NO. III.—DIRECTIONS AND REGULATIONS OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH, IN RELATION TO SCOTLAND.

To the Parochial Boards of the several Parishes and Combinations throughout Scotland;

To all Magistrates of Burghs; Town Councils; Commissioners of Police; Trustees or Commissioners having the charge of the Paving of Streets; Trustees or Commissioners having the charge of Turnpike Roads and other Highways; Trustees or Commissioners having the charge of Docks, Ports, or Harbours; Inspectors, Surveyors, or other Officers acting under such Magistrates, Town Councils, Commissioners, and Trustees; and all other persons entrusted by Law with the care and management of the Streets and Public Ways and places throughout Scotland;

To the Procurators Fiscal and other persons authorized to conduct prosecutions for the public interests before the Local Courts in Scotland;

To the Owners and Occupiers of Houses, Dwellings, Churches, Buildings, and Places of Assembly, and others having the care and ordering thereof throughout Scotland; And to all whom it may concern.

Whereas by the provisions of the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, and by virtue of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 28th day of September 1848, directing that the said provisions of the said Act be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention (as far as possible) or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases; and whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the directions and regulations to be issued as aforesaid shall extend to all parts or places in which the said provisions of the said Act shall for the time being be in force, under the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, unless such directions or regulations shall be expressly confined to some of such parts or places, and then to such parts or places as in such directions and regulations shall be specified;

Now, in exercise of the authority vested in us as aforesaid, We, the General Board of Health, do issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to Scotland, and be in force throughout that part of the United Kingdom.

I. We direct that all Magistrates, Town Councils, Commissioners, Trustees, and others by law entrusted with the care and management of the streets and public ways and places, shall, through their Inspectors, Surveyors, or other persons under their direction, once at least in every twenty-four hours, effectually cleanse all such of the streets, rows, lanes, mews, courts, alleys, wynds, entries, common stairs, and passages, and public ways and places under their respective care and management, as by the Medical Officer of the Parochial Board shall be certified in writing to be in a state dangerous to health, or to require frequent and effectual cleansing by way of precaution against disease, and shall remove all filth, ordure, and nuisances therefrom.

II. And where any such streets, rows, lanes, mews, courts, alleys, wynds, entries, common stairs, passages, and public ways or places adjoining to any houses or tenements, have not been entrusted by law to the care or management of any Magistrates, Town Councils, Commissioners, Trustees, or others, on a notice signed by the Inspector of the Poor, or other person authorized by the Parochial Board, to the effect that the same has been certified by the Medical Officer to be in a state dangerous to health, and to require such frequent and effectual cleansing (such notice being served by delivery to any person on the premises, or being pasted on the door), we direct that every occupier of a house or tenement, so adjoining, shall keep or cause to be kept sufficiently cleansed, at least once in every twenty-four hours, such part of the street, row, lane, mews, court, alley, wynd, entry, common stair, passage, way, or place, as adjoins the house or tenement occupied by him.

And we direct that all such works of cleansing and removal of filth, ordure, and nuisances, as are required by these directions and regulations, shall be done in such manner by effectual washing or otherwise, and with the use of such fluids or substances for preventing the escape of noxious effluvia during the operation, as the Medical Officer of the Parochial Board shall think necessary and shall direct.

III. We do hereby authorize and require the Parochial Boards throughout Scotland by themselves, or by their Officers or persons employed under them in the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor, or by Officers or persons specially appointed in this behalf, to superintend and see to the execution of the foregoing directions and regulations within their respective parishes and combinations.

IV. And further, where it shall appear that by want or neglect of the Magistrates, Town Councils, Commissioners, Trustees, Inspectors, Surveyors, or others entrusted with the care and management as aforesaid, or by reason of poverty of the occupiers or otherwise, there may be any default or delay in the cleansing of or removing nuisances from any street, row, lane, mews, court, alley, wynd, entry, common stair, passage, or public way or place, certified as aforesaid, we authorize and require the Parochial Board of the parish or combination to cause such street, row, lane, mews, court, alley, wynd, entry, common stair, passage, way, or place to be effectually cleansed, and all nuisances to be removed therefrom, and to do all acts, matters, and things necessary for that purpose.

V. We also direct as follows :—

That,

When and so often as any dwelling-house, in any part or place to which these directions and regulations extend, is in such a filthy and unwholesome condition, as to be a nuisance to or injurious to the health of any person, or,

Where upon any premises, or any part or place as aforesaid, there is any foul and offensive drain, ditch, gutter, privy, cesspool, or ashpit, or any drain, ditch, gutter, privy, cesspool, or ashpit kept or constructed so as to be a nuisance to or injurious to the health of any person, or,

Where upon any such premises swine, or any accumulation of dung, manure, offal, filth, refuse, or other matter or thing, is kept, so as to be a nuisance to or injurious to the health of any person, or,

Where upon any such premises (being a building used wholly or in part as a dwelling-house, or being premises underneath any such building) any animal is kept so as to be a nuisance or injurious to the health of any person,

In each of the above recited cases, the owner or occupier and persons having the care or ordering of such dwelling-house, or of the premises where the nuisance or matter injurious to health may be, shall cleanse, whitewash, or otherwise purify, as the case may require, such dwelling-house or building, or abate or remove the nuisance or matter injurious to health as aforesaid, with all reasonable speed, after the publication of these our directions and regulations, or after the nuisance or matter injurious to health shall have arisen.

VI. We authorize and require the Parochial Boards throughout Scotland, by themselves or by Officers by them authorized in this behalf,

To see to the execution of the directions hereinbefore contained, for the cleansing and purifying dwelling-houses, and for the abatement and removal of nuisances and matters injurious to health, in every place in which there shall not be Magistrates, Town Councils, Commissioners, Trustees, or others having jurisdiction or authority to put the above directions in force, or where they have not caused them to be effectually executed, and for that purpose,

To visit, from time to time, or cause to be visited, the several dwellings and places where there may be ground for believing that necessity will arise for executing such directions.

VII. And in every case in which, from the poverty of occupiers or otherwise, there may be default or delay in the cleansing or purifying of such dwelling-house, or in the removal of any such nuisance or matter injurious to health, and the Medical Officer, or other person duly authorized as aforesaid, shall certify that the same requires immediate attention,

We authorize and require such Parochial Board to cause such dwelling-houses to be cleansed and purified, and such drain, ditch, watercourse, or gutter to be effectually and frequently cleansed, and such nuisance or matter injurious to health to be removed respectively, and to do all acts and provide all matters and things necessary for that purpose.

VIII. And we do hereby authorize and require each Parochial Board to direct their Inspector, or any other competent person, to make out from the parochial register, or from any books of medical relief, or from any other public books, or any other available source, a list, as complete as the circumstances will admit of being framed, of places where epidemic, indemic, or contagious diseases have of late been frequent.

IX. And we authorize and require the Parochial Boards to cause the Medical Officers employed by them, or specially appointed for the purpose, to visit the places, of which a list shall be made out as aforesaid, and all such neighbouring and other places within such parish or combination as shall appear to such Medical Officers (from being under like circumstances with the places included in such list or otherwise) to require visitation or examination.

X. And each such Medical Officer shall, where it may be necessary, certify, in writing, to the Parochial Board, and to the Magistrates, Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Inspectors, Surveyors, occupiers, or others required to exercise these directions and regulations, all such places as are in a state dangerous to health, or need frequent and effectual cleansing, by way of preservation, against disease, and such dwelling-houses as are in a filthy and unwholesome condition, and all such nuisances and matters injurious to health as ought to be cleansed and removed under these regulations.

XI. And we hereby direct, that whenever any Parochial Board shall be certified, through their Medical Officer or otherwise, that any person has been attacked with malignant cholera within the bounds of their parish or combination, they shall intimate the same, by the earliest post or other obtainable conveyance, to the General Board of Health, in order that the said Board may issue regulations to such Parochial Board relating to medical relief.

XII. And each such Medical Officer shall forthwith, upon any case of cholera or of typhus or other epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases becoming known to him, within the parish or district under his visitation, report the same to the Parochial Board.

XIII. And we do hereby authorize and direct the said Parochial Boards, where it may appear needful, to appoint such additional Medical Officers, and also to appoint such other Officers as may be necessary to execute and superintend the execution of these regulations, and to publish and circulate, by printed hand bills or other means, notices of the provisions of the said Act for the prevention of nuisances, and of our regulations and instructions, or of such part of any of them as it may appear desirable to make publicly known.

XIV. And whereas by the said Act it is provided, that whosoever shall wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority or employed in the execution of the same, or shall wilfully violate any directions or regulations issued by the General Board of Health, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, recoverable by summary process before the Sheriff or two Justices of the Peace, at the instance of the Procurator Fiscal or any other person; all Procurators Fiscal or any other persons who may be concerned are hereby required to institute such proceedings according to law as may be necessary for the enforcement of these regulations.

Given under our hands and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.
