And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several registries of the dioceses of Saint Asaph and Ely.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of September 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit; and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court shall be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas it hath been represented, that it would be to the advantage of the public, if certain of the courts established by the said Order in Council were ordered to be held in more than one place within their several districts; and if certain alterations were made in some of the districts of the courts, as specified or set forth in the aforesaid Order:

And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted, that any Order in Council, made for the purposes of the said Act, shall be published in the London Gazette; and notice of the intention of Her Majesty to take into consideration the propriety of making any such Order shall be published in the London Gazette one calendar month at least before any such Order shall be made:

Notice is hereby given, that after the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the publication of this notice in the London Gazette, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, will take into consideration the propriety of making the two following Orders for the purposes of the said Act, that is to say:

Order in Council, No. 1.

That from and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight:

"The County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Weston-super-Mare," shall be held at Axbridge, as well as at Weston-super-Mare.
