West Cornwall Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners of Railways, by a warrant under their seal, bearing date the 7th day of December now last, and made in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to give further time for making certain railways," have ordered and declared, that the period of time limited by the West Cornwall Railway Act, 1846, for the completion of the railway and branch railway described in the said warrant (that is to say), a railway, commencing at or near a certain place, called Carvedras, in the parish of Kenwyn, in the county of Cornwall, and terminating on the sea shore at or near the East Cliff, in the parish of Madron, in the borough of Penzance, in the said county; and a branch railway, commencing from and out of the said hereinbefore-mentioned railway, at or near Tre-wergie House, in the parish of Redruth, in the county of Cornwall, and terminating by a junction with the line of the Cornwall Railway, at or near Ponsanooth, in the parish of Perranarworthall, in the same county, shall be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the said period so limited by such Act; and also that the period of time limited by the same Act, for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purpose of constructing the hereinbefore-mentioned railway and branch railway, shall (except in respect of such of the lands mentioned and described in the plans of the said railway and branch railway, and the books of reference thereto, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, as are wholly or in part the property of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Penzance) be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the said last-mentioned period so limited by such Act; subject nevertheless to all such savings, exceptions, and provisions whatsoever as are contained in the said Act of the last session of Parliament.—Dated this 8th day of December 1848.

H. D. Harness, Captain, Royal Engineers,
Secretary to the Commissioners of Railways.

FRENCH CLAIMS.

Office of French Claims, No. 5, Whitehall-Place, December 12, 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given to those parties whose claims have been admitted under awards of this Board, pursuant to the instructions contained in the Treasury Minute of the 15th of March 1833, that a pro rata payment, in the nature of interest, will be payable to the new claimants under that minute, or their duly accredited agents; and they are hereby requested to present themselves before the Commissioner, on Tuesday the 19th and Wednesday the 20th instant, and Tuesday the 16th January, and every subsequent Tuesday, between the hours of twelve and three, when the Commissioner will be prepared to issue certificates to the Paymaster General.

Notice is further given, that such payment will be the last payment due to any of the claimants under the Commission appointed by the Treasury Minute of 15th March 1833.

By order of Joseph Phillimore, Esq.
D. C. L. the Commissioner,
G. J. Farrance, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that James Houghton, of Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, engineer, has made application to Her Majesty's Solicitor General, for leave to enter a disclaimer and memorandum of alteration to the specification of a patent, granted to him on the 15th day of June 1847, for certain improvements in machinery or apparatus to be used in the preparation and spinning of cotton wool and other fibrous substances, such alteration relating to the arrangement of apparatus to be applied to the preparation machine for the purpose of stopping the evolutions of the drawing frame, and to the application and use of an elastic band, in place of the metallic springs usually employed for causing the presser lever to bear upon the bobbin. Dated this 11th day of December 1848.
