AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight the 16th day of December 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit; and; from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court shall be holden in each district :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put into force accordingly :

And whereas it hath been represented, that it would be to the advantage of the public, if certain of the courts, established by the said Order in Council, were ordered to be held in more than one place within their several districts :

And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted, that any Order in Council, made for the purposes of the said Act, shall be published in the London Gazette; and notice of the intention of Her Majesty to take into consideration the propriety of making any such Order shall be published in the London Gazette one calendar month at least before any such Order shall be made :

And whereas notice of the intention of Her Majesty to take into consideration the propriety of making an Order, for the purposes of the said Act, was given accordingly, and published in the London Gazette on Friday the eighth day of September last :

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight :

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of December 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act to amend the law of copyright,” it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any part of the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire any printed book first composed or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act to regulate the trade of the “ British possessions abroad,” books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed or written or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act to amend the law relating to “ the protection in the colonies of works entitled “ to copyright in the United Kingdom,” it is enacted, that in case the legislature or proper legislative authorities in any British possession shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same in the proper manner to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty; and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring, that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or in any other Acts against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony :

And whereas an Act has been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the Island of Barbados, No. 936, intituled " An Act to " authorise the importation into this island of " books, being foreign reprints of books first " composed or written, or printed or published " in the United Kingdom, and in which there " shall be copyright," whereby provision is made for securing to British authors a certain remuneration in respect of unauthorized copies of works, under copyright, imported into the said island :

And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the same :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the said Act of the Legislature of the said island shall remain and continue in force within the said island, all prohibitions in either of the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or in any other Acts of the Imperial Parliament contained, against the importing into the said island, or against the selling, letting out to hire, or possessing therein foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards foreign reprints imported into the said island :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight the 16th day of December 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled " An Act to regulate " the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary :

And whereas Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in pursuance and exercise of the power so vested in Her, did, by a certain Order in Council, made on the twenty-fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, order, that no goods should be imported into, and that no goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, should be exported from the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, the same not to include the district of Port Natal, by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other British possession, except into or from the several ports of Cape Town, Simon's Town, and Port Elizabeth, or such other ports within the said colony as might be thereafter declared by Her Majesty in Council to be fit for such importation and exportation :

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty in Council, that the ports of Waterloo Bay and East London, in the said colony, are fit for such importation and exportation; it is hereby ordered, that goods may be imported into and exported from the said last-mentioned ports from or to other places than the United Kingdom, or some other British possession :

And whereas by the said Order, made on the twenty-fourth April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, it is declared to be expedient to constitute and appoint certain ports in the said colony to be free warehousing ports for all the goods which might be legally imported into the same; and it was therefore thereby ordered, that the ports of Cape Town, Simon's Town, and Port Elizabeth, and such other ports within the colony as might thereafter be declared by Her Majesty in Council to be fit for that purpose, should be free warehousing ports for the purposes of that Order :

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty in Council, that the said ports of Waterloo Bay and East London are fit for the said last-mentioned purposes :

It is hereby further ordered, that the said last-mentioned ports shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Order; and that all regulations made by the said Order for the appointing proper warehouses at the ports mentioned in the said Order, and for the lodging and securing of goods therein, shall extend to the appointing proper warehouses in the said ports of Waterloo Bay and East London, and to the lodging and securing goods in such warehouses.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the Governor, or the Officer for the time being administering the government of the said colony, shall promulgate this present Order within one calendar month next after the receipt thereof by him; and this Order shall take effect from and after the date of such promulgation thereof as aforesaid, and not before.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

MEMORANDUM.

The commission of Quartermaster Robert Webster, of 5th Foot, has been antedated to the 19th July 1847.

ERRATUM in the Gazette of 22d December 1848.
28th Regiment of Foot.

For Gentleman Cadet Vesey Truell, from Royal Military College, to be Ensign, &c.
Read, Gentleman Cadet George Vesey Truell, &c.

Whereas by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a dock and other works in the port of Newport, in the county of Monmouth, with a railway and stone road therefrom," it is enacted, that when the said dock and the cuts, locks, quays, roads, and wharfs belonging to, or to belong thereto, shall be so far completed that, in the judgement of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit for the reception of ships and goods respectively, it should be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, and they were thereby respectively authorized and empowered, by warrant under their hands, to certify and make known the same :

Now we, three of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, being satisfied that the said dock and the cuts, locks, quays, roads, and wharfs belonging thereto are so far completed that, in our judgement, the same are fit for the reception of ships and goods respectively, do hereby, by this our warrant under our hands, certify and make known the same.

Given under hands this 21st day of December, in the year of Lord, 1848.

Liverpool Sanatory Act.

(Alteration of Sewer Rate.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to amend certain of the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the improvement of the sewerage and drainage of the borough of Liverpool, and for making further provisions for the sanatory regulation of the said borough;" and to repeal or alter the provisions relating to the sewer rates, authorized to be levied by the said Act, and with respect to the districts of the townships of Everton and Kirkdale, and of such parts of the township of West Derby, and of the extra-parochial place of Toxteth-park, as are situate within the limits of the said Act; to exempt the sewer rates of such districts, respectively, from being directly or indirectly chargeable with the making of sewers, other than main or outlet sewers, within such districts respectively; and to provide for the making of sewers, other than main or outlet sewers, within such districts respectively, by the owners of lands within such districts respectively.

Wm Shuttleworth, Town Clerk of Liverpool, Solicitor for the proposed Act.

CONTRACT for RAISINS or CURRANTS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 22, 1848.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 8th February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

Raisins (New Black Smyrna), 65 tons; half to be delivered in three months, and the remainder in one month afterwards; or Currants (New), 35 tons; half to be delivered in a month, and the remainder in a month afterwards.

To be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Samples (not less than three pounds) must be produced by the parties tendering.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contract.

CONVEYANCE OF HER MAJESTY'S MAILS AND DISPATCHES BETWEEN HARWICH, HAMBURGH, AND ROT- TERDAM.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 22, 1848.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 1st February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat, under conditions, which may be seen at the above Office,

For the Conveyance of Her Majesty's Mails and Dispatches, twice a week each way, between Harwich and Hamburgh, and between Harwich and Rotterdam.

The contract to commence on 1st April 1849, and to be terminable by either party at the end of five years.

Tenders may be made either for the whole service, or for the separate service between Harwich and Hamburgh, or between Harwich and Rotterdam.

All tenders to be made upon the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained upon application at the said Office, and to be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, with the words, "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails," and "Comptroller of Victualling and Transport Services," in the left hand corner of the envelope.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and must express when and where the vessels will be ready for survey, and when they will be completely ready for sea, and also state the address of the party tendering.

CONTRACT FOR IRON NAILS.

Department of the Storekeeper General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, December 22, 1848.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 25th January next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract, for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of six months' warning, for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock-yards with Iron Nails, Tacks, Tenter Hooks, Rivets, and Brads.

Patterns may be seen, and a schedule, form of tender, and conditions of the contract, obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Iron Nails," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £2000, for the due performance of the contract.
