TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1848.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 18, 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday the 22d March instant, at two o'clock.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure, that presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty, through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend the Levees, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2d day of March 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting

"the office of county coroner," it is enacted, that when and so often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county in England, that their county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, it shall be lawful for them, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division be made; and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and any petition which may be presented to Her by any coroner of the same county concerning the proposed division, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional coroner above the number theretofore customarily elected, to order that such county be divided into such and so many districts, for the purposes of the said Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the court for the election of coroner shall be holden; and whereas a petition of the justices of the peace of the county of Denbigh, in quarter sessions assembled, stating that only one coroner hath hitherto been appointed for that county, that the county is in length about sixty miles, and contains many mountainous districts, and praying that Her Majesty would be pleased to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorizing the election of two coroners for the said county, and to order that the said county be divided for the purposes of the said Act into two districts; that one of such districts should comprise the parishes and places within the hundreds of Bromfield, Chirk, and Yale, in the said county, and be named the Wrexham District; and that the other should comprise the parishes and places within the hundreds of Isaled, Isdulas, and Ruthin, in the said county, and be named the Denbigh District; also to determine that the court for the election of coroner for the said Wrexham District should be holden within that district, at the town of Wrexham; and for the said Denbigh District, within that district, at the town of Denbigh; and whereas the said petition, certified under the hands and seals of two of the justices present when such petition was agreed to, hath been presented to Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, it appearing that the requirements of the said Act have been duly complied with, and Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, order and direct, that the said county of Denbigh shall be divided, for the purposes of the said Act, into two districts, as prayed by the said petition; that the district comprising the parishes and places within the said hundreds of Bromfield, Chirk, and Yale, shall be named the Wrexham District; and that the district comprising the parishes and places within the hundreds of Isaled, Isdulas, and Ruthin, shall be named the Denbigh District: and it is hereby ordered and determined, that the court for the election of coroner for the said Wrexham District shall be holden at the said town of Wrexham; and for the said Denbigh District at the said town of Denbigh: and it is hereby further ordered, that this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

C. C. Greville.

Cheltenham and Oxford Railway.

Notice of Application for Extension of Time, under 11 Vict. c. 3.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to give further time for making certain railways," the Cheltenham and Oxford Railway Company have made application, in writing, to the Commissioners of Railways, setting forth, that the said Cheltenham and Oxford Railway Company are desirous that the period of time limited by the "Cheltenham and Oxford Railway Act, 1847," for the completion of the railway thereby authorized to be made, should be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act; and also that the period of time limited by the same Act, for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purpose of constructing the said railway, should be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that any persons who may think themselves aggrieved by such proposed extension of the time for the completion of the said railway, and for the compulsory purchase of the said lands, and who desire to object thereto, may bring such objections before the Commissioners of Railways, by sending a written statement thereof, by post, on or before the tenth day of April next, addressed to the Secretary of the Commissioners of Railways, Whitehall, London.—Dated this sixth day of March 1848.

Bubb, Lingwood, and Bubb; Williams and Griffiths; Shoubridge and Bramley.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to give further time for making certain railways," the London and North Western Railway Company, and the Great Western Railway Company, respectively, have made application, in writing, to the Commissioners of Railways, setting forth, that the said London and North Western Railway Company, and the Great Western Railway Company, respectively, are desirous that the period of time limited by an Act of Parliament, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to authorize an improvement of the line of the West London Railway, and the extension thereof to the river Thames," for the completion of the railway and works thereby authorized to be made, should be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act; and also that the period of time limited by the same Act, for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purpose of constructing the said railway and works, should be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that any persons who may think themselves aggrieved by such proposed extension of the time for the completion of the said railway and works, and for the compulsory purchase of the said lands, and who desire to object thereto, may bring such objections before the Commissioners of Railways, by sending a written statement thereof, by post, on or before the 10th day of April next, addressed to the Secretary of the Commissioners of Railways, Whitehall, London.—Dated this 7th day of March 1848.

MARINE BARRACK CANTEN AT WOOLWICH.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, March 10, 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, on Thursday the 23d instant, at one o'clock, the Canteen in the above Barrack will be let, from the 1st of April next, to the 1st January 1850, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person but of unexceptionable character, or who will not undertake, bonâ fide, to reside in or occupy the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved; and two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect of the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations of the indenture of lease. The Revenue or other licences to be paid by the tenant.

The person whose proposal shall be accepted and his sureties must execute an indenture of lease and covenants relating thereto, the particulars whereof may be known by applying to this Office, or to the Barrack-Master at Woolwich.

The Christian and surnames of two respectable persons, with their professions and places of abode, who will join the tenant in executing the indenture of lease as his sureties, must be inserted in the proposals. The tenant is to pay half the value of the stamps on the indenture of lease upon executing the same; and it is to be understood, that the said Commissioners will not undertake to procure the tenant a licence.

A printed form of the tender and conditions may be had at this Office, or on application to the said Barrack-Master. No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Marine Barrack Canteen," and must also be delivered at the Office of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, at Somerset-place.

By the Mutiny Act Canteens are not liable to have troops billeted on them.

As the person becoming tenant of the Canteen will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the indenture of lease, and to the full payment of the rent and privilege of sale to the troops, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, they are hereby cautioned to make themselves fully acquainted with the conditions of letting, prior to their making a proposal.

The rent of the Canteen as a tenement or dwelling is to be proposed at the sum stated below, therefore the biddings will be upon what is offered for every ten men per month, exclusive of serjeants, occupying the barrack, the number being ascertained from the Barrack-Master's Returns, made up at twelve o'clock at noon on the first day of every month, and no changes in the occupation of the barrack which may take place in the progress of the month, either for or against the tenant, will be taken into account. No less number than ten will be charged against the tenant, nor will any odd number be calculated; thus, if the barrack should be occupied by 148 men on the first day of the month, only 140 will be calculated for that month. The bidders are also desired to introduce no fractional parts of a penny in their offers, as they will not be noticed, nor will any tenders be noticed except such as are strictly according to the form furnished.

Published by order of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, in pursuance of the Act of the 55th Geo. III, cap. 84, sec. 5.

East India-House, February 29, 1848.

JAMES C. MELVILL, Secretary.

In the Matter of Charles Marsh Adams and Charles Warren, trading under the firm of Adams, Adams, Warren, and Company, Bankers, at Shrewsbury and Market Drayton, in the county of Salop, against whom a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 8th day of November 1847, hath been duly awarded and issued.

THE creditors who have proved their debts against the separate estate of the said Charles Warren are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on the 18th day of March instant, at the Corbet Arms Hotel, Market Drayton, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees confirming and carrying out a certain contract or agreement entered into by the said Charles Warren, before his said bankruptcy, for the sale, to John Tayleur, Esq. of Buntingsdale, near Market Drayton aforesaid, of certain freehold lands and hereditaments situate at Woodseaves, near Market Drayton aforesaid; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have already or who shall at the time of meeting hereinafter mentioned have proved their joint or separate debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Alexander MacNaughtane Paterson, John Walker, James Boydell, and Charles Blayney Trevor Roper, of the Oak Farm Works, in the parish of Kingswinford, in the county of Stafford, Iron Founders, Iron Masters, and Edge Tool Manufacturers, Dealers and Chapmen, and Copartners, bearing date the 11th day of February 1848, are requested to meet the trade and also the official assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Thursday the 6th day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Oak Farm Works, in the parish of Kingswinford, in the county of Stafford, in order to assent to or dissent from the said trade assignee declaring his election to accept or reject the lease or leases, or agreements for a lease or leases, under which the said bankrupts, James Boydell and Charles Blayney Trevor Roper, now hold under Sir Stephen Richard Glynne, Baronet, the messuages, lands, tenements, mines, minerals, furnaces, mills, forges, and other works and premises, known as and constituting the Oak Farm Coal and Iron Works aforesaid, and also the lease, or agreement for a lease (if any), from the Right Honourable William Lord Ward, under which the said bankrupts, James Boydell and Charles Blayney Trevor Roper, now hold a certain farm, lands, and hereditaments, situate in the several parishes of Kingswinford and Himley, in the said county of Stafford, or elsewhere, as tenants to the said Lord Ward; and also the lease, dated on or about the 5th day of June 1844, under which the said bankrupt, James Boydell, now holds as tenant to Mr. Charles Fleetwood Hewitt and his mortgagee, and in trust for the said Messrs. Boydell and Roper, a certain forge, messuage, and premises, at Wall-heath, in the parish of Kingswinford aforesaid, and all other leases, or agreements for leases, now held by the said bankrupts, or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee declaring his election to accept or reject the contract entered into by the said bankrupt, James Boydell, with the said Charles Fleetwood Hewitt, in or about the year 1846, for the purchase, from the said Charles Fleetwood Hewitt, of a capital messuage or dwelling-house, land, and premises, at Wall-heath aforesaid, now in the occupation of the said James Boydell; and also to assent to or dissent from a resolution that, in case the said assignee shall elect to accept the said leases, or agreements for leases, or the said contract, or either of them, he shall not be held to be liable for any diminution or loss in the price or prices which may be obtained on a sale of the said several properties, or any or either of them, or to any liability whatsoever in respect thereof, but shall be indemnified for any such out of the joint or separate estate of the said bankrupts, as the case may be; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, in case of dispute, compromising, arranging, and settling with the several mortgagees of the Oak Farm Works, as to their rights and those of the creditors of the joint estate of the said bankrupts, or of the separate estate of the said Messrs. Boydell and Roper, with regard to what part or parts of the works and machinery, and fixed and moveable chattels and things, respectively, at the Oak Farm aforesaid, is or are to be deemed as comprised in the several securities of such mortgagees, and what part or parts thereof is or are to be deemed and considered as passing to the said assignee, to be by him disposed of on behalf of such creditors, and otherwise to arrange and settle such rights upon such terms and conditions as the said assignee may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compromising, arranging, and settling with Sir Stephen Richard Glynne, Baronet, the landlord of the said Oak Farm Works, as to his rights and interests in the erections, works, and machinery at the Oak Farm aforesaid, as landlord, upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as the said assignee may think fit, for the benefit of the creditors of the said joint estate, or of the separate estate of the said Messrs. Boydell and Roper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, or other proceedings at law or in equity, and filing and answering any petition or petitions which shall be necessary for the protection of, getting in, recovering, or defending the property, debts, estate, and effects of the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, or of their or any or either of their creditors, and submitting to arbitration, compromising, arranging, settling, and agreeing any such action, suit, or other proceedings, disputes or differences, upon such terms and conditions as the said assignee shall think most advisable for the benefit of the said bankrupts' joint estate, or the separate estate of either of them; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing and prosecuting proceedings at law against, or compromising, arranging, and settling the claims of the following carriers and public companies, in respect of any liens they may severally have, or claim to have or be entitled to, upon goods delivered to them for or in respect of the carriage of goods in transitu at the time of the said bankrupts stopping payment, or for or in respect of the account or balance of any former or other account, claim, or demand they, or either of them, may have or claim against the joint estate of the said bankrupts, or the separate estate of any or either of them, viz., Messrs. Pickford and Company, the Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Company, the trustees of the Duke of Bridgewater, Messrs. Keen and Blake, Messrs. Shipton and Company, Mr. Benjamin Devey, Messrs. Southan and Evans, Messrs. Corbett and Sons, and any other carrier or carriers, railway or canal companies, and redeeming such goods or settling such claims upon such terms and conditions as the said assignee shall think most advisable; and also to consider and determine on, or otherwise to assent to or dissent from what the said assignee shall then propose, as the best and most probable mode of disposing of the iron, steel, manufactured goods, castings, rails, tools, implements, trade erections, loose machinery, stock in trade, and other goods, chattels, and effects, matters, and things, at the Oak Farm Works and at Wall-heath Forge aforesaid, and wherever else the said bankrupts, or either of them, have carried on their said trades, which are the property of or may by such arrangements as aforesaid be held or allowed to belong to and to have passed to the said assignee, on behalf of and for the benefit of the creditors of the joint and separate estates of the said bankrupts, or either of them, with a view to the realization of the best prices for the same for the benefit of the said creditors; and also to consider the propriety of and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing one or more of the bankrupts, or any other person or persons, to sell and dispose of, or assist in selling and disposing of, the said stock, machinery, goods, chattels, effects, matters, and things, or such part thereof as it may be expedient to sell and dispose of, from time to time, according to demand of trade and not by forced sales, at such commission or salary, or on such other terms as may be then agreed on, or as the said assignee may think proper, and of allowing the person so appointed to sell, either for ready money or for credit, according to the custom of trade, upon security of bills, at such dates as the creditors present at such meeting, or the person or persons so to be employed, shall deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee disposing of the whole or any part of the household furniture, horses, carriages, plate, pictures, china, and other household effects of the said bankrupts, James Boydell and Charles Blayney Trevor Roper, or either of them, by valuation, instead of offering the same in lots by public auction, and selling and disposing in the same manner of the farming stock of the said Charles Blayney Trevor Roper, and to empower the said assignee to accept in payment for what he shall so dispose of by private contract of bills or notes, at such dates, and made, drawn, accepted, or indorsed by such parties as the said assignee shall approve of; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing an accountant or accountants to prepare the accounts of the joint firm and of the separate estates of the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, for such remuneration as the said assignee may think proper, at the expence of the joint estate of the said bankrupts, or of the separate estates or estate of any or either of them, as he the said assignee may see fit or be advised, or the justice of the case may require; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, arranging, or settling any debts, claims, or demands due to or from the joint estate of the said bankrupts, or the separate estate of either of them; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignee to act for the benefit and protection of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, in such manner as he shall, from time to time, think proper or be advised; and on other special affairs.
