To the Trustees of the Poor of the parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch, and to all whom it may concern.

Whereas by the provisions of the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, and by virtue of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 28th day of September 1848, directing that the said Act be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases; and whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the directions and regulations, to be issued as aforesaid, shall extend to all parts or places in which the said provisions of the said Act shall for the time being be in force under the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, unless such directions or regulations shall be expressly confined to some of such parts or places, and then to such parts or places as in such directions and regulations shall be specified.

And whereas, in exercise of the authority vested in us as aforesaid, we have issued certain directions and regulations, bearing date the 3d November 1848, to extend to England, and be enforced through that part of the United Kingdom.

And whereas certain parts of the parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease.

Now, in further exercise of the authority vested in us as aforesaid, We, the General Board of
