"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Longford, in the county of Derby, and within the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Alkmonton, in the said parish of Longford, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should comprize the whole township of Alkmonton (except a small detached portion thereof situate about three miles and a half from the said church), and the whole of the liberty or township of Hungry Bentley, and should be called 'The Chapelry District of Alkmonton,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned:

"The chapelry district of Alkmonton is bounded on the east by the townships of Longford and Rodsley, both in the said parish of Longford; on the north by the chapelry district of Yeaveley and the township of Stydd, both in the parish of Shirley; on the west by the parish of Cubley, and on the south by the parishes of Boylstone, otherwise Boilston and Barton Blount; and which proposed chapelry district of Alkmonton is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint John, at Alkington; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent or minister of such church for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield (as Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
