AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of October 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to “ amend and render more effectual an Act, passed “ in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional “ churches in populous parishes,” or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Clodock, in the county of Hereford, and within the diocese of St. David’s, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of St. John, situate at Newton, in the said parish of Clodock, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Newton," with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned :

"The chapelry district of Newton is bounded on the north and east by the parish of Saint Margaret, on the south and south east by the remaining part of the parish of Clodock, from which the proposed chapelry district is separated by proceeding from the boundary line which separates the said parish of Saint Margaret from the parish of Clodock, at the south eastern extremity of a meadow belonging to Mary Jones, and proceeding in a westerly direction along the southern boundary of such meadow and by a field of pasture belonging to Mrs. Sarah Lewis; and thence by the same line of fences till it crosses the road leading to Cwm dulas, and continuing westerly along the southern hedge of the said road and common land, until it reaches the road leading from the middle Maescoed to the Brynn toll-bar; and thence, in a northerly direction, up the middle of that road until it joins the road leading from Longtown, along which latter road it then proceeds westerly as far as the river Escley, up which river the boundary then proceeds, north westerly, as far as the parish of Michael Church, Escley; which said parish then forms the north western boundary of the said district, which said chapelry district is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of St. John, at Newton; and that the fees arising therefrom should be paid and belong to the present incumbent of the parish church of the said parish of Clodock during his incumbency thereof, but that upon his avoidance of the said parish church such fees should belong to the incumbent or minister for the time being of the said church of St. John, at Newton aforesaid :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Connop Lord Bishop of St. David's (as Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Connop Lord Bishop of St. David's has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the like advice, to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of St. David's.
