FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1848.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of September 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to prohibit the importation of sheep, cattle, or other animals, for the purpose of preventing the introduction of contagious or infectious disorders," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, to make such regulations for subjecting sheep, cattle, horses, or other animals, to quarantine, or for causing the same to be destroyed, upon their arrival in this country, or for destroying any hay, straw, fodder, or other article, whereby it appears to Her Majesty that infection or contagion may be conveyed; and generally to make such regulations with respect to the importation of sheep, cattle, horses, or other animals, as Her Majesty may consider to be necessary, in order to prevent the introduction of any contagious or infectious disorder:

And whereas it hath been certified to Her Majesty that certain sheep and lambs infected with or labouring under a certain contagious or infectious disorder known or described as the sheep pox, or variola ovina, have been, from time to time, imported into this country from foreign parts, and it is necessary to take measures to prevent the introduction of sheep and lambs so infected therewith:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the said Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, if any sheep or lambs imported or brought into this country appear at the time of their importation to be infected with or labouring under the said disorder, such sheep or lambs, and all or any of the sheep or lambs imported or brought into this country in the same ship or vessel with any sheep or lambs which appear to be so diseased, shall be seized and detained by the officers of Her Majesty's Customs at the port of import; and that the circumstances be forthwith reported by such officers to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and by the said Commissioners of Customs to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations; and if it be certified to the said Commissioners by any veterinary surgeon appointed by them to inspect such sheep, that any of such sheep or lambs are infected with or labouring under the said disorder, then the said Commissioners may if they think proper, cause such sheep or lambs as are so certified to be forthwith destroyed, reporting the same to the Lords of the said Committee; and the Lords of the said Committee shall thereupon give such directions as they shall think fit, either for destroying or for further detaining all or any others of the sheep or lambs (as the case may be) which may have been so imported or brought into this country in the same ship or vessel with the sheep or lambs so certified as aforesaid, or for restoring the same to their owner or owners, subject to any conditions which they, the said Lords, may think fit to prescribe, and upon the payment by such owner or owners thereof of any expences incurred by the said Commissioners in respect of the detention thereof.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

General Board of Health, Gwydir-house, Whitehall.

The General Board of Health have agreed to the following regulations, under the "nuisances removal and diseases prevention Act, 1848," 11th and 12th Vict. c. 123, applicable to the Parochial Boards for the management of the poor in the following parishes in and near Edinburgh, viz. City of Edinburgh, Saint Cuthbert's, Canongate, North Leith, and South Leith.

Whereas by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, chap. 123, intituled "An Act to remove and amend an Act, of the 10th year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of epidemic and contagious diseases," the General Board of Health is empowered to issue such directions and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, as to them may seem fit; now we, the said General Board of Health, do hereby authorize and direct the Parochial Boards for the management of the poor in the following parishes in and near Edinburgh—namely, the city of Edinburgh, St. Cuthbert's, Canongate, North Leith, and South Leith, to execute or see to the execution of the directions and regulations following, viz.:

I. We hereby authorize and require the said Parochial Boards to provide dispensaries in suitable stations, with sufficient medical aid, such dispensaries to be accessible at all times by night and by day, to persons requiring medical aid for themselves or others attacked by cholera, or by any of its premonitory symptoms, and to provide the medicines to be distributed to such applicants at such dispensaries; and such medicines and cordials as may be required elsewhere in their respective parishes for necessitous persons attacked as aforesaid, who may be under medical treatment.

II. And we do further authorize and require the Parochial Boards of the said parishes and places to make arrangements for the distribution of notices, stating the places where the dispensaries shall have been provided.

III. Whereas it has heretofore been found to be impracticable to ensure proper treatment in their own houses to many of the poorer classes, we authorize and require the said Parochial Boards respectively to provide houses or suitable rooms, capable of accommodating necessitous cases, to which persons attacked by cholera, who cannot be properly treated in their own houses, may be conveyed.

IV. We authorize and require the said Parochial Boards to provide houses of refuge, to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked with cholera, and also such necessitous persons living under the same roof or in the vicinity of persons so attacked, as the medical officers acting under the authority of the said Parochial Boards may deem it necessary to remove; the houses, rooms, or dwellings, from which persons may have been so removed to the houses of refuge, to be cleansed and purified by the owners or persons having the care or ordering thereof, or, in their default, by the said Parochial Boards respectively.

V. And we hereby authorize and require the said Parochial Board to provide for the frequent visitation by themselves or their Officers, or such person as they may appoint in this behalf, of the several houses and dwellings throughout the bounds of their several parishes, and to inquire into the condition and matters affecting the health of the inmates of such houses and dwellings respectively, and their liability to contagious, epidemic, or endemic diseases, and especially as to the existence among them of bowel complaints.

VI. And we authorize and require the said Parochial Board, on their own inspection, or the report of the Officers or persons by whom such visitations may be made, or other information which they may acquire from their own Committees, or from visitors or others, as to the condition of the poor who may be affected with, or threatened by, the cholera or other epidemic disease, to supply such medical aid as may appear requisite.

VII. And we hereby authorize and require the Parochial Board, or the officer or person visiting as aforesaid, subject to the special instructions of the Parochial Board in each case, where symptoms are found of a premonitory attack at bowel complaint, to send the person so affected to the nearest dispensary within the bounds of the parish, or where that may be inexpedient, to dispatch some member of the family, or other person, for advice and medical aid; and immediately report to the medical officer the case of every such persons found so affected who shall not have proceeded to the dispensary.

VIII. And we do authorize and direct the several Parochial Boards to make arrangements for obtaining daily lists of persons attacked by cholera within their respective parishes; with the particulars of their cases and treatment, and for communicating the same daily to the other Boards respectively, and to the President of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

IX. And we do hereby authorize and direct the said Parochial Boards to appoint such additional medical officers, and also appoint such other officers as may be necessary to carry out, execute, and superintend the execution of these regulations.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Edwin Chadwick.
F. Southwood Smith.
