

titlies, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same :

“And whereas all the separate estates and endowments formerly belonging to the said deanery of Lincoln, comprising among other estates certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the townships of Little Chester, Quarndon, and Little Eaton, in the county of Derby, became vested in us on the vacancy of the said deanery, subject to the subsisting leases thereof :

“And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable :

“We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, situate in the said townships of Little Chester, Quarndon, and Little Eaton, heretofore belonging to the said deanery, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the respective registries of the dioceses of Lichfield and Lincoln.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 15th day of April 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

“Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint John, Hackney, in the county of Middlesex, and within the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Philip, situate at Dalston, in the said parish of Saint John, Hackney, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” and that such proposed district should be named,
