TO
The London Gazette
of TUESDAY the 15th of AUGUST.

Published by Authority.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1848.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 11th day of August 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the eighth, ninth, and thirteenth sections of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of every or any other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Prescott, in the county of Lancaster, and within the diocese of Chester, contained a population of thirty-five thousand nine hundred and two persons; that besides the parish church, which will afford accommodation to two thousand persons, there are eight other churches in the said parish, which together afford accommodation to about six thousand eight hundred and twenty-five persons, including one thousand six hundred and thirty-four on free seats; that a new church, which is about to be consecrated by the name of Saint Nicholas Church, has been lately built at Sutton, in the said parish of Prescott, and it is estimated that the same will accommodate about four hundred persons, nearly all on free seats:

"That the vicarage or parish church of the said parish of Prescott is now vacant, by reason of the death of the Reverend Charles George Thomas Driffield, Master of Arts, the late Vicar or Incumbent thereof:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the said parish of Prescott, it appears to them to be expedient, that such parish should, during the vacancy of the said vicarage and parish church of the said parish of Prescott, and before the consecration of the said new church at Sutton as aforesaid, be divided into two distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, under and by virtue of the power and authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and under and by virtue of the thirteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," or one or both of such sections of such Acts, or under or by virtue of every or any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the Church Buildings Acts; and that the same should be respectively named, "The parish of Prescott," and "The parish of Sutton;" that the ancient parish church at Prescott, dedicated to Saint Mary, should remain and be the parish church of the said parish of Prescott, and that the said new church of Saint Nicholas at Sutton should, on consecration, be and become and remain the parish church of the said parish of Sutton; and further, that the boundaries of such last-mentioned parish should be as follow, on the north by a lane called Pinnington's-lane, beginning at a brook which divides the townships of Sutton and Parr, and the continuous lane to Peasley-cross, from thence by the highway to a place called Green-end, and continuously to Broad Gate-lane, to a stile in the same lane on the hill, and from that stile, by the foot-path, across Broad Gate-farm, which leads into the highway from Peasley-cross to Sutton-heath, near a place called Hell Bess-wood, and thence by the last-mentioned highway to Sutton-heath; on the west by the lane from Sutton-heath, by Lowfield-farm, over the Liverpool and Manchester section of the London and North Western Railway, at the Lea-green station, and thence continuously past Micklehead-green to the watercourse in front of Messieurs Rawlins' Smalt Works and premises, which divides the townships of Sutton and Rainhill, and from thence by that boundary to Wilmere-lane; on the south by the highway continuously with Wilmere-lane to the public-house known by the sign of the Clock Face, in the township of Bold, and from thence, southwardly, by the highway leading from Saint Helen's to Bold-heath, to the end of a lane leading to the Maypole, in the said township of Bold, and then by the same lane, past the Maypole, to the lane opposite the north lodge or entrance to Bold-hall, and by the same lane thence to the boundary between the townships of Bold and Burtonwood; and on the east by the last-mentioned boundary continuously to the boundary between the townships of Parr and Sutton, over Markhill's Moss, and by that boundary until it reaches Pinnington's-lane aforesaid, as the said proposed parish of Sutton is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the part of the original parish of Prescott, remaining after such division, should form the parish of Prescott as aforesaid, but so as not to interfere with the pastoral duties of the incumbents of such of the several consecrated churches or chapels locally situate within the said parish of Prescott, to which particular districts may have been already assigned under the provisions of the Church Building Acts:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that all the glebe land belonging to the vicarage or parish church of the said parish of Prescott is now and will continue (after such division as aforesaid) to be situate within the part of the said parish of Prescott remaining after such division as aforesaid; and that it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient, that such glebe land should continue as at present to belong to the said vicarage or parish church of Prescott, or to the vicar or incumbent thereof for the time being:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it appears to them to be expedient, that all the vicarial tithes or moduses arising and accruing in the several townships of Cronton, Cuerdley, Ditton, Penketh, Prescott, Rainford, Sankey, Whiston, Widnes, and Windle, all situate in the said original parish of Prescott (after such proposed division as aforesaid); and which said tithes or moduses have (under the provisions of the several Acts passed for the commutation of tithes in England and Wales) been respectively commuted at or for the annual sums of fifty-two pounds ten shillings, eighty-one pounds eleven shillings and six pence, eighty-nine pounds, forty pounds, nineteen pounds, three hundred and fifty pounds, seventy-five pounds, one hundred and twenty-four pounds, one hundred and sixty pounds, and two hundred and seventy-five pounds nineteen shillings, amounting in the whole to the annual sum of one thousand two hundred and sixty-seven pounds and six pence, should henceforth belong to and be held and enjoyed and be recoverable by the vicar for the time being of the said parish church of Prescot :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that all the vicarial tithes or moduses arising and accruing in the townships of Bold, Eccleston, Parr, Rainhill, and Sutton (all which townships for the purposes of the herein-before-proposed division will be locally situate in the said original parish of Prescot, remaining after such proposed division as aforesaid, excepting those portions of the said townships of Sutton and Bold, which constitute the said proposed parish of Sutton, as shewn on the said map), and which, under the provisions of the said Tithe Commutation Acts, or some or one of them, have been respectively commuted at or for the annual sums of one hundred and seventeen pounds nineteen shillings and five pence, two hundred pounds, ninety-four pounds, one hundred and eight pounds, and one hundred and ninety-six pounds, amounting in the whole to the annual sum of seven hundred and fifteen pounds nineteen shillings and five pence, should be apportioned, assigned, and attached, to the full extent thereof, as an endowment or provision for the future vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed parish of Sutton, under and by virtue of the powers and authorities for such purpose contained in the eighth section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, or under or by virtue of any other power or authority enabling your Majesty’s said Commissioners in that behalf under the Church Building Acts :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the estimated annual amount of the relative and respective proportions of commuted tithes or moduses, which will hereafter belong or accrue to the vicars of each of the said two parishes of Prescot and Sutton, will be as aforesaid, namely, one thousand two hundred and sixty-seven pounds and six pence to the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Prescot ; and seven hundred and fifteen pounds nineteen shillings and five pence (so proposed to be apportioned, assigned, and attached as aforesaid) to the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish or proposed parish of Sutton :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it is estimated that the annual amount of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues, which will arise or accrue to the vicar of the said parish of Prescot, will be about forty-two pounds, and to the vicar of the said proposed parish of Sutton about three pounds :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it appears to them to be expedient (with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, testified as hereinafter mentioned), as required by and in pursuance of the powers in this behalf contained in the ninth section of the said Act, so passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, that a certain payment of twenty-four pounds ten shillings, hitherto payable by every vicar or incumbent of the said parish church of the said parish of Prescot upon his induction to such church, to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy ; and also a certain annual sum of two pounds eight shillings and one penny, likewise payable by such last-mentioned vicar during his incumbency of the said last-mentioned church, to the said governors, should henceforth be borne and paid to the said governors by the vicar for the time being of the said parish of Prescot, and by the vicar of the proposed parish of Sutton, in the proportions following, that is to say, fifteen pounds thirteen shillings and one penny by the vicar of the said parish of Prescot and his successors ; and eight pounds sixteen shillings and eleven pence by the vicar of the proposed parish of Sutton and his successors, upon their respective inductions to the churches of the said respective parishes; and that one pound ten shillings and nine pence part of the said annual payment or sum of two pounds eight shillings and one penny, should be annually borne and paid to the said governors by the vicar of the said parish of Prescott and his successors; and that seventeen shillings and four pence, being the residue of the said annual payment or sum of two pounds eight shillings and one penny, should be annually borne and paid to the said governors by the vicar of the said proposed parish of Sutton, and by his successors during the respective incumbrances of the said two parishes:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Chester (as the Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained to the hereinbefore-proposed division of the said parish of Prescott, and also to the said division or apportionment of the tithes or moduses, and all other the said emoluments and endowments, in the manner hereinbefore stated or proposed; and also the consents of the Provost and Fellows of King's College, within the University of Cambridge, as the patrons of the said parish or vicarage and parish church of Prescott aforesaid, as severally required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said John Lord Bishop of Chester has signed and sealed this representation, and the said Provost and Fellows have caused their college or common seal to be hereunto affixed:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect thereto, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 11th day of August 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts," as enlarged and extended by the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, on the fourteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, your Majesty's said Commissioners, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield, made a representation to your Majesty in Council, that it appeared to them to be expedient, and therefore humbly prayed, that a particular district might be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, in the parish of Kingswinford, in the county of Stafford, and within the diocese of Lichfield, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and that the district so to be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary should be named, "The Chapelry District of Saint Mary, Kingswinford," and with boundaries as set forth in such representation and hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, commencing at a point in the Kidderminster turnpike road, opposite to Heath-brook-farm, and proceeding in a south easterly and easterly direction along the middle of the Heath-brook-pool and Dawley-brook, as far as the south eastern boundary of the field No. 2382 on the tithe commutation map of the parish of Kingswinford, when the line proceeds northerly along the eastern fence which separates the said field from the field No. 2383 on the said map as far as the Ashwood Railway, which it crosses, and then proceeds in an easterly direction along the ditches of the southern fences of three fields, numbered respectively 2379, 2377, and 2374 on the said map; the boundary then turns northerly, and runs along the ditch of the western fence of the Honeysuckle-field, numbered 2333 on the said map, to the south west corner of Helliott's-field, numbered 2334 on the said map, when it proceeds easterly along the ditch of the fence between the said two last-mentioned fields, and from thence in a straight direction between two fields numbered 2327 and 2328, when the line proceeds northerly up the western fence of enclosure No. 2325 on the said map, to the garden and rick-yard of Becknell's-field farm-house, and then turns easterly, and runs along the northern fence of the said field No. 2325, to a gate in a foredraught leading from the said farm-house to Kingswinford, and, crossing the said foredraught, turns northerly, and runs along the ditch of the fence on the eastern side of the foredraught to a stile opposite the corner of the rick-yard; the boundary again turns easterly from the said stile, proceeding along the foot path leading through Mansell's-meadow No. 2275, into Stalling's-lane, and along the middle of that lane to the bridge over the Stourbridge Extension Canal into Stalling's-lane; it then proceeds southerly down the said canal as far as the bridge in Bromley-lane, at the corner of two fields numbered 989 and 990 on the map, from which bridge it then proceeds in a westerly direction along the middle of the said lane, passing by Bromley-hall, Coal Leasows, and Burras's-barn, as far as the turnpike gate in the road leading from Stourbridge to Wolverhampton, and, crossing the said road, runs along the fence between the Little and Big Broad Meadows, numbered 2411 and 2414, to Barnet-lane, which lane it crosses, and runs along the ditch between two fields called the House-piece, No. 2470, and the Almshouse-piece, No. 2471, as far as Cort-lane, from thence it proceeds northerly and north westerly along the middle of the said lane, passing by Summer-hill, and continuing up the middle of the road or lane to Heath-brook-farm, as far as the Kidderminster turnpike road, and then north easterly up the middle of that road to the point where the boundaries of the district commenced, as the same was more particularly delineated on the map or plan annexed to the said representation, and thereon coloured green:

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, your Majesty was graciously pleased, by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the said proposed assignment of the said district, and was pleased to order that the same should be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act:

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said parish of Kingswinford, and of the said district which was so assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, at Kingswinford, it appears to them to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said district should be altered, under or by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to further amend the " Church Building Acts," as enlarged and extended by the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act for the further amendment of the " Church Building Acts;" and that the boundaries hereinafter set forth should be substituted for those comprised in the said Order of your Majesty in Council of the twenty-sixth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, that is to say:

" The boundary line to commence on the south side of Heath-brook-farm, and in the centre of the road leading from Kidderminster to Himley, where it is crossed by the road or lane leading from Summer-hill to Inksford; and from thence to proceed north westerly up the middle of the latter road or lane, until it meets the boundary line which separates the parish of Kingswinford from the parish of Himley; and then continue along such boundary line in a north easterly direction, until it joins the boundary line separating the said parish of Kingswinford from the parish of Sedgley, along which said boundary it will then proceed easterly and south easterly as far as the northern corner of a fence, between the fields Nos. 2205 and 2204, on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Kingswinford; and then runs southerly along the centre of the road leading from Coppice-mill, Hockley, to Shut End, to the southern corner of the lane leading to the Oak Farm; it will then cross such lane, and proceed in a straight line to the commencement of the Stour-bridge Extension Canal; along the middle of which canal it will then proceed southerly as far as the bridge in Bromley-lane, at the corner of two fields, Nos. 989 and 990 on the said map; from which bridge it will then proceed westerly along the middle of that lane, passing by Bromley-hall, Coal Leasows, and Burras's-barn, as far as the turnpike gate called Bromley-lane-gate, in the road leading from Wordsley to Wolverhampton, and crossing the said road it will then proceed along the fence between the Little and Big Broad Meadows, Nos. 2441 and 2443, on the north, and 2444 towards the south, to Barnett-lane; which lane it will then cross and run along the ditch between two fields, called the House-piece, No. 2470, and the Almshouse-piece, No. 2471, as far as Cort-lane; from thence it will proceed northerly and north westerly up the middle of the said lane, passing by Summer-hill and Ashwood-house, as far as the point in the Kidderminster-road, south of Heath-brook-farm, where the boundary commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured light green and dark green :

“ That the consent of the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, as Bishop of the diocese, and also the consents of the Right Honourable William Baron Ward, as the patron, and the Reverend Charles Girdlestone, as the incumbent of the parish church of the said parish of Kingswinford, have been severally obtained to such proposed alteration of boundaries as aforesaid, as required by the said section of the said Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign; in testimony whereof, the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, William Baron Ward, and Charles Girdlestone have severally signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto; as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plans thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Saint Mary, Kingswinford, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 11th day of August 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, “ passed in the last session of Parliament, for “ building, and promoting the building, of additional “ churches in populous parishes,” or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Almondbury, in the west riding of the county of York, and within the diocese of Ripon, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Armitage-bridge, in the said parish of Almondbury, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, "passed in the last session of Parliament, for "building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts; and that such proposed district should consist of portions of the townships of Almondbury and South Crosland, and should be named, "the Chapelry District of Saint Paul, Armitage-bridge," with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned; the boundaries of the chapelry district of Saint Paul, Armitage-bridge, commence at a point called Dungeon Bottom, where the boundary line between the townships of South Crosland and Lockwood meet the river Holme, at which point the boundary line crosses the river Holme and, entering the township of Almondbury, proceeds in a south easterly direction in a straight line across the Huddersfield and Woodhead turnpike road to the north angle of a wood, called Hall Bower Wood, the property of Mr. John Taylor, follows the public foot-path in a south eastwardly direction to Hall Bower occupation lane, then follows the said occupation lane in a north westwardly and south eastwardly direction to a public highway leading from Hall Bower School to Berry Brown, then across the said highway to the north westwardly end of Mucky-lane occupation road, from which point it proceeds up the centre of Mucky-lane occupation road, in a south easterly direction to the road that leads from Almondbury to Henley, and proceeds along the centre of that road past Catterson Stirby-hill, in a north east and easterly direction to the division of the townships of Almondbury and Farnley Tyas, from this point the boundary line of the proposed district will be the boundary of the township of Almondbury to the point where the boundary of such last-mentioned township meets the river Holme, then running northerly along the river Holme to a fence which divides the property of the Earl of Dartmouth from that of William Brooke, Esquire, consisting of wood land and buildings, called or known by the name of Armitage-bridge, and by other property called the Armitage, and by the Lockwood and Meltham turnpike road, which meets the boundary line between the townships of South Crosland and Lockwood, as such proposed district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured purple:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Paul, at Armitage-bridge; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent thereof for the time being; that the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Lord Bishop of Ripon (as the Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section firstly hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Charles Thomas Lord Bishop of Ripon has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is thereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 11th day of August 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in them under the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Greasley, in the county of Nottingham, and within the diocese of Lincoln, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church called Trinity Church, situate at Kimberley, in the said parish, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts; and that such proposed district should consist of the southernmost portion of the said parish of Greasley, and also of a small detached portion of such parish as hereinafter mentioned; and that the several boundaries of such proposed district should be those hereinafter described:

"The chapelry district of Kimberley is bounded on the north west by the parish of Eastwood; on the west by the parish of Ilkstone; on the south west by the township of Awsworth (which is a detached part of the parish of Nuthall), and by the parish of Cossall; on the south by the parish of Strelley; on the east by the said parish of Nuthall; and on the north by the remaining part of the parish of Greasley, from which such proposed chapelry district of Kimberley is separated by proceeding in a north westerly direction up the middle of the road leading from Nuthall to Greasley, as far as Holly lane, up the middle of which lane it proceeds westerly as far as the boundary line separating the hamlets of Kimberley and Watnall Cantalupe, along which boundary it proceeds north westerly to the boundary of the hamlets of Moor-green and Kimberley, along which boundary it then proceeds westerly as far as Gilt-brook, and then turns southerly down that brook as far as the road from Kimberley and Nottingham to Eastwood, along the middle of which road it then proceeds north westerly as far as the parish of Eastwood; and including in the said proposed chapelry district of Kimberley a certain detached portion of the said parish of Greasley called Kempwill, which is bounded on the north and north west by the said parish of Nuthall, on the east and north east by the parish of Balwell, on the south east by the parish of Basford, and on the south by the parish of Bilborough, and as such proposed chapelry district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it appears to them to be also expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church at Kimberley aforesaid; and that the fees arising therefrom should be reserved for or paid to the Reverend John Hides, the present vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Greasley, during his incumbency of such parish, and that upon his avoidance thereof such fees should be paid and belong to the minister thereof for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lincoln (as Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said John Lord Bishop of Lincoln has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

"churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Silkstone, in the west riding of the county of York, and within the diocese of Ripon, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Dodworth, in the said parish of Silkstone, under and by virtue of the power and authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional "churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should consist of the township of Dodworth, and should be named, "The Chapelry District of Dodworth," with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned:

"The chapelry district of Dodworth is bounded on the north east by the parish of Darton, and part of the said parish of Silkstone, and by the district parish of Saint George, Barnsley; on the south east and south by the township of Stainborough and the chapelry district of Thurgoland; on the west by the remaining part of the said parish of Silkstone, from which the proposed chapelry district of Dodworth is separated by the boundary line of the township of Dodworth; and on the north east by the township of Cawthorne, as such proposed chapelry district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint John, at Dodworth; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent thereof for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Lord Bishop of Ripon (as the Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Charles Thomas Lord Bishop of Ripon has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision "for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual "care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of South Newbald, in the cathedral church of York, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer and conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same :

"And whereas all the estates and endowments (excepting any right of patronage) formerly belonging to the said prebend of South Newbald, comprising certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the parish of South Newbald, in the county of York, became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, subject to any subsisting lease or leases thereof :

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in the said lands, tenements and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable :

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of South Newbald, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act

"for enabling ecclesiastical corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling ecclesiastical corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain mining lease about to be granted by the perpetual curate of Billinge, in the parish of Wigan, in the county of Lancaster.

"Whereas by the said last-recited Act it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole (excepting as therein is excepted, which exception does not include the case of a perpetual curate), from time to time, with the consents in that behalf thereby required, and subject to the provisions in the same Acts contained, to grant or demise by lease, for any term not exceeding sixty years, any mines, minerals, quarries or beds belonging to such corporation :

"And whereas, in pursuance of the powers contained in the said recited enactment, it is proposed by the Reverend John Bromilow, as the Perpetual Curate of Billinge aforesaid, with the consents required by the same Acts, to grant and demise by lease certain mines, with the produce thereof, in and under certain lands, being part and parcel of the glebe lands of the perpetual curacy of Billinge aforesaid, and situate in the township of Upholland, in the said parish of Wigan :

"And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries or beds granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease, as by the authority provided in the first-recited Act shall be determined, not being more than three fourth parts, nor less than one moiety of such improved value, shall forthwith, and from time time as the same shall accrue, be paid to us, and shall be subject to the provisions relating to monies payable to us :

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as aforesaid will, according to the meaning of the same Act, be the whole of the rents, royalties or other reservations which will become payable thereunder :

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that three fourth parts of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty or otherwise, shall, by such lease, be made directly payable to us ; and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid, as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors or grantors and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said John Bromilow and his successors, perpetual curates of Billinge, in respect of the remaining one fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the perpetual curate of Billinge for the time being ; and further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with or separately from the said John Bromilow and his successors, perpetual curates of Billinge, of all or any of the covenants, conditions and agreements in the said lease contained on the lessee's part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed ; and that, for effectuating such objects, the said lease shall and may be framed in such manner, and contain all such clauses and provisions as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.’

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been given to the said John Bromilow, as such Perpetual Curate as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the first recited Act, and he has made no objection thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

No. 20687.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Saint Martin, in the city and diocese of Hereford.

"Whereas by the said recited Act, and by another Act passed in the then next session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," authority is given to make additional provision for the cure of souls in parishes in which such assistance is most required, out of the rents and profits or by an actual conveyance of any lands, tithes or other hereditaments thereby vested and to be vested in us, whether in possession or reversion:

"And whereas by virtue of the same Acts we have become and now are entitled, for the purposes in the same Acts mentioned, to the fee simple in reversion of and in all the prebendal lands and premises attached and belonging to the prebend of Hinton, in the cathedral church of Hereford, expectant upon the next avoidance of the said prebend:

"And whereas the said parish of Saint Martin's, with the chapelry of All Saints annexed, contains a population of four thousand persons and upwards, and the income of the vicar thereof does not exceed the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and there is no fit house of residence for such vicar, nor any fit and convenient site for such house:

"And whereas application has been made to us by the Reverend Henry John Symons, Doctor in Law, the present Vicar, for the transfer to him and his successors vicars of the same parish, of our interest in the parcels of land belonging to the said prebend of Hinton hereinafter mentioned as the site for a new house of residence, which is intended to be built thereon with monies already provided for that purpose, and without any contribution from the funds under our control; and we are of opinion that it is just and reasonable that such transfer should be made:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that all our reversionary estate and interest expectant upon the next avoidance of the said prebend of Hinton of and in all these three pieces or parcels of land belonging to the said prebend, situate in the said parish of Saint Martin, and bounded on the south by the road from Hereford to Bullingham, on the west by the road to Ross, on the north by Saint Martin's Churchyard, and on the east by lands belonging to Mrs. Martha Clee Powell, widow, and the prebendary of Hinton, and containing together nine acres one rood and two perches or thereabouts, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, be and be held to be, upon and from the day of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, by us actually transferred and conveyed to and absolutely vested in the said Henry John Symons, and his successors, vicars of the said parish of Saint Martin for ever.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for substituting a money payment to the prebendary of Holborn, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, for the property of his prebend.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said prebendary as such will (excepting any right of patronage), upon the first avoidance of his prebend, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required;

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes or other hereditaments :

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Henry Handley Norris, the present Prebendary of the said prebend of Holborn, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council :

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said Henry Handley Norris, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tenements and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of patronage), now belonging to the said Henry Handley Norris, as such Prebendary of the said prebend of Holborn as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Henry Handley Norris to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Henry Handley Norris, on the tenth day next after the day of the gazetting of such Order of your Majesty in Council, the sum of one thousand and fourteen pounds sterling, provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease, of the said lands, tithes or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall, since the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, have been or shall be granted or made by the said Henry Handley Norris.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 11th day of August 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for annexing canonries in the cathedral church of Ely to the Regius Professorships of Hebrew and Greek, respectively, in the University of Cambridge.

"Whereas it was by the said Act enacted, that the two canonries in the chapter of the cathedral church of Ely, which should be secondly and thirdly vacant, should be permanently annexed and united to the Regius Professorships of Hebrew and Greek, respectively, in the University of Cambridge :

"And whereas the canonry in the said cathedral church of Ely, lately held by the Reverend George Leonard Jenyns, deceased, is now vacant and is the canonry so secondly vacant, and the canonry which shall next be vacant in the same church will be the canonry so thirdly vacant within the meaning of the said recited Act :

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the said canonry in the cathedral church of Ely, so lately held by the said George Leonard Jenyns, deceased, shall upon and from the twenty-first day next after the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council for ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and that the canonry in the same church which shall next become vacant shall immediately upon the vacancy thereof become and be permanently annexed and united to the Regius Professorship of Hebrew and the Regius Professorship of Greek, respectively, in the University of Cambridge, in the order in which they are herein named ; and that the person who on such twenty-first day shall be the Regius Professor of Hebrew, and the person who at the time of the vacancy of such thirdly vacant canonry shall be the Regius Professor of Greek in the same University, or in case the said Professorships, or either of them, shall at such respective times be vacant, then the person next appointed to the one or the other as the case may be, and every future Professor of Hebrew and of Greek, respectively, in the same University, shall be entitled to installation as a canon of the said cathedral church, and subject to the provisions of the said Act and all other Acts of Parliament, shall and may hold the same canonry, with all the rights, privileges and emoluments thereunto belonging, so long as he shall remain and be such Regius Professor of Hebrew or of Greek, as the case may be, and no longer."

And whereas, previous to laying the said scheme before Her Majesty in Council, notice thereof was given to the Dean and Chapter of Ely, and to the Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, and to the Reverend Samuel Lee, Doctor in Divinity, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, in the University of Cambridge, and to the Reverend James Scholefield, the Regius Professor of Greek in the said University of Cambridge ; and certain objections and observations made and offered by the said Dean of Ely, with the concurrence and by the desire of the said Chapter of Ely, and also by the Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, and by the said Reverend Samuel Lee, have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with the said scheme, but no objections or observations have been offered by the said Reverend James Scholefield :

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding the before-mentioned objections and observations, been approved by Her Majesty in Council :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify and confirm the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the estates and endowments belonging to the said prebend will (excepting any right of patronage, and excepting a fluctuating payment to the Vicar of Grantham, charged upon such estates), upon the first avoidance of the said prebend, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required :

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes or other hereditaments belonging to such prebend, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes or other hereditaments :

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend William Potchett, the present Prebendary of the said prebend of Grantham Borealis, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council :

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said William Potchett, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes and other hereditaments whatsoever (except such interest as appertains to the said William Potchett, in right of his vicarage of Grantham, and except any right of patronage), now belonging to the said prebend of Grantham Borealis, or to or in which he, the said William Potchett, as such prebendary, has or ought to have any estate, right, title or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said William Potchett to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof ; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said William Potchett, so long as he shall continue to be the prebendary of the said prebend and no longer, the annual sum of one hundred and thirty-six pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the seventeenth day of June and the seventeenth day of December; and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made on the seventeenth day of December next; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease, of the said lands, tithes or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall since the seventh day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, have been or shall be granted or made by the said William Potchett; and that if the next avoidance of the said prebend shall happen on any other day than one of the said two half-yearly days of payment, then a proportionate sum only shall be paid to the said William Potchett or his representatives.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the consolidated chapelry of Melplash, in the parish of Netherbury, in the county of Dorset.

"Whereas, under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the property now belonging to the prebend of Slape, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, consisting of certain lands, tenements and hereditaments, within the said parish of Netherbury, would (excepting any right of patronage), upon the first avoidance of such prebend, become absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required:

"And whereas it is by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement may from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes or hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes or other hereditaments:

“ And whereas the said chapelry of Melplaish requires additional provision for the cure of souls therein, and it has been agreed between us and the Venerable Edward Berens, Archdeacon of Berks, the present Prebendary of the said prebend of Slape, that the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the provision and purpose of the said Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, with regard to the said chapelry of Melplaish; and it has also been agreed by James Bandinel, of Berkeley-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, by whom and through whose exertions the chapel of the said chapelry and a house of residence for the incumbent thereof have been mainly provided, to make further provision for such cure of souls, subject to the completion of the said arrangement, by the annexation to the said chapelry of land of the annual value of eighty pounds:

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Edward Berens, testified by his having signed this scheme, that upon and after the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council for ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, all lands, tenements and hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of patronage) now annexed or belonging to or forming part of the endowment of the aforesaid prebend of Slape, in the said cathedral church of Salisbury, or to or in which the said Edward Berens has or ought to have any right, title or interest as such prebendary, shall, together with all right, title and interest therein, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and such duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, be and be held to be for the consideration hereinafter-mentioned given, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Edward Berens to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such gift and transfer, and of the annexation of land hereinbefore referred to, there shall be paid by us to the incumbent or minister for the time being of the said chapelry of Melplaish, the sum of one hundred and forty-eight pounds on the first day of November next, and for ever thereafter the annual sum of one hundred and six pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, in addition to the sum payable by us to the said incumbent or minister under the Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven; and that, in the case of a vacancy hereafter occurring in the incumbency of the said chapelry of Melplaish on any other day than one of the two regular half-yearly days of payment, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the incumbent or minister making the vacancy or his representatives, and the succeeding incumbent or minister.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

C. C. Greville,

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 11th day of August 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Saddleworth and the chapelry district of Saint Anne, Lydgate, in the parish of Rochdale, in the diocese of Manchester, and the district of Saint Paul, Staley, in the parish of Mottram-in-Longdendale, in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and, also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided :

"And whereas the said parochial chapelry of Saddleworth and chapelry district of Saint Anne, Lydgate, and district of Saint Paul, Staley, are respectively of great extent, and contain a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular parts of such parochial chapelry, chapelry district, and district hereinafter mentioned, neither of which parts at present contains within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be together constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consents of the Right Reverend

John Bishop of Chester, and James Prince Bishop of Manchester, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parochial chapelry of Saddleworth, and also all that part of the said chapelry district of Saint Anne, Lydgate, and also all that part of the said district of Saint Paul, Staley, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be together constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly, and that the same shall be named, “The District of Christ Church, Friezland,” and shall be included in and form part of the deanry, archdeaconry, and diocese of Manchester.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be;

and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

“ And whereas Ralph Radcliffe Whitehead, of Theescombe House, in the parish of Minchinhampton, in the county of Gloucester, Esquire, and James Heywood Whitehead and John Dicken Whitehead, of Saddleworth, in the said parish of Rochdale, Esquires, have made arrangements for transferring to our account and into our names in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, a sum of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sufficient to produce the annual sum of fifty pounds, towards the permanent endowment of the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish of Christ Church, Friezland, so herein recommended to be constituted; and whereas also a sum of two thousand pounds has been contributed by the said Ralph Radcliffe Whitehead, James Heywood Whitehead, and John Dicken Whitehead, towards providing a church or chapel within the said district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof; and a further sum of four hundred and fifty pounds has been contributed by them, to be applied towards providing a house of residence for the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish; and the said Ralph Radcliffe Whitehead, James Heywood Whitehead, and John Dicken Whitehead have further contributed and deposited with us a sum of three hundred pounds, upon trust, to be applied in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of the said church or chapel; and it is the intention of the said Ralph Radcliffe Whitehead, John Heywood Whitehead, and John Dicken Whitehead also to provide fit sites for such church and house of residence; and it has been proposed to us by the said Ralph Radcliffe Whitehead, John Heywood Whitehead, and John Dicken Whitehead, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of the contributions aforesaid, the patronage of the said district or new parish should be assigned in manner herein-after mentioned:

"We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate to the said district or new parish of Christ Church, Friezland, shall be assigned to and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the said Ralph Radcliffe Whitehead, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"The district of Christ Church, Friezland, being—

"All that part of the parochial chapelry of Saddleworth, in the parish of Rochdale, and in the diocese of Manchester, and also all that part of the chapelry district of Saint Anne, Lydgate, in the same parish and diocese, and also all that part of the district of Saint Paul, Staley, in the parish of Mottram-in-Longdendale, in the diocese of Chester, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of the road from Lydgate to Upper Mill where it is crossed by the boundary of the township of Quickmere, and thence extending northward along such boundary as far as the road on the southern side of Warmton Wood, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to its junction with the Greenfield-road at or near the Quarry, and thence extending towards the south east at a distance of one hundred feet from the middle of such last-mentioned road, and on the north eastern side thereof as far as Greenfield Brook, and thence towards the east and north east along the middle of such brook as far as Birchin Clough, and thence southward along the middle of Birchin Clough and Long Clough, as far as Oyls Head-hill, and thence along the boundary between the said counties of Chester and York as far as the middle of the Roman Road leading from Micklehurst to Lane Head, and thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned road, as far as a certain small streamlet flowing westward to the river Tame, and thence westward along the middle of such streamlet as far as the river Tame aforesaid, and thence northward along the western bank of such river as far as the bridge on the Ridgehill Lanes and Hole House turnpike road, and thence westward in a straight direction to the Huddersfield and Manchester Railway, and thence northward along the middle of such railway as far as a certain small streamlet at Grove, and thence towards the north west along the middle of the said streamlet to the middle of the turnpike road from Mosley to Upper Mill aforesaid at Sharon, and thence towards the north east along the middle of such turnpike road as far as the footpath leading from Sharon aforesaid to Grasscroft, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such footpath to its junction with the south western boundary fence of Beech Hill, otherwise Grasscroft Estate, and thence along the said boundary fence to its junction with the footpath leading from Grasscroft aforesaid to Lydgate, and thence along such last-mentioned footpath to the point where it is intersected by a fence between the fields called Cloughfield and the Long-meadow, and thence along such fence as far as the aforesaid turnpike road leading from Lydgate to Uppermill, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned turnpike road to the point where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parishes, and of the churches or chapels of the chapelries or districts, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and whereas one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and certain objections to the said scheme, offered by the Vicar of the parish of Rochdale and the Incumbent of the chapelry district of Saint Anne, Lydgate, have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such observations and objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the dioceses of Chester and Manchester.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act "to make better provision for the spiritual care "of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the mean time, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided :

“ And whereas the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Worcester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly, and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Saltley.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November to the minister, for the time being, of the district so recommended to be constituted, and so soon as such district shall have become, according to the provisions of the said Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, to the perpetual curate thereof, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such perpetual curate as aforesaid as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person, or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority :

“ And whereas an annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been permanently secured to us by Charles Bowyer Adderley, of Hams Hall, in the county of Warwick, Esquire, by means of a perpetual rent charge to be issuing out of certain lands in the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, of which the said Charles Bowyer Adderley is lawfully seised in fee simple, towards such permanent endowment as aforesaid of the minister of the district so herein recommended to be constituted, and, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, of the perpetual curate thereof; and whereas it is also the intention of the said Charles Bowyer Adderley to provide a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, and a house of residence for the use of the minister thereof; and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of such endowment and provision of a church and parsonage house as aforesaid, the patronage of the said district or new parish shall be assigned to the said Charles Bowyer Adderley:

"We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate to, the said district or new parish of Saltley shall be assigned to, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Charles Bowyer Adderley, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"The district of SALTLEY, being—

"All that part of the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, comprised within the hamlet of Saltley and Washwood."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, and one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

CONTRACTS for SALT BEEF and PORK, of the CURE of the UNITED KINGDOM, or of any FOREIGN COUNTRY WHATSOEVER.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 5, 1848.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 28th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT MEAT,

Of the Cure of the United Kingdom, or of any Foreign Country whatsoever, equal to 6,000 Tierces of Navy Beef, and 12,000 Tierces of Navy Pork, (in separate tenders), all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part; and also an unlimited power of selection, according to quality.

Every tender, both for beef and pork, to specify where the meat is intended to be cured, and a separate price for each denomination of cure comprised therein.

Three fourths of the beef and pork to be delivered in tierces, and one fourth in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

Beef, two thirds on or before the 31st March 1849, and one third on or before the 31st May 1849;

Pork, one third on or before the 31st March 1849, and two thirds on or before the 31st May 1849; and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantities beyond those specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorized in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef, and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words, "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaged to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

1. The first group of people who are not allowed to enter the country are those who are on the "no-fly" list. This list is maintained by the Department of Homeland Security and includes individuals who are considered a threat to national security. These individuals are typically those who have been involved in terrorism or who are suspected of being involved in terrorism.

1. The first step in the process of identifying a problem is to define the problem. This involves identifying the symptoms of the problem and determining the scope of the problem. Once the problem has been defined, the next step is to identify the causes of the problem. This involves identifying the factors that are contributing to the problem and determining the underlying causes of the problem. Once the causes of the problem have been identified, the next step is to develop a plan to address the problem. This involves identifying the actions that need to be taken to address the problem and determining the resources that will be needed to implement the plan. Once a plan has been developed, the next step is to implement the plan. This involves carrying out the actions that have been identified in the plan and monitoring the progress of the plan. Finally, the last step in the process is to evaluate the results of the plan. This involves determining whether the plan has been successful in addressing the problem and identifying any lessons learned from the process.
