

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 1848.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2d day of March 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of county coroner," it is enacted, that when and so often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county in England, that their county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, it shall be lawful for them, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division be made; and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and any petition which may be presented to Her by any coroner of the same county concerning the proposed division, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional coroner above the number theretofore customarily elected, to order that such county be divided into such and so many districts, for the purposes of the said Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the court for the election of coroner shall be holden; and whereas a petition of the justices of the peace of the county of Denbigh, in quarter sessions assembled, stating that only one coroner hath hitherto been appointed for that county, that the county is in length about sixty miles, and contains many mountainous districts, and praying that Her Majesty would be pleased to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorizing the election of two coroners for the said county, and to order that the said county be divided for the purposes of the said Act into two districts; that one of such districts should comprise the parishes and places within the hundreds of Bromfield, Chirk, and Yale, in the said county, and be named the Wrexham District; and that the other should comprise the parishes and places within the hundreds of Isaled, Isdulas, and Ruthin, in the said county, and be named the Denbigh District; also to determine that the court for the election of coroner for the said Wrexham District should be holden within that district, at the town of Wrexham; and for the said Denbigh District, within that district, at the town of Denbigh; and whereas the said petition, certified under the hands and seals of two of the justices present when such petition was agreed to, hath been presented to Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, it appearing that the requirements of the said Act have been duly complied with, and Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, order and direct, that the said county of Denbigh shall be divided, for the purposes of the said Act, into two districts, as prayed by the said petition; that the district comprising the parishes and places within the said hundreds of Bromfield, Chirk, and Yale, shall be named the Wrexham District; and that the district comprising the parishes and places within the hundreds of Isaled, Isdulas, and Ruthin, shall be named the Denbigh District: and it is hereby ordered and determined, that the court for the election of coroner for the said Wrexham District shall be holden at the said town of Wrexham; and for the said Denbigh District at the said town of Denbigh: and it is hereby further ordered, that this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Office of Commissioners of Railways,
Whitehall.

Ashburton, Newton, and South Devon Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners of Railways, by a warrant under their seal, bearing date the 25th day of March now last, and made in pursuance of an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to give further time for making certain railways," have ordered and declared, that the period of time limited by the Ashburton, Newton, and South Devon Railway Act, 1846, for the completion of the railway described in the said warrant, that is to say, a railway, commencing at or near a certain bridge, called Dart-bridge, in the parish of Ashburton, in the county of Devon, and terminating in the parish of Wolborough, by a junction with the line of the South Devon Railway, shall be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the said period so limited by such Act; and also that the period of time limited by the same Act, for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purpose of constructing the said hereinbefore mentioned railway, shall be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the said last-mentioned period so limited by such Act, subject nevertheless to all such savings, exceptions, and provisions whatsoever as are contained in the said Act of the present session of Parliament.—Dated this 27th day of March 1848.

H. D. Harness, Captain, Royal Engineers,
Secretary to the Commissioners of Railways.

Parish of Tiverton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the above-named parish has adopted the Act of the first and second years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter 60, intituled "An Act for the better regulations of vestries, and for the appointment of auditors of accounts in certain parishes of England and Wales," and that the number of the majority and minority of votes given for and against the adoption of the said Act are as follows, that is to say, 1175 votes for the adoption thereof, and no vote against the adoption thereof.—Dated the 18th day of March, in the year of our Lord, 1848.

B

Manchester Corporation Waterworks Act Amendment.

Petition of Thomas Mottram, of Hyde, in the county of Chester, for additional provision.

WHEREAS by the Manchester Corporation Waterworks Act, 1847, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Manchester are authorized and empowered to supply with water (amongst other places) the towaship of Hyde, in the parish of Stockport, in the county of Chester, and the townships of Newton and Godley, in the parish of Mottram-en-Longdendale, in the same county, and the said townships are included within the limits of the said Act :

And whereas a Bill is now pending in the Honourable the House of Commons, intituled "A Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the Manchester Corporation Waterworks Act, 1847;" and whereas a petition was presented to the said House of Commons, on the 22d day of February 1848, by Thomas Mottram, of Hyde, in the county of Chester, for additional provision to be made in the said Bill; and whereas the Select Committee on Standing Orders have resolved, in reference to the said petition, and reported their resolution to the said House, that the parties be permitted to introduce their additional provision, if the Committee on the Bill shall think fit, provided that notice of the said additional provision be advertized, for two successive weeks, in some newspaper of the county; and the said House have agreed to such resolution; notice is hereby given, that it is intended to introduce such additional provision into the said Bill, and that by such additional provision it is intended to alter, amend, or repeal some of the powers and provisions of the said Act, with respect to the said power or authority so given by the said Act to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough of Manchester, to supply the said townships of Hyde, Newton, and Godley with water, and, for that purpose, to introduce clauses into the said Bill, restricting the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses from selling water to any person not duly authorized to sell and distribute the same to the inhabitants of the said townships, or any of them, and who shall not for that purpose be duly authorized to break up or interfere with the highways, roads, streets, lanes, and other public passages and places within the said townships, or any of them, and compelling the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses to supply, from day to day, in bulk, at high pressure, to the owner or owners, for the time being, of the Hyde, Werneth, and Newton Waterworks, such a quantity of water as the said owner shall require for the purpose of the said waterworks.—Dated this 7th day of March 1848.

Manchester and Southport Railway.

Notice of Application for Extension of Time, under 11th Victoria, Chapter 3.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to give further time for making certain railways," the Manchester and Southport Railway Company have made application, in writing, to the Commissioners of Railways, setting forth, that the said Manchester and

Southport Railway Company are desirous that the period of time limited by "the Manchester and Southport Railway Act, 1847," for the completion of the railway, branch railways, and works thereby authorized to be made, should, as to such portion of the main line of the said railway and the works connected therewith (being the railway firstly described in the said last-mentioned Act) as is situate between the intended commencement of the same main line of railway, on the south easterly side of Chapel-street, and within the distance of one hundred and fifty yards from London-street, in the town of Southport, in the township and parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster, and the intended point of junction therewith of the branch railway, thirdly described in the said last-mentioned Act, and hereinafter referred to in a field of which John Walmsley, Esquire, is, the owner, and John Thompson, lessee or tenant and now or lately occupied by John Caldwell, situate in the township and parish of Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, on the south westerly side of and adjoining the North Union Railway, and numbered 55 in the said township of Wigan, on the plans of the said railways, and the books of reference thereto deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster. And as to such other portion of the said main line of railway and the works connected therewith as is situate between the intended point of junction therewith of the branch railway, fifthly described in the said last-mentioned Act, and hereinafter referred to in a field of which William Gidlow is or lately was the owner and occupier, situate in the township of Ince-in-Makerfield, in the said parish of Wigan, on the south easterly side of and adjoining to the New Springs Branch of the North Union Railway, and numbered 80 in the township of Ince-in-Makerfield, on the said plans and books of reference, and the intended termination thereof by a junction with that part of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, heretofore called the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Railway, at a distance of twenty yards from the two-and-a-quarter mile post from the Salford Terminus of the said last-mentioned railway, in a field belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, in right of Her duchy of Lancaster, situate in the township of Pendleton, in the parish of Eccles, in the said county of Lancaster, and numbered 70 in the township of Pendleton, in the said plans and books of reference. And as to the following branch railways and works, that is to say, the branch railway, secondly described in the said last-mentioned Act, commencing and diverging from and out of the proposed railway firstly thereinbefore described, in a field in the township of Lathom and parish of Ormskirk, in the county of Lancaster, occupied by John Hesketh, and abutting on the westerly side thereof to the turnpike road from Liverpool to Preston, and on part of the southerly side thereof to Saint John's Church-yard, in the said township of Lathom, and terminating at and by a junction with the proposed railway now or heretofore called the Liverpool, Ormskirk, and Preston Railway, at the point of intersection by the said

Liverpool, Ormskirk, and Preston Railway of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal and Towing-path, in the said township of Lathom and parish of Ormskirk, and county of Lancaster, and another branch railway commencing and diverging from and out of the proposed railway firstly thereinbefore described in the said field in the township of Lathom and parish of Ormskirk, in the county of Lancaster, occupied by the said John Hesketh, and terminating at and by a junction with the said Liverpool, Ormskirk, and Preston Railway, in a field in the said township of Lathom, numbered 250 in the said township of Lathom, on the original plan of the said Liverpool, Ormskirk, and Preston Railway, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, in the year 1845, and on or before the 30th day of November in such year. The branch railway, sixthly described in the same Act, commencing by a junction with the proposed railway firstly thereinbefore described in a field called the Crab Tree Hey, in the township of Hindley, in the parish of Wigan and county of Lancaster, now or lately occupied by Elizabeth Dorning, and terminating at and by a junction with the part of the North Union Railway, formerly called the Wigan Branch Railway, near the Leigh Branch of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, in a field in the township of Ince-in-Makerfield, in the said parish of Wigan and county of Lancaster, numbered 66 in the said township of Ince-in-Makerfield, on the original plan of the said Wigan Branch Railway, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Lancaster. The branch railway, seventhly described in the same Act, diverging from or out of the proposed railway firstly thereinbefore described, in a field in the said township of Hindley, now or lately occupied by Timothy Ogden, near to the point of intersection by such proposed railway, of the boundary between the township of Hindley, in the parish of Wigan, and the township of Westhoughton, in the parish of Dean, all in the county of Lancaster, and terminating on the north westerly side of a lane called Pungle-lane, situate in the township of Westhoughton, in the parish of Dean, in the county of Lancaster, in a field in the said township of Westhoughton, now or lately occupied by Ellen Gregory, and known by the name of Boggart House Field. The branch railway, eighthly described in the same Act, diverging from or out of the proposed railway firstly thereinbefore described, in a field in the township of Atherton, in the parish of Leigh, in the county of Lancaster, now or lately occupied by James Higson, abutting on the north easterly side thereof to premises in Atherton aforesaid, of which the executors of the late Alexander Hay are, or lately were, lessees, and on the south easterly side thereof to the Bolton and St. Helen's turnpike road, in the township of Atherton, and terminating at and by a junction with the portion of the London and North Western Railway, heretofore called the Bolton and Leigh Railway, at the Bag-lane Station of such last-mentioned railway, in the township of Atherton, in the parish of Leigh, and county of Lancaster. The branch railway, ninthly described in the same Act, diverging out of or from the proposed railway firstly thereinbefore described, within the curtilage of three cottages and gardens, now or lately in the several occupations of Stanley Kaye, James Green, and Peter Cunliffe, situate in the township of Shackerley, otherwise Tyldesley-cum-Shackerley, in the parish of Leigh, in the county of Lancaster, and terminating at and by a junction with the portion of the London and North Western Railway, heretofore called the Liverpool and Manchester Railway, on the easterly side of, and at the distance of twenty chains from, the Barton Moss Station of such last-mentioned railway, on Barton Moss, in the township of Barton-upon-Irwell, in the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster. The branch railway, tenthly described in the same Act, diverging from or out of the proposed branch railway lastly hereinbefore described, in a field called the Well Field, now or lately occupied by David Grundy, situate in the township of Tyldesley, otherwise Tyldesley-cum-Shackerley, in the parish of Leigh, in the county of Lancaster, and terminating in a certain field called the Berry Field, now or lately occupied by Malcolm Nugent Ross, Esquire, situate in the said township of Tyldesley, otherwise Tyldesley-cum-Shackerley, in the parish of Leigh, in the county of Lancaster. The branch railway, eleventhly described in the same Act, commencing at and by a junction with the proposed railway firstly thereinbefore described, on the Little Common, in the said township of Tyldesley, otherwise Tyldesley-cum-Shackerley, and parish of Leigh, and on the south westerly side of and near to the carriage road leading over the said common, from the village of Tyldesley to Shackerley-hall, and terminating in a field called the Marled Field, part of the Moss Farm, situate in the township of Middle Hulton, in the parish of Dean, in the county of Lancaster, occupied by the Trustees of the late Duke of Bridgewater; and a spur or branch railway diverging therefrom or thereout, in a field called the Great Meadow, part of the Paddiham Farm, situate in the township of Shackerley, otherwise Tyldesley-cum-Shackerley, in the parish of Leigh, in the county of Lancaster, adjoining the Wash-lane there, and now or lately occupied by Henry Smith, and terminating in a field called the Hill, occupied by William Ford Hulton, Esq. situate on the westerly side of and adjoining to the Bolton and Saint Helen's turnpike road, and in the township of Over Hulton, in the parish of Dean, in the county of Lancaster. And the branch railway, twelfthly described in the same Act, commencing at and by a junction, by means of a fork with the proposed railway firstly therein before described, in a field called the Longcroft, in the township of Worsley, in the parish of Eccles, and county of Lancaster, now or lately occupied by Elizabeth Smith, near to a Coal Pit, called Sanderson's Pit, and (after crossing over such proposed railway) terminating in a field called Moreton Moss, part of the Wardley Hall Estate, in the township of Worsley, in the parish of Eccles, and county of Lancaster, now or lately occupied by Peter Nightingale, be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act. And also that the period of time limited by the same Act, for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purpose of constructing the said railway, branch railways, and works, should as to such lands, mentioned and described in the plans of the said railways, and the books of reference thereto, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, as relate to the said main line of railway, and are situate within the township of North Meols, in the parish of North Meols, and within the township of Scarisbrick, Burscough, and Lathom, in the parish of Ormskirk, and within the townships of Parbold and Wrightington, in the parish of Eccleston, and within the township of Shevington, in the parish of Standish, and within the townships of Orrell, Pemberton, Wigan, Ince-in-Makerfield, and Hindley, in the parish of Wigan, and within the township of Westhoughton, in the parish of Dean, and within the townships of West Leigh, Atherton, and Tyldesley-cum-Shackerley, in the parish of Leigh, and within the township of Little Hulton, in the parish of Dean, and within the townships of Worsley, Pendlebury, and Pendleton, in the parish of Eccles. And also as to such of the said lands relating to the said main line of railway, situate within the township of Wigan, in the parish of Wigan, as are numbered from 1 to 11, from 13 to 27, from 33 to 35A, from 37 to 61, all inclusive, and 181 in the said township of Wigan, on the said plans.
