

obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Charles James Lord Bishop of London has signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 15th day of April 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act for the further amendment of the “Church Building Acts,” or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in that behalf vested in them under the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the several parishes of Middlewich, Sandbach, and Davenham, in the county and diocese of Chester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said three parishes and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to assign the same to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Biley otherwise Byley cum Gatehouse, in the said parish of Middlewich, under or by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act for “the further amendment of the Church Building “Acts,” or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty’s said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts; and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named, “The Consolidated Chapelry of Biley,” with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:

“ The boundary commences at the centre of a bridge, called Byley-bridge, over the river Dane, and thence proceeding eastward up the middle of the said river till it reaches a point near Low’s-pool, where the townships of Leese and Cranage meet; it then follows the boundary of the former township north eastward until it meets the road leading from Middlewich and Leese-smithy to Cranage; it then proceeds along the middle of that road eastward till it reaches another lane, called Mainwaring’s-lane, otherwise Crow’s-nest; it then proceeds up the middle of the last-mentioned lane northward and then eastward till it reaches the turnpike road leading from Hulme’s Chapel to Knutsford; it then proceeds northward along the middle of the said turnpike road to a point where the boundary of Cranage township crosses the said road, it then takes a north westerly, south westerly, south easterly, and again a south westerly and north westerly direction, following the boundary of Cranage township; through all its points, until it arrives at the point where the said boundary meets the boundary of Rudheath lordship, which last-mentioned boundary it follows in a north westerly direction till it meets the boundary of Stublach township in the parish of Middlewich, which last-mentioned boundary it follows north westerly and then south westerly and again north westerly, and then in