

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1848.

A Gazette, containing Notices of intended Applications to Parliament for Bills (which Notices must be inserted in the Gazette before the end of the present Month), will be published To-morrow, Saturday the 25th November instant.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of October 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say;

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Little Eaton, in the county of Derby, and diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by reason of the deanery of the cathedral church of Lincoln having become vacant since the passing of the said recited Act, all the lands, tenements and other hereditaments belonging thereto have become vested in us, under the provisions and for the purposes of the said recited

Act, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls by such means as shall be deemed most expedient.

“ And whereas the piece or parcel of land particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, formed part of the endowments of the said deanery, and was, at the time of the vacancy aforesaid, and now is held under a lease for lives by the Duke of Devonshire

“ And whereas after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the said parish of Little Eaton, we have deemed it expedient that the said piece or parcel of land should, in manner hereinafter mentioned, be applied towards making additional provision for the cure of souls in the said parish

“ And whereas the said Duke of Devonshire hath agreed that upon our assigning our reversionary interest therein to the perpetual curacy of the said parish, he will, for and in consideration thereof and of promoting the spiritual welfare of the said parish, immediately relinquish his interest in the same piece or parcel of land under the said lease

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Duke of Devonshire, testified by his having signed this scheme, that the said piece or parcel of land and premises, so particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the gazetting thereof, be transferred by and from the said Duke and ourselves and shall become and be conveyed and assigned to and absolutely vested in possession in the Reverend John Latham, Perpetual Curate of Little Eaton aforesaid, and his successors, perpetual curates thereof, for ever, to be by him or them appropriated as the site of a house of residence, to be forthwith erected thereon by and under the order and direction of the bishop of the diocese, for the use and occupation of the perpetual curate of Little Eaton aforesaid for the time being.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

SCHEDULE.

“ All that allotment, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the township of Little Eaton, in the county of Derby, now in the occupation of Benjamin Sneap, bounded on the north by land of the executors of Miss Radford; on the east by a road leading from the stone quarries to Little Eaton; on the west by the road from Duffield to Little Eaton; and on the south by Chapel-lane, containing, by admeasurement, three acres and thirty-two perches, or thereabouts, and numbered 32 on the plan thereof, in the possession of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield, consulting C. G. Greville.

In the said Court at Mansour, the 31st day of October 1848, was attested and signed by the said Registrar.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Governor of the city, town, garrison, and territory of Gibraltar hath drawn up certain Regulations, in the form of an Order or Ordinance, to amend certain existing Orders in Council, to insure a more equal collection of certain duties payable to the Revenue, and for the prevention of frauds, to be submitted to Her Majesty for the approbation of Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and which Regulations are in the words and figures following, viz.

"Whereas an inequality exists in regard of Duties payable on Wines admitted into this Garrison, which has the effect of exempting altogether from the payment those classes of the Community which are best able to bear such charge; and whereas, moreover, in consequence of such inequality, numerous frauds are committed with the object of evading the payment of the said duties, to the great prejudice of the Local Revenue and with detriment to the fair trading licensed dealers; in order, therefore, that relief may be afforded to the Inhabitants of Gibraltar generally; that the Revenue may be protected by removal of the temptations to fraud; and that the expense attending the present system of partial imposition of duties, may be reduced by establishing a just equality in the payment of the duties on Wine to be consumed within this Garrison; it is expedient to rescind "a certain Order of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, made by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, bearing date at the Court at St. James's the 4th day of February, 1833, and also another Order made by Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, bearing date at Buckingham Palace the 23d June, 1841." The aforesaid Orders are hereby consequently rescinded, and in lieu thereof, the present Order is promulgated.

"SECTION I. And whereas it is necessary that certain fees, duties and charges, should be raised, levied, collected and paid in Gibraltar, to and for the use of Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in lieu of the several fees, duties and charges, raised and collected under and by virtue of the several Orders in Council, Proclamations and Regulations, and parts of Orders in Council, and Proclamations, hereinbefore and hereby repealed;—it is, therefore, hereby further ordered that, from and after the publication of the approval of this Order, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, at Gibraltar, to and for the use of Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, upon the several articles, matters and things, set forth and described in the Schedule to this Order annexed, the several fees, duties and charges, respectively inserted, described, and set forth in figures, in the said Schedule.

"II. And it is hereby further ordered that all spirits, strong waters and cordials, imported into Gibraltar, shall be landed at the Public Quay at Waterport and at no other place whatsoever, excepting spirits for the use of Her Majesty's Navy to be landed at the Dock Yard or at Rosia, under the superintendance of the proper Officers; and all spirits, strong waters and cordials, brought by land from Spain, shall be introduced at the Barrier at Bayside, and at no other place whatsoever.

"III. And it is hereby further ordered that all spirits, strong waters and cordials, that shall be imported or introduced into Gibraltar, shall, upon being landed at the Public Quay at Waterport, or upon being brought to the Barrier at the Bayside, be removed from the said Quay or the said Barrier, under the charge and direction of the Inspector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar for the time being, to such stores and warehouses as shall be provided for that purpose by Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; and shall be deposited and kept in the said stores and warehouses under the charge of the said Inspector, until such time as the said spirits, strong waters and cordials, shall be removed from the said stores and warehouses for exportation or for consumption in the said Garrison and Territory; Provided always that it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons to remove any such spirits, strong waters or cordials, for private consumption in the said Garrison and Territory, from the said Public Quay or the said Barrier, to any other place than the said stores and warehouses, upon payment of the several duties and charges described and set forth as payable upon spirits, strong waters and cordials, in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and no spirits, strong waters or cordials whatsoever, shall be removed from the said Public Quay or the said Barrier, or from the said stores and warehouses, to any place whatsoever without a permit to be granted under the hand of the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar for the time being; and the said permit shall describe and set forth the quantity and kind of such spirits, strong waters and cordials, for the removal of which such permit shall be granted, and the description of the places to and from which, and the names of the persons to and from whom, such spirits, strong waters and cordials, are to be removed, and the amount of duty, if any, that shall have been paid thereon together with such other particulars as may be deemed expedient; and the said permit shall be taken with the said spirits, strong waters or cordials, ready to be shown, and shall be shown upon being demanded, to any person or persons employed in the management and collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar.

"IV. And it is hereby further ordered that, if any person or persons shall introduce, or attempt to introduce, into the Garrison or Territory of Gibraltar, or shall land, or attempt to land, thereat any goods, wares and merchandize, contrary to the provisions of this Order, or shall sell or remove, or attempt to sell or to remove, any wines or any spirits, strong waters or cordials, within the said Garrison and Territory, contrary to the said provisions, such person or persons shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds for each of the said offences, together with all such goods, wares and merchandize, and all such wines, spirits, strong waters and cordials, and the casks, bottles, cases or packages containing the same, and all vessels, boats, carts, horses and other animals employed in such introducing or landing of such goods, wares and merchandize, or in such sale or removal of such wines and such spirits, strong waters and cordials.

"V. And it is hereby further ordered that, if any person or persons shall have in his, her or their custody or possession any wines or any spirits, strong waters or cordials, on which the duty, mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed, shall not have been paid, or which shall have been introduced, landed or removed contrary to the provisions of this Order; such person or persons shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds, together with all such wines and such spirits, strong waters and cordials.

"VI. And it is hereby further ordered that no person or persons shall make or distil, rectify or compound any spirit within the said Garrison or Territory, or shall have in his, her or their custody or possession any still or utensils for making or distilling, rectifying or compounding any spirit, on pain of forfeiting, for each of the said offences, the sum of fifty pounds, together with all materials, preparations, vessels and utensils used, or intended to be used, in the making, distilling, rectifying or compounding of spirit; provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to the use of spirits of wine by Apothecaries, Chemists or Druggists, for bona fide medical purposes.

"VII. And it is further ordered that no person or persons shall sell any wine to be drunk on the premises, nor shall permit any wine when sold to be drunk on the premises, without taking out a licence for that purpose; nor shall sell any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, in less quantity than twenty-five gallons, such spirits, strong waters or cordials, being within the said Garrison or Territory, without a licence taken out for that purpose; nor shall carry on or exercise within the said Garrison and Territory, the trade, business, occupation or calling, of a tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar or porter, without taking out a licence for such purpose; or let to hire any truck, or cart, or keep any public tavern, wine house, spirit store, eating house or public billiard table, without taking out a licence for such purpose; and the said licence shall be granted under the hand and seal of the Police Magistrate, for the time being, and shall be in such form, and contain such particulars, as to the said Police Magistrate shall from time to time appear fit and proper, and no such licence as aforesaid shall be granted till the person or persons, applying for the same, shall enter into a bond, with two sufficient sureties, to Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in such penal sum as to the said Police Magistrate shall seem expedient, conditioned for the full and faithful observance of the Rules and Regulations as mentioned in this Order, or that may be from time to time framed and made.

"VIII. And it is hereby further ordered that no spirits, strong waters or cordials, exceeding in quantity one quart, shall be removed from any one place in the said Garrison and Territory to any other place therein, without a permit to be granted for that purpose under the hand of the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar for the time being; and the said permit shall describe and set forth the quantity and kind of such spirits, strong waters and cordials, and the description of the places to and from which, and the names of the persons to and from whom, they are to be removed, together with such other particulars as to the said Collector shall seem expedient. And the said permits shall be taken with the said spirits, strong waters and cordials, ready to be shown, and shall be shown, upon being demanded, to any person or persons employed in the management or collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar.

"IX. And it is hereby further ordered that, if any person shall remove more than one quart of spirits, strong waters or cordials, contrary to the provisions of this Order, or shall sell by retail, within the said Garrison and Territory, in less quantity than twenty-five gallons, any spirits, strong waters or cordials, except as provided in this Order, or shall keep any public tavern, wine house, spirit store or eating house, or any public billiard table; or shall carry on or exercise the trade, business, occupation or calling, of a tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar or porter; or shall let to hire any cart or truck, within the said Garrison and Territory, without such licence as is hereinbefore described, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

"X. And it is further ordered that nothing herein contained shall be construed in any way to extend to any licences granted before the date of this Order; but that every such licence shall be in full force and effect, for and during the full time limited and defined in the said licence.

"XI. And it is further ordered that no such licence as aforesaid shall be granted to any person or persons for the purpose of authorizing such person or persons to sell any wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, by retail, in manner hereinbefore mentioned, or to keep any public tavern, wine house, eating house or billiard table, and such person or persons shall have procured, from the Inspector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar for the time being, a Certificate of the fitness of the premises of such person or persons for the purpose for which they are intended.

"XII. And it is hereby further ordered that the Police Magistrate for the time being shall frame and make such Rules and Regulations as to him from time to time shall appear expedient, for the conduct and government of such person or persons as shall be licensed by him to sell by retail any wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, in manner hereinbefore mentioned; or who shall keep any public tavern, wine house, eating house or billiard table; or who shall carry on or exercise the trade, occupation, business or calling of a baker, tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar or porter; or who shall let to hire any cart or truck; such Rules and Regulations, nevertheless, not to be binding until the same shall be approved by the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, and shall be published by Proclamation within the said Garrison or Territory; and that the following be the Rules and Regulations to be in future observed by all persons holding licences for wine houses, spirit stores or taverns:—

"1. All spirits are to be kept separate from wines and in a separate apartment, if the premises licenced admit of such arrangement.

"2. No casks, are to be received into any licenced house, nor used therein for keeping wines or spirits, without the Gauger's gauger marks thereon and the head of the casks in which such marks are placed, is to be kept outwards.

"3. All casks are to be so placed that the Revenue Officers may at all times be enabled to use gauging instruments for ascertaining the ullage quantity therein.

"4. The Revenue Officers shall be allowed to put on the casks in licenced houses such marks and numbers as they may think fit, and which shall not be altered or defaced.

"5. No mixing or making up of cherry brandy, anise seed, brandy, or other compounds, shall take place in any licenced house except in the presence of a Revenue Officer, one day's notice being previously left in writing, at the Office of the Inspector of Revenues.

"XIII. And it is hereby further ordered that the Revenue Officers shall have free access, at all reasonable times, to all parts of licenced premises, to examine and gauge the wines and spirits therein, and that they may take samples, on paying a reasonable price for the same.

"XIV. And it is hereby further ordered that no spirits, strong waters or cordials of a greater strength than nine in one hundred overproof, by Syke's hydrometer, shall be admitted for consumption within the Garrison or Territory, save and except rum, and spirits the produce of Great Britain, British Colonies, or Plantations, provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect spirits to be infused into wines.

"XV. And it is hereby further ordered that a quantity, not exceeding the proportion of seven gallons of spirits to one pipe of wine, shall be allowed free of duty, to be infused into a pipe of wine under the following Regulations, that is to say, two hours' notice of the intention of infusing must be given to the Master or to the Clerks of the Porters; under the superintendance of one or more of which Officers the infusion must be made, of the whole of the spirits is not at any defecation infused, the Master or the Clerk of the Porters shall ascertain the strength and quantity of the spirits that remain uninfused, which may be left in the custody of the owner for a period not exceeding three days; and if not used for infusion during that period, the spirits must be removed to the Queen's stores, at the expense and risk of the owner thereof, in the original cask or package from which the quantity for infusion was taken; and the Master or the Clerk of the Porters shall, during the period of three days above mentioned, discover any alteration in the strength or quantity of the remaining uninfused spirits, or if there shall have been any removal thereof from the original cask or package from which the quantity for infusion was taken, the person or persons, in whose custody such spirits may have been left, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds. The full contents of the cask, and strength of the spirits intended for infusion, will be marked by the Queen's Gauger on each cask or package at the time of the removal thereof from the wharf or the Queen's stores, and if any alteration be made in such marking, the owner or person, in whose name the permit for removal is granted, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds; provided always, that the privilege of infusing spirits free of duty into wines, in the manner herebefore mentioned, shall not be allowed to any licenced retail dealer in wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, within the said Garrison and Territory.

"XVI. And it is hereby further ordered that, upon the landing of any wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, at Waterport, a quantity, not exceeding one quart, may be taken by way of sample, free of duty from all pipes, butts or botassos, under the superintendance of an Officer connected with the Revenue Department; and a quantity, not exceeding one pint, may be taken free of duty, for the same purpose, from all smaller casks, under the same superintendance, and shall and may be lawful for the Collector of the Revenues for the time being, or the Inspector of the Revenues for the time being, to take such samples, to allow samples in like quantities to be taken from botassos and other casks in the Queen's stores.

"XVII. And it is hereby further ordered that all casks, cases and packages, of wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, to be taken to the payment of duty at the said Waterport, shall be opened, at the expense of the owner, before being removed for consumption from the said Waterport, or from the Queen's stores, for any other place, in order that the quantity and strength of such wines, spirits, strong waters and cordials, may be ascertained by the Queen's Gauger.

"XVIII. And it is hereby further ordered that no spirits, strong waters or cordials, either in casks, cases or bottles, shall be landed at, or introduced into, the said Garrison and Territory, for consumption therein, nor shall be removed or taken out of the Queen's stores for consumption in the said Garrison and Territory, in less quantity than one time the proportion provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent the person administering the Government of Gibraltar, for the time being, if he shall think proper, from granting permission, under his hand, for the landing at, or introduction into, the said Garrison and Territory, for consumption therein, or for the removal from the said stores, for consumption in the said Garrison and Territory, of cordials, in less quantity than ten gallons.

"XIX. And it is hereby further ordered that casks, cases or packages, of whatever size or description, containing wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, be received and kept in the Queen's stores at the rates mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed, the said rates being payable at the time the said casks, cases or packages, whether full or otherwise, are removed from the said stores, or when demanded, at any time previously to such removal, by the Inspector of Her Majesty's Revenues, or, in his name, by any Assistant Inspector; and no casks, cases or packages, shall be received into the said stores unless they be in good and substantial condition; and all wines, spirits, strong waters and cordials, shall be taken out of the said stores only in the same casks, cases and packages, in which they shall have been received therein; nor shall any quantity whatsoever be removed from the said casks, cases or packages, except for samples, in manner hereinbefore mentioned; and no wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, shall be mixed or made up in the said stores, provided always that it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, or the Inspector of the said Revenues for the time being, to grant permission, in writing under his hand, if he shall deem it expedient, and under such restrictions as he shall deem expedient, for the racking of wines, or reinforcing them with brandy, in the said stores.

“XX. And it is hereby further ordered that permits for the removal of wines, spirits, strong waters and cordials, may be granted by the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, or, in his absence, by the Inspector of the said Revenues for the time being.

“XXI. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be discretionary with the Police Magistrate for the time being to grant, or refuse to grant, to persons applying for them, such licences as are prescribed by this Order to be granted under the hand and seal of the said Police Magistrate. And it is further ordered that no licence to sell by retail any wines or any spirits, strong waters or cordials, in the manner in this Order mentioned, or to keep any public tavern, or any public billiard table, shall be or continue in force for a longer period than six months from the date of such licence; provided always that nothing herein contained shall affect any licence already granted under the authority of the late Orders of Her Majesty.

“XXII. And it is hereby further ordered that the description and designation of casks with reference to the Revenue of Gibraltar, and the payment of rates or duties, shall be as follows, viz. :—

“All casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be less than eighteen gallons, will be deemed half quarter casks.

“Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be from eighteen to thirty gallons, both inclusive, to be deemed quarter casks.

“Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than thirty gallons, and not more than forty-two gallons, to be deemed tierces.

“Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than forty-two gallons, and not more than sixty-five gallons, to be deemed hogshheads.

“Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than sixty-five gallons, and not more than one hundred and fifteen gallons, to be deemed pipes or butts.

“Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than one hundred and fifteen gallons, and not more than one hundred and fifty gallons, to be deemed botassos.

“XXIII. And it is further ordered that the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being shall frame and make such Rules and Regulations as to him, from time to time, shall appear expedient, for the management and collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar; such Rules and Regulations, nevertheless, not to be binding, until the same shall be approved of by the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, and shall be published by proclamation within the said Garrison and Territory.

“XXIV. And it is hereby further ordered that all bottles contained in any one package, and in which wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, liable to the payment of duty, shall be imported or introduced into the Garrison and Territory of Gibraltar, shall be of one uniform size and shape.

“XXV. And it is hereby further ordered that the Imperial gallon shall be the standard of measure in all cases wherein the term gallon is used in this Order.

“XXVI. And it is further ordered that no wines, spirits, strong waters or cordials, shall be received into any licenced house without the established duty being first paid thereon, nor without a permit signed by the proper authorities for removing the same, which permit shall be shown, whenever required, to any Revenue Officer; and that all casks, cases and packages, of wines, whereon duty is to be paid by any licenced dealer, shall be opened at the expence of the owner, in order that the quantity and quality of such wine may be ascertained.

“XXVII. And it is hereby further ordered that any person or persons selling wine, within the said Garrison and Territory, in less quantity than two gallons, without a licence for that purpose, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for each offence; provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent the sale of one dozen bottles of wine, in a case, basket, or package, as originally imported, such wine not being in less quantity than one gallon and a half.

“XXVIII. And it is further ordered, that the duty established by this Order, to be paid on wine, shall not be taken on a less quantity than one dozen bottles, on each separate package; nor on less than a half quarter cask on each cask separately; and that the duty to be taken on spirits, strong waters and cordials, shall not be taken on any quantity less than ten gallons, unless under especial circumstances by direction of the Governor for the time being, as before provided.

" XXIX. And it is hereby further ordered that no person or persons shall import or introduce into Gibraltar any arms, ammunition or utensils of war, or any Military or Naval Stores, or any articles capable of being converted into, or made useful in increasing the quantity of, Military or Naval Stores, unless by licence to be granted under the hand and seal of the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being; and the said licence shall contain the conditions upon which such arms, ammunition or utensils of war, and such Military and Naval Stores, and other articles as aforesaid, may be so imported or introduced.

" XXX. And it is hereby further ordered that no person or persons shall exercise or carry on the business of an Auctioneer, or shall sell any goods or chattels, lands, tenements or hereditaments, by Public Auction, within the said Garrison and Territory, who shall not be nominated and appointed to exercise and carry on such business: by writing under the hand and seal of the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being; and every person or persons so nominated and appointed, shall, before exercising or carrying on such business, enter into a Bond, with two sufficient Sureties, to Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, in such penal sum as to the person so administering the Government of Gibraltar shall seem fit, with a condition that such person or persons shall render to the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar for the time being, at such times and in such manner as the person so administering the Government of Gibraltar shall from time to time direct, a full and faithful account of all sales made by such person or persons, and with a further condition that such person or persons, so exercising or carrying on such business, shall pay to and for the use of Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the sum of two pounds and ten shillings for each and every hundred pounds of the said account; and the said sum of two pounds and ten shillings shall be and constitute the full and sole charge of such person or persons for such sales at Auction; and such person or persons shall, upon such payment to and for the use of Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, be entitled to receive, and shall receive, the sum of ten shillings for every hundred pounds of such sales as and for the remuneration of such person or persons so exercising and carrying on such business of an Auctioneer; and, if any person or persons shall carry on or exercise the business of an Auctioneer without such nomination and appointment, and without entering into such Bond, such person or persons shall forfeit, for each of the said offences, the sum of twenty pounds.

" XXXI. And it is hereby further ordered that all monies, fees, duties, rates and charges whatsoever, raised, levied, collected and paid, at Gibraltar, to and for the use of Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall be paid to the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar for the time being, and to no other person or persons whomsoever.

" XXXII. And it is hereby further ordered that, upon the death, resignation or removal, of the present and every other Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar, the balance of monies in his hands, as such Collector, shall, as soon as a successor shall be appointed to the said office, actually vest in such successor, and, until such successor shall be appointed, in such person or persons as shall for the time being be duly authorized to execute the duties of the said Office.

" XXXIII. And it is hereby further ordered that every person appointed by Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, or by the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, to any office in the management or collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar, shall give security in the manner and form, and according to the provisions, of a certain Act of Parliament made in the fiftieth year of the reign of King George the Third, and entitled "An Act to regulate the taking of securities in all Offices in respect of which security ought to be given, and for avoiding the grant of all such Offices in the event of such security not being given within a time to be limited after the grant of such Offices," as explained and amended by a certain other Act of Parliament made in the fifty-second year of the reign of King George the Third, and intitled "An Act to explain and amend an Act of the fiftieth year of His present Majesty to regulate the taking of securities in all Offices in respect of which security ought to be given, and for avoiding the grant of all such Offices in the event of such security not being given within a time to be limited after the grant of such Office."

" XXXIV. And it is hereby further ordered, that no person or persons, in any way employed in the management or collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar, shall be in any way engaged or concerned in any kind of trade or merchandise.

" XXXV. And it is hereby further ordered that, if any Officer, Clerk or other person acting in any office or employment in, or belonging to, the Revenue Department at Gibraltar, shall take or receive any fee, perquisite, gratuity or reward, whether pecuniary or of any other sort or description whatever, directly or indirectly, from any person not being a person duly appointed to some office in the said Department, on account of any thing done or to be done by him in, or in any way relative to, his said office or employment, except such as he shall receive under any order or permission of the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, any such Officer, Clerk or other person, so offending, shall, on proof thereof, be dismissed from his office; and, if any person, not being a person duly appointed to some office in the said Department, shall give, offer or promise to give, any such fee, perquisite, gratuity or reward, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of fifty pounds.

" XXXVI. And it is hereby further ordered that any person or persons, in any way employed in the management or collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar, shall and may seize any goods, wares and merchandize, and any articles and things that are made liable to forfeiture by this Order.

“ XXXVII. And it is hereby further ordered that, if any person whatsoever shall hinder, oppose, molest or obstruct, any Officer or other person whatsoever employed in the management or collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar, or any person acting in his aid or assistance in the execution of his duty, or in the due seizing of any goods or other things liable to forfeiture by this Order, or shall rescue, or cause to be rescued, any goods or other things which have been seized, or shall attempt or endeavour to do so, or shall, before or at, or after, any seizure, stave, break or otherwise destroy, any goods or other things to prevent the seizure thereof, or the securing the same, then and in such case the party offending shall forfeit, for every such offence, the sum of one hundred pounds.

“ XXXVIII. And it is hereby further ordered that, if any person shall, by force or violence, assault, resist, oppose, molest, hinder or obstruct, any Officer or other person employed in the management or collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar, or any person acting in his or their aid or assistance in the due execution of his or their office or duty, such person, being convicted thereof, shall be adjudged a felon, and shall be transported for seven years, or sentenced to be imprisoned in the common gaol for any term not exceeding three years, at the discretion of the Court before whom the offender shall be tried and convicted as aforesaid.

“ XXXIX. And it is hereby further ordered that all things which shall be seized, as being liable to forfeiture under this Order, shall be taken forthwith and delivered into the custody of the Inspector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar for the time being, who shall secure the same by such means and in such manner as to him shall appear fit and expedient.

“ XL. And it is hereby further ordered that all things which shall have been condemned as forfeited under this Order, shall, under the directions of the Inspector of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar, be sold by public auction to the best bidder; provided always that it shall be lawful for the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, in lieu of such sale, to direct, that any of such things shall be destroyed or shall be reserved for the public service; and provided also that all articles, sold as above-mentioned, shall be subject, from and after the period of such sale, to the payment of such and the like duties, and to all such restrictions and regulations, as they would be liable to if legally imported or introduced into Her Majesty's Territory of Gibraltar; and all such sales shall be made with conditions to that effect.

“ XLI. And it is hereby further ordered that all penalties and forfeitures, incurred or imposed by this Order, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in the Supreme Court of Gibraltar, or in the name of Her Majesty's Attorney-General, or in the name or names of some Officer or Officers of Her Majesty's Revenue Department at Gibraltar; and likewise that all penalties and forfeitures, incurred or imposed by this Order, not exceeding the sum of ten pounds, shall and may be sued for either in the manner and form above prescribed for that purpose, or by oath of one credible witness before any Justice of the Peace of the said Garrison and Territory, and shall be levied, if not immediately paid, by warrant, under the hand and seal of such Justice, upon the goods and chattels of the offender; and in case no such goods or chattels can be found, then and in that case such person or persons shall and may be imprisoned, in the Provost of the said Garrison and Territory, for any period not exceeding three months, any thing in the said Order of His late Majesty to the contrary notwithstanding.

“ XLII. And it is hereby further ordered that no marriage shall be solemnized within the said Garrison and Territory, without a licence for that purpose first had and obtained under the hand and seal of the Police Magistrate of Gibraltar for the time being; provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to the solemnization of marriage after the publication of Banns, in the manner hitherto used and accustomed within the said Garrison and Territory.

“ XLIII. And it is hereby further ordered that it shall and may be lawful for the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, by any order made for that purpose under his hand, to direct any vessel, boat, goods or articles, or things whatsoever, seized as aforesaid under this Order, to be delivered to the proprietor or proprietors, or his or their agent or agents, whether condemnation shall have taken place or not, upon such terms and conditions as such person so administering the Government of Gibraltar may deem expedient, and which shall be mentioned in the said Order; and it shall also be lawful for the person so administering the Government of Gibraltar to mitigate, or remit, the whole or any part of any penalty or fine, or forfeiture, which shall have been incurred under this Order.

“ XLIV. And it is hereby further ordered that all penalties and forfeitures, recovered under this Order, shall be divided, paid and applied, as follows, that is to say, one moiety or such part thereof, not exceeding one moiety, as the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being shall direct, to the person or persons who shall seize, inform and sue for the same, and the other moiety or remaining part thereof, to and for the use of Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; and, when any seized or forfeited articles shall be destroyed, or reserved for the public service, in the manner hereinbefore provided, it shall and may be lawful for the person administering the Government to assign, by way of reward or recompense, to the person or persons who may have seized, informed of or sued for, the same, such sum or sums of money, to be paid out of Her Majesty's Revenue of Gibraltar, as shall not in the whole exceed one moiety of the estimated value of the articles so destroyed or reserved, if they had been sold in the manner hereinbefore provided for.

" XLV. And it is hereby further ordered that, if any goods or other things shall be seized for non-payment of duties or any other cause of forfeiture, and any dispute shall arise whether the duties have been paid for the same, or the same have been lawfully imported, or introduced or removed, then and in such case the proof thereof shall lie on the owner or claimer of such goods or other things, and not on the Officer or other person who shall seize or stop the same.

" XLVI. And it is hereby further ordered that all actions or suits for the recovery of any of the penalties or forfeitures imposed by this Order, may be commenced, or prosecuted, at any time within three years after the offence committed, by reason whereof such penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred.

" XLVII. And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the Schedule annexed to a certain other Order made by His late Majesty, to ratify and confirm regulations for the government of sea-going vessels, and of lighters and boats in the port of Gibraltar, and bearing date at the Court at St. James's, on the sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, the said Schedule being intituled " Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every lighter, boat or other craft, licenced through the year;" it is, therefore, hereby ordered that the said Schedule be wholly abolished and rescinded; and that the Schedule annexed to this Order, marked B, intituled " Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every lighter, boat or other craft, licenced during they ear," be substituted in lieu of the said Schedule annexed to the said Order of His late Majesty; and that all and singular the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, which apply to the Schedule annexed to the said Order, shall apply to the Schedule annexed to this Order, marked B, and intituled " Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every lighter, boat or other craft, licenced during the year."

" XLVIII. And it is hereby further ordered and ordained by the authority aforesaid, that nothing in this Draft Order contained shall have any force or effect until Her Majesty's pleasure be known hereon."

November 24. 1848.

By Authority of Parliament,
HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

East Indian Railway Company for making and maintaining one or more Railways in the East Indies.

(Incorporation.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a company, commonly called or known by the name of "The East Indian Railway Company," established for the purpose of making, constructing, working, and maintaining one or more railways in the East Indies, with all necessary and convenient extensions, branches, and works, and to enable the said Company to obtain and acquire all powers, rights, and privileges from the Supreme or any Local Government of India, necessary or convenient for the objects of the said undertaking; and also to confer on the Honourable East India Company, or the Supreme or any Local Government of India, all powers necessary or convenient for the purpose of authorizing, constructing, maintaining, protecting, and regulating railways and railway works in India, and taking, and purchasing, and holding lands, or any right, estate, interest, or profit, in or out of lands, for any term of years, or in perpetuity, for such purpose and for the exercise of such powers, by the said Supreme or any Local Government, in favour of, and to grant and concede lands, and depute the said powers to the said East Indian Railway Company, and any officer or officers thereof; and to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to make and enter into contracts with the Honourable East India Company, and the Supreme and any Local Government of India, or any other body corporate or person in Great Britain or India; and to enable any such body corporate or person to enter into any contract or contracts with the said East Indian Railway Company, or any officer or officers thereof; and to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to do all acts necessary and convenient for the objects aforesaid; and also to limit the responsibility of the proprietors in the said undertaking to the amount of their shares respectively; and also to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to sue and be sued in the name of one or more Directors, or some public or other officer of the same company, or otherwise; and to confer such other powers, rights, and privileges on the same company as may be deemed necessary or convenient for the purposes of the said undertaking, including powers to take and hold lands, or any right, estate, interest, or profit in or out of lands for any term of years, or in perpetuity, in the East Indies and in Great Britain; and also powers and facilities for making, enforcing, and recovering calls, reducing or altering the amount of the shares, creating and transferring scrip and other shares, mortgages, debentures, and other like instruments and securities; for increasing the capital of the company, consolidating and converting shares into stock, and for raising and borrowing money by mortgage or otherwise; and also for levying tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said railway or railways and extensions, together with such powers for regulating and protecting the rights of the shareholders, and the remittance or payment of dividends or interest in respect of any share or shares, or other interest in the said railway or railways and extensions; and such further and other powers in relation to the premises as may be deemed advisable.—Dated this first day of November 1848.

D. J. Noad, Secretary of the East Indian Railway Company.

Caledonian Railway (Lease or Purchase of the Glasgow, Barrhead, and Neilston Direct Railway) Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge, or to repeal the powers and provisions, or some of them, of the several Acts relating to the Glasgow, Barrhead, and Neilston Direct Railway Company, passed, respectively, in the sessions of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth, the ninth and tenth, and the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and of the Acts relating to the Glasgow Southern Terminal Railway Company, passed, respectively, in the sessions of Parliament held in the ninth and tenth, and the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions contained in the several Acts relating to the Caledonian Railway Company, passed, respectively, in the sessions of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth, the ninth and tenth, the tenth and eleventh, and the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Glasgow, Barrhead, and Neilston Direct Railway Company to sell or let in lease, and the said Caledonian Railway Company to purchase or take in lease the said Glasgow, Barrhead, and Neilston Direct Railway, together with all the branches and works incorporated and connected therewith; and all the lands, buildings, and conveniences connected therewith or belonging thereto, or some part or parts thereof, and all or any powers or privileges in relation thereto, vested in the said Glasgow, Barrhead and Neilston Direct Railway Company, or which may be granted to or conferred on the said last-mentioned company by any Act or Acts to be passed in the next session of Parliament; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act, if necessary, to dissolve the said Glasgow, Barrhead, and Neilston Direct Railway Company, and to alter, vary, or extinguish certain existing rights and privileges, and to confer other rights and privileges in relation thereto; and it is also proposed by such intended Act to authorize the Caledonian Railway Company to fix and levy the toll, rates, and duties on and in respect of the use of the several lines of railway, branches, and other works to be leased or sold to them as aforesaid; and also to confer, vary, or extinguish certain exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties; and it is also proposed to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, or any of them.

Caledonian and Edinburgh and Glasgow Railways (Lease of Scottish Midland Junction Railway) Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to empower the Caledonian Railway Company, and the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company, to take on lease the Scottish Midland Junction Railway, and the branch railways, works, and property connected therewith, and to acquire all or some of the rights and powers now, or which may hereafter be, vested in the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company; and to empower the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company to grant a lease of the said railway, branch railways, works, and property, and a transference of the said rights and powers to the Caledonian Railway Company and the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company, on such terms, and for such guaranteed rent or dividend, or other consideration, as shall have been, or may be, agreed upon among the said companies, or as may be fixed by the said intended Act; and to enable the said respective companies to enter into agreements among themselves in relation to the lease of the said railway, branch railways, works, and property, and the transference of the said rights and powers, and as to the transmission, management, and conduct of the traffic on their respective undertakings, and the division and apportionment among themselves, or among themselves and others interested therein, of the proceeds of such traffic; and to confirm any agreements which may have been entered into previous to the passing of the said intended Act, with reference to all or any of the purposes hereinbefore mentioned.

And it is also intended by such Act so to be applied for to enable the Caledonian Railway Company and the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company to fix, levy, and receive the tolls, rates, and duties on and for the use of the said Scottish Midland Junction Railway, and branch railways and works connected therewith, and also to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which may in any manner interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And for the above and other purposes, it is intended by the said Act to alter and amend, and so far as necessary to repeal, some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, or some of them (that is to say), "The Caledonian Railway Act, 1845," and the several other Acts relating to the Caledonian Railway Company, viz., local and personal Acts, 9 and 10 Victoria, chapters 130, 229, 249, 314, 329, 379, and 395; 10 Victoria, chapters 22, 23, and 24; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 75, 82, 168, 169, 172, and 237; and 11 and 12 Victoria, chapters 73, 78, and 121; an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Edinburgh to Glasgow, to be called the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, with a branch to Falkirk;" and the several other Acts relating to the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company, viz., local and personal Acts, 3 and 4 Victoria, chapter 108; 5 Victoria, session 2, chapter 12; 7 and 8 Victoria, chapters 58 and 70; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapters 91 and 182; 9 Victoria, chapter 70; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapters 165, 202, 332, and 377; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 245 and 246; and 11 and 12 Victoria, chapters 70, 116, 118, 127, and 160; and the following Acts relating to the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company, viz., "The Scottish Midland Junction Railway Act, 1845;" "The Scottish Midland Junction Railway Branches Act, 1846;" "The Scottish Midland Junction Railway Amendment and Branches Act, 1848;" "The Scottish Central Railway (Perth Termini and Stations) Act, 1846;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from Newtyle to the Muir of Eassie, and from thence to the Muir of Glammiss, in the county of Forfar;" an Act passed in the same session, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from Newtyle to Coupar Angus, in the county of Forfar;" and an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Newtyle and Coupar Angus Railway Company to raise a further sum of money;" and any other Acts relating to the said several railways, or any of them, or conferring powers upon the said several companies, or any of them.
