Arbroath, January 22, 1849.

TO be sold in lots, pursuant to a decree made in a certain cause Painter v. Moyle, with the approbation of N. W. Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of this Honourable Court at the Red Lion Inn, Truro, in the county of Cornwall, sometime in the month of March 1849, of which due notice will be given.

Certain Freehold and Leasehold estates, situate in or near Truro aforesaid, late the property of Matthew Moyle, of Chacewater in the said county of Cornwall.

TO be sold, pursuant to a decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Norman versus Norman, with the approbation of John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said court, some time in the month of February or March 1849, at Isleham, in the county of Cambridge.

An Estate of about 92 acres of very excellent Fen land, in the old Turf Fen, West Fen, and the Common or common fields of Isleham, in the county of Cambridge, which, or some part thereof, has lately been inclosed and will be divided into allotments of an average of eight acres each, and on one of which allotments is a very good mill. Also an allotment of about eight acres of very rich and fertile arable land, in Dunstall Field, and a Dwelling-house and suitable farm buildings, situate in West-street, and an excellent piece of building ground, adjoining or near thereto, all which are situate at or near to the town of Isleham aforesaid. The whole of the estate formerly belonged to William Norman, late of Isleham aforesaid, Farmer, now deceased, and is now in the occupation of Mr. Frederick Norman and others.

The time and place of sale will be advertised in due time, and particulars and condition of sale (which are in the course of preparation) may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Trinder and Eyre, Solicitors, No. 1, John-street, Bedford-row, London; Messrs. J. and J. Read, Solicitors, Mildenhall, Suffolk; and Mr. George Bland, of the same place, Auctioneer, Land Agent, and Valuer.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause Saunders v. Biggs, it was amongst other things referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who was the heir at Law to the Testator Gilbert Biggs, late of North Waltham, in the county of Hants, Gentleman, and who was his customary heir according to the customs of the manor of Overton in the parish of North Waltham, in the county of Hants, or any other manor or manors of which his copyhold estates were holden; therefore any person or persons claiming to be such heir at Law or customary heir as aforesaid, is or are by these Solicitors forthwith, to come in and prove such claim or respective claims before the said master, at his office in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Saunders against Biggs, the creditors of Gilbert Biggs, late of North Waltham, in the county of Hants, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 1st day of October 1852), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
