

of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring, that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or in any other Acts against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony :

And whereas an Act has been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the Island of Barbados, No. 936, intituled " An Act to " authorise the importation into this island of " books, being foreign reprints of books first " composed or written, or printed or published " in the United Kingdom, and in which there " shall be copyright," whereby provision is made for securing to British authors a certain remuneration in respect of unauthorized copies of works, under copyright, imported into the said island :

And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the same :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the said Act of the Legislature of the said island shall remain and continue in force within the said island, all prohibitions in either of the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or in any other Acts of the Imperial Parliament contained, against the importing into the said island, or against the selling, letting out to hire, or possessing therein foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards foreign reprints imported into the said island :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight the 16th day of December 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled " An Act to regulate " the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary :

And whereas Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in pursuance and exercise of the power so vested in Her, did, by a certain Order in Council, made on the twenty-fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, order, that no goods should be imported into, and that no goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, should be exported from the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, the same not to include the district of Port Natal, by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other British possession, except into or from the several ports of Cape Town, Simon's Town, and Port Elizabeth, or such other ports within the said colony as might be thereafter declared by Her Majesty in Council to be fit for such importation and exportation :

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty in Council, that the ports of Waterloo Bay and East London, in the said colony, are fit for such importation and exportation; it is hereby ordered, that goods may be imported into and exported from the said last-mentioned ports from or to other places than the United Kingdom, or some other British possession :
