AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 15th day of April 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to make further provision, for one year,

"and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, for the carriage of passengers by sea to "North America," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by an Order or Orders in Council to be by Her made, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to prescribe any such rules or regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for preserving order and for securing cleanliness and ventilation on board of British ships proceeding from any port or place in the United Kingdom, or in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, to any port or place on the eastern coast of North America, or in the islands adjacent thereto, or in the Gulph of Mexico:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty doth, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said Act, order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following shall be the rules for preserving order and for securing cleanliness and ventilation to be observed on board of any such ships proceeding on such voyage as aforesaid:

1. All passengers who shall not be prevented by sickness or other sufficient cause, to be determined by the surgeon, or, in ships carrying no surgeon, by the master, shall rise not later than seven o'clock A.M., at which hour the fires shall be lighted.

2. It shall be the duty of the cook, appointed under the 3d clause of the Act 11 Victoria, cap. 6, to light the fires, and to take care that they be kept alight during the day, and also to take care that each passenger or family of passengers shall have the use of the fire-place at the proper hours, in an order to be fixed by the master.

3. When the passengers are dressed, their beds shall be rolled up.

4. The decks, including the space under the bottom of the berths, shall be swept before breakfast, and all dirt thrown overboard.

5. The breakfast hour shall be from eight to nine o'clock A.M., provided that, before the commencement of breakfast, all the emigrants, except as hereinbefore excepted, be out of bed and dressed, and that the beds have been rolled up, and the deck on which the emigrants live properly swept.

6. The deck shall further be swept after breakfast and after every other meal, and as soon as breakfast is concluded shall be dry holystoned or scraped. This duty, as well as that of cleaning the ladders, hospitals, and round houses, shall be performed by a party, taken in rotation from all the adult males above fourteen, in the proportion of five to every one hundred emigrants, and who shall be considered as sweepers for the day; but the occupant of each berth shall see that his own berth is well brushed out.

7. Dinner shall commence at one o'clock P. M., and supper at six P. M.

8. The fires shall be extinguished at seven P. M., unless otherwise directed by the master, or required for the use of the sick, and the emigrants shall be in their berths at ten o'clock P. M.

9. Three safety lamps shall be lit at dusk and kept burning till ten o'clock P. M., after which hour two of the lamps may be extinguished, one being nevertheless kept burning at the main hatch-way all night.

10. No naked light shall be allowed at any time or on any account.

11. The scuttles and sternports, if any, shall, weather permitting, be opened at seven o'clock A. M., and kept open till ten o'clock P. M., and the hatches shall be kept open whenever the weather permits.

12. The coppers and cooking utensils shall be cleaned every day.

13. The beds shall be well shaken and aired on deck at least twice a week.

14. The bottom boards of the berths, if not fixtures, shall be removed and dry scrubbed and taken on deck at least twice a week.

15. A space of deck-room shall be apportioned for a hospital, not less, for vessels carrying one hundred passengers, than forty-eight superficial feet, with two or four bed-berths erected therein, nor less, for vessels carrying two hundred or more passengers, than one hundred and twenty superficial feet, with six bed-berths therein.

16. Two days in the week shall be appointed by the master as washing days, but no washing or drying of clothes shall on any account be permitted between decks.

17. On Sunday mornings the passengers shall be mustered at ten o'clock A. M., and will be expected to appear in clean and decent apparel. The Lord's Day shall be observed as religiously as circumstances will admit.

18. No spirits or gunpowder shall be taken on board by any passenger, and, if either of those articles is discovered in the possession of a passenger, it shall be taken into the custody of the master during the voyage, and not returned to the passenger until he is on the point of disembarking.

19. No loose hay or straw shall be allowed below for any purpose.

20. No smoking shall be allowed between decks.

21. All gambling, fighting, riotous or quarrelsome behaviour, swearing, and violent language shall be at once put a stop to. Swords and other offensive weapons shall, as soon as the passengers embark, be placed in the custody of the master.

22. No sailors shall be allowed to remain on the passenger deck among the passengers, except on duty.

23. No passengers shall go to the ship's cook-house, without special permission from the master, nor remain in the fore-castle among the sailors on any account.

24. In vessels, not having stern ports or scuttles in the sides, such other provision shall be made for ventilation as shall be required by the emigration officer at the port of embarkation, or, in his absence, by the officers of Customs.

And the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
