

and unless there be no word or communication printed on the paper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, and no writing or mark upon it or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent, nor any paper or thing enclosed in or with the same, or otherwise the same shall be charged with the like postage as if the same had been a letter sent by the post.

Eighth. And we further direct, that letters transmitted by any packet boat or vessel belonging to or employed by or under the Government of the colony of the Bahama Islands, in the West Indies, between any two ports in the said colony, shall be no longer chargeable with the sea postage rates to which the same are liable under certain warrants under the hands of three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date, respectively, the 1st day of September 1840, the 31st day of August 1841, and the 11th day of October 1843, or under any other Treasury Warrant, or under any Act of Parliament; and that all such last-mentioned letters shall be hereafter charged and chargeable for the conveyance between any two ports in the said colony with such rates of postage as the Colonial Government of the Bahamas hath ordered and directed, or shall at any time hereafter order and direct.

Ninth. And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or by an Act, made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office," and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

Tenth. And we further direct, that the several terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act of the fourth year of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
