisting between us the undersigned, George Warwick and Thomas Cox, Linen Drapers, carrying on business at Great Malvern, in the county of Worcester, was dissolved, by mutual consent, as and from the 11th day of February instant; and that the said Thomas Cox will pay and receive all debts due to and from the said partnership.

—Dated this 17th day of February 1848.

George Warwick.
Thomas Cox.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore existing between me and Donald Wilkinson, carrying on business, as Ship and Insurance and Custom-house Agents, at Liverpool, under the firm of Morice and Wilkinson, was dissolved, by notice in writing given, pursuant to the deed of partnership, dated the 24th day of March 1846, as and from the 10th day of February instant.

—Dated this 15th day of February 1848.

Ja. F. Morice.

General JOHN VINCENT, deceased.

A PAPER, the contents of which are of the handwriting and subscription of the late General John Vincent, formerly of the Albany, but late of No. 117, Pall-mall, bearing date the 1st day of August 1846, and described as a codicil to his will, purports to bear an attestation of witnesses, who appear to be John Birr, Piccadilly, and Thomas Orde, Pall-mall, neither of whom, after diligent enquiry, can be found. The testimony of such attesting witnesses being absolutely required, it is requested that they, or whomsoever were and are the attesting witnesses of the execution of the said codicil, or was or were otherwise present at the signing thereof by the said General John Vincent, will forthwith attend at the office of Messrs. Willett and Poynter, Doctors'-commons, Proctors for the deceased's executors.

Rochampton Estate, St. James's, Jamaica.

1st January 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the Act of Parliament eighth and ninth Victoria, cap. 50; that it is the intention of the holders of the mortgage to the Crown, dated the 12th February 1834 (under a transfer thereof, dated the 20th March 1847), to exercise the power of sale in the said Act contained, and, accordingly, that the sugar estate, called Rochampton, situate in the parish of St. James, Jamaica, with the lands, works, buildings, machinery, live and dead stock, plantation implements, and other effects belonging thereto, will be put up to public sale, at the Auction Mart, in the city of London, in the month of May next; and that further particulars will be advertised when the day of sale is fixed.—If then sold, possession is proposed to be given on the 1st August next.

LORD CHANCELLOR.—Wednesday the 16th day of February, in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1848, between Thomas Spencer Cope, plaintiff; John Henry Cromwell Russell, defendant.

FORASMUCH as the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain was this day informed by Mr. Swift, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this cause against the defendant, and took out process of subpoena against him, on the 30th day of October last, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill; that it appears by two affidavits of the plaintiff, now produced and read, that the defendant has been within the jurisdiction of this Court at some time not more than two years before the issuing of the said subpoena, and that the said defendant is beyond the seas, and there is just ground to believe that he has gone out of the realm to avoid being served with process; it is therefore ordered, that the defendant do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 22d day of March next; and it is ordered, that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette, and in two newspapers published in London, within fourteen days from the date of this Order.

R. O. W.—Entd. J. S.

John Henry Cromwell Russell—Take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.

WILLIAM ALLICK KENNETT, Solicitor for the above-named plaintiff, 2, Great Knightrider-street, Doctors'-commons, city of London.
