(Translation.)

Resolved, Caracas, May 17, 1848.

In order to prevent inconvenience, or that from any misunderstanding, room be afforded for representations and remonstrances which might not be devoid of some ground, with reference to the Decree of the 11th instant of blockade of the port of Maracaibo and adjacent coasts; it is determined,

1st. That for the term coasts adjacent to Maracaibo must be understood, all the coast comprised within what is properly called the "Bag (Gulf) of Maracaibo," between Cape San Roman on the Peninsula of Paraguaná, and Point Espada on the Peninsula of Goajira.

2d. For the application of the penalties for a violation of the blockade, the period for its notification is hereby extended, as respects vessels arriving from Europe, to sixty days, and to thirty days, as respects those proceeding from Demerara and the Antilles, with the exception of Curaçoa and its dependencies, San Tomas and Santa Cruz; and during such interval of time, the blockading squadron will confine itself, as respects merchant vessels arriving from such places, to a notification of the existence of the blockade, for which purpose they will note this fact on the register or the papers which accredit the nationality and ownership of the vessel visited, and also the circumstance that the vessel has been duly notified of the existence of the blockade, and only in event of any such vessel, after receiving this notification, attempting to enter any place comprised within the limits of the blockade, will there be ground for her detention and trial, in accordance with the laws and practice of nations.

By order of His Excellency,

MEJIA.

WHEREAS by an Order made by his Honour the Vice Chancellor of England, in a cause wherein Richard Parsons is plaintiff, and Richard William Benn, Richard Joseph Parsons, and Thomas Hamer Rigbye are defendants, bearing date the 9th day of November 1848, such Order being in the words and figures following, namely;

"Forasmuch as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Glasse, as Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this Court against the defendants, and took out process of subpoena against the defendant, Richard William Benn, on the 1st day of June and the 26th day of July last, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill; that it appears by the affidavits of the above-named plaintiff, and of James Wells Taylor, William Shipston, John Gwyn Middleton Wigley, Arthur Parsons, and Edward Hoare, that the defendant, Richard William Benn, has been within the jurisdiction of the Court at some time not more than two years before the subpoenas issued; and, upon enquiry at his last known place of abode, and at another place where, at the time when the subpoenas issued, he might probably have been met with, he could not be found so as to be served with process, and that there is just ground to believe that the said defendant, Richard William Benn, is keeping out of the way or otherwise absconding to avoid being served with process; it is therefore ordered, that the defendant, Richard William Benn, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 1st day of December next; and it is ordered, that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the Times Newspaper published in London, and the Nottingham Journal, published in Nottinghamshire, within fourteen days from the date hereof."

Notice.—Richard William Benn, take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.
