

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1848.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 15th day of April 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute, made at the Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled „An Act for the amendment of the law of „bankruptcy,” it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, after the passing of that Act, by a Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal, to appoint as many persons as Her Majesty should think fit, not exceeding twelve persons, being serjeants or barristers at law of not less than seven years standing at the bar, to be commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy to act in the prosecution of fiats in bankruptcy in the country, and that any one or more of such commissioners should and might form a District Court of Bankruptcy for the purpose of the said Act; and that every such court should be authorized to act in bankruptcy in the country at such place, and in and for such districts, as Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, should be pleased to direct; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, to describe, and from time to time to alter, the limit and extent of every such district as to Her should seem fit: and whereas at a Court holden at Windsor, on the second day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, did order and direct, that, for the purposes of the said Act, there should be seven districts in the country, which should be called, respectively, the Manchester District, the Leeds District, the Liverpool District, the Birmingham District, the Bristol District, the Exeter District, and the Newcastle-upon-Tyne District, and did describe the limit and extent of every such district: and whereas it is expedient that the hundred of Broxtow, in the northern division of the county of Nottingham, which is now comprehended in the Leeds District, should be separated from that district, and be annexed to the Birmingham District; and that the limit and extent of the Leeds District and the limit and extent of the Birmingham District should be altered accordingly:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the Leeds District and the Birmingham District, respectively, shall, for the purpose of the said Act, be altered, and be as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the Leeds District shall comprehend all places hitherto comprehended in that district, except the said hundred of Broxtow, which shall be and the same is hereby separated from the Leeds District; and the Birmingham District shall comprehend all places hitherto comprehended in that district, and in addition thereto all places locally situated within the said hundred of Broxtow, which is hereby annexed to the Birmingham District:

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH.

Trinity Term.—11th Victoria.

5th June 1848.

By the Court.Office of Ordnance, 5th June 1848.Royal Regiment of Artillery.

Second Captain Powrie Ellis to be Captain, vice Greenwood, placed on retired full-pay list.
Dated 13th May 1848.

First Lieutenant Alfred Romaine Wragge to be Second Captain, vice Ellis. Dated 13th May 1848.

Second Lieutenant Reginald Onslow Farmer to be First Lieutenant, vice Wragge. Dated 13th May 1848.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Suffolk.

Thomas James Ireland, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 1st June 1848.

Ports of Newcastle and Shields.

We, the undersigned, being three of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," appoint Newcastle and Shields to be ports in that part of the United Kingdom called England:

And we do hereby declare that, from and after the 1st day of June next, the limits of the port of Newcastle shall comprise the whole of the river Tyne down to the eastern end of Jarrow-quay, and shall extend from thence along the mid-channel of the said river Tyne to a point in mid-stream opposite to the eastern end of White-hill Point Sand, and shall comprise so much of the said river as is northward of mid-stream between the eastern end of Jarrow-quay and the eastern end of White-hill Point Sand aforesaid, and including all quays, wharfs, shores, and staiths within the said limits:

And that, from and after the said 1st day of June next, the limits of the port of Shields shall commence at the southern side of the river Aln, and continue from thence along the coasts of Northumberland and Durham to Souter Point, in the latter county, including the whole of the river

Tyne, up to the eastern end of White-hill Point Sand, and shall extend from thence along the mid-channel of the said river Tyne to a point in mid-stream opposite to the eastern end of Jarrow-quay, and shall comprise so much of the said river as is southward of mid-stream between the eastern end of White-hill Point Sand and the eastern end of Jarrow-quay aforesaid; and that the limits seaward of the said port of Shields shall extend to a distance of three miles from low water mark out to sea; and that the limits of the said port of Shields shall include all islands, bays, harbours, rivers, and creeks within the same respectively.

And we do hereby, from and after the said 1st day of June next, annul all former limits of the said ports of Newcastle and Shields respectively.

Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, the 27th day of May 1848.

*R. M. Bellew.W. Gibson Craig.
Shelburne.Whitehall, June 1, 1848.*

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Rolley Tripp, of Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 3, 1848.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Ewart, of Lynedoch-place, Edinburgh, Depute Director of Her Majesty's Chancery, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Birstal Methodist Chapel, situated at Birstal, in the parish of Birstal, in the county of York, in the district of the Dewsbury union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 23d day of May 1848, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 25th day of May 1848,
William Carr, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building, named Saint Joseph's, situated in Grosvenor-street, in the parish of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Liverpool, being a building licenced and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic Chapel exclusively, was, on the 19th day of May 1848, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 27th day of May 1848,
James Eckersley, Superintendent Registrar.
