

the parish of Balcombe; on the south east and south by the remaining part of the parish of Cuckfield, from which such proposed chapelry district is separated as follows, that is to say, by a line commencing at the point of the brook at the south easternmost corner of field marked No. 895 on the tithe commutation map of the parish of Cuckfield, and from that point proceeds in a westerly direction along the said brook, on the northern sides of enclosures marked on the said map, numbers 897 and 896, as far as the High-road from London, through Balcombe to Cuckfield; it then proceeds in a southerly direction, down the middle of that road, as far as the northern enclosure of the field marked number 1035 on the said map; it then proceeds westerly, along the northern enclosures of numbers 1035 and 1032, and enters the road leading from Colling's Farm, down the centre of which road, and the eastern side of enclosure number 1222, it proceeds southerly to the road passing between enclosures numbers 1222 and 1030, and then turns westerly, by the southern enclosures of numbers 1222, 1223, 1042, and 1045, as far as the south eastern corner of enclosure number 1078; it then proceeds southwards down the eastern enclosure of number 1050, then turns westerly along the southern enclosures of numbers 1050 and 1051, as far as the north western enclosure of number 1049, along which enclosure it proceeds southerly and westerly, as also along the northern enclosure of number 1055, then turns south westerly along the north western enclosure of number 1055, and westerly along the southern enclosure of number 1072, and through the middle of the small road number 1062, and enters the parish road leading to Biggs Farm; it then proceeds northerly up that road as far as the northern angle of enclosure number 1104, and then turns westerly along the road leading into the road from Crawley to Cuckfield; it then proceeds southerly, down the middle of the latter road, as far as enclosure number 2165, which it includes within the district, and then turns westerly, along the road from Cuckfield, as far as the north western angle of enclosure number 1899 (a); and then proceeds southerly, down the middle of another road (passing by Fowlers Farm, which it includes within the district), as far as the south eastern corner of enclosure number 1863, and then turns westerly, along the northern enclosures of numbers 1945, 1946, 1947, 1952, and part of number 1953, where it enters a small brook, along which said brook it then proceeds southerly until it enters the before-mentioned parish of Bolney, as such proposed chapelry district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon surrounded by a red line:

“ Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Mark; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent of such church for the time being :

“ That the consent of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner Lord Bishop of Chichester (as the Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Ashhurst Turner Lord Bishop of Chichester has signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.
