PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is amongst, other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions in or near the continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary.

And whereas, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council doth deem it expedient and salutary to make the several regulations hereinafter contained touching the trade and commerce of Her Majesty's settlements on the river Gambia and their dependencies.

1st. Now, therefore, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the power so vested in Her, as aforesaid, by the said recited Act of Parliament, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in the table following, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are hereby prohibited to be imported or brought into such settlements and their dependencies, or shall be so imported or brought only under the restrictions mentioned in such table, according as the several sorts of such goods are set forth therein, that is to say:

A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions.

Gunpowder, arms, ammunition, or utensils of war; Prohibited to be imported, to be used therein except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession; but such articles may, nevertheless, be imported from any foreign country in any vessels which may legally trade between such foreign countries and the British possessions on the western coast of Africa for the purpose of being warehoused at the port of Bathurst for exportation only.

Articles of foreign manufacture, and any packages of such articles, bearing any names, brands, or marks purporting to be the names, brands, or marks of manufacturers resident in the United Kingdom.

Base or counterfeit coin.

Books first composed or written or printed and published in the United Kingdom wherein the copyright shall be subsisting, and printed or reprinted in any other country, as to which the proprietor of such copyright or his agent shall have given to the Commissioners of Customs a notice in writing that such copyright subsists, such notice also stating when such copyright will expire; Prohibited to be imported.

2. And if any goods shall be imported or brought into such settlements, and their dependencies contrary to any of the prohibitions or restrictions mentioned in such table in respect of such goods, the same shall be forfeited; and if the ship or vessel in which such goods shall be imported be of less burthen than sixty tons, such ship or vessel shall be forfeited.

3. And whereas it is expedient to extend certain of the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, of the 8th and 9th years of the reign of Her present Majesty to the said settlements and their dependencies, now therefore Her Majesty with the advice of Her Privy Council and in further pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Her as aforesaid, by the said Act of Parliament, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods be exported from the said settlements and their dependencies, by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom or some other British possession, except into or from the port of Bathurst or such other port or ports within the said settlements and their dependencies, as may be hereafter declared by Her Majesty in Council to be fit for such importation and exportation; and if any goods shall be imported into the said settlements and their dependencies, contrary hereto, such goods shall be forfeited.

4. And it is hereby further ordered that goods of any sort, or the produce of any place, not otherwise prohibited than by the Law of Navigation, may be imported into the said port of Bathurst, from any place in a British ship, and from any place, not being a British possession in a foreign ship of any country and however navigated, to be warehoused for exportation only, under the provisions of this order, or of any law in force, for the time being, made for the warehousing of goods; provided always, and it is hereby ordered that it shall be declared upon the entry of such goods that they are entered for exportation only.

5. And it is hereby further ordered, that the master of every ship arriving in any of Her Majesty's settlements on the river Gambia and their dependencies, whether laden or in ballast, shall come directly, and before bulk be broken, to the Custom House at the port of Bathurst, and there make a report, in writing, to the collector or other proper officer, of the arrival and voyage of such ship, stating her name, country, and tonnage, and, if British, the port of registry, the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of such ship, and whether she be laden or in ballast, and if laden, the marks, numbers, and contents of every package and parcel of goods on board, and where the same was laden, and where and to whom consigned, and where any and what goods, if any, had been unladen during the voyage as far as any such particulars can be known to him; and the master shall further answer all such questions concerning the ship and cargo and the crew and the voyage, as shall be demanded of him by such officer; and if any goods be unladen from any ship before such report be made, or if the master fail to make such report, or make an untrue report, or do not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds, and if any goods be not reported such goods shall be forfeited.

6. And it is hereby further ordered, that no goods shall be laden, or water-borne to be laden, on board any ship, or unladen from any ship in the said settlements and their dependencies, until due entry shall have been made of such goods and warrant granted for the lading or unlading of the same, and the person entering any such goods shall deliver to the Collector of the Customs or other proper officer, a Bill of the entry thereof, fairly written in words at length, containing the name of the exporter or importer and of the ship and of the master and of the place to or from which bound, and of the place within the port where the goods are to be laden or unladen, and the particulars of the quality and quantity of the goods, and the packages containing the same, and the marks and numbers on the packages, and setting forth whether such goods be the produce of the British possessions or not, and shall also deliver at the same time one or more duplicates of such Bill, in which all sums and numbers may be expressed in figures, and the particulars to be contained in such Bill of entry, shall be written and arranged in such form and manner, and the number of such duplicates shall be such as the collector or other principal officer shall require.

7. And it is hereby further ordered, that the master of every ship bound from such settlements and their dependencies, shall, before any goods be laden therein, deliver to the collector or comptroller, or other proper officer of customs, an entry outwards, under his hand, of the destination of such ship, stating her name, country, and tonnage, and, if British, the port of registry, the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of such ship; and if any goods be laden on board any ship before such entry be made, the master of such ship shall forfeit the sum of fifty pounds; and before such ship depart, the master shall bring and deliver to the collector and comptroller, or other proper officer, a content in writing, under his hand, of the goods laden, and the names of the respective shippers and consignees of the goods, with the marks and numbers of the packages or parcels of the same, and shall make and subscribe a declaration to the truth of such content, as far as any such particulars can be known to him; and the master of every such ship, whether in ballast or laden, shall, before departure, come before the collector or comptroller, or other proper officer, and answer all such questions concerning the ship and the cargo, if any, and the crew, and the voyage, as shall be demanded of him by such officer; and thereupon the collector, or other proper officer, if such ship be laden, shall make out and give to the master a certificate of the clearance of such ship for her intended voyage, containing an account of the total quantities of the several sorts of goods laden therein, or a certificate of her clearance in ballast, as the case may be; and if the ship shall depart without such clearance, or if the master shall deliver a false content, or shall not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

8. And it is hereby further ordered, that no entry, nor any warrant for the landing of any goods, or for the taking of any goods out of any warehouse, shall be deemed valid, unless the particulars of the goods and packages in such entry shall correspond with the particulars of the goods and packages purporting to be the same in the report of the ship, nor unless the goods shall have been properly described in such entry, by the denominations and with the characters and circumstances according to which such goods may be imported; and any such goods taken or delivered out of any ship, or out of any warehouse, by virtue of any entry or warrant not corresponding or agreeing in all respects, or not properly describing the same, shall be deemed to be goods landed or taken without due entry thereof, and shall be forfeited.

9. And whereas it is expedient to constitute and appoint the port of Bathurst to be a free warehousing port for all such goods as may be legally imported under this order, it is therefore hereby ordered that the port of Bathurst shall be a free warehousing port for all the purposes mentioned in this order.

10. And whereas it is necessary to make regulations for the appointing proper warehouses at the Port of Bathurst, and for the lodging and securing therein of such goods as may be imported under this Order, it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Collector of Customs at the said port, with the assent of the Governor by notice in writing under his hand to appoint from time to time such warehouses at that port as shall be approved of, for the free warehousing and securing of goods therein for the purposes of this Order, and also in such notice to declare what sorts of goods may be so warehoused, and also by like notice to revoke or alter any such appointment or declaration.

Provided always, that every such notice shall be transmitted to the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of the said settlements and their dependencies, and shall be published in such manner as he shall direct.

11. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the importer of any such goods as aforesaid into the port of Bathurst, to warehouse the same in the warehouses so appointed, subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained.

12. And it is hereby further ordered, that all goods so warehoused, shall be stowed in such parts or divisions of the warehouse, and in such manner as the collector shall direct, and that the warehouses shall be locked and secured in such manner and shall be opened and visited only at such times, and in the presence of such officers, and under such rules and regulations as the collector shall direct; and that all such goods shall, after being landed upon importation be carried to the warehouse, or shall, after being taken out of the warehouse for exportation, be carried to be shipped, under such rules and regulations as the collector shall direct.

13. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any goods which have been entered to be warehoused under the provisions of this Order shall not be duly carried into and deposited in the warehouse, or shall afterwards be taken out of the warehouse without due entry and clearance, or having been entered and cleared for exportation from the warehouse, shall not be duly carried and shipped, or shall afterwards be reloaded, except with the permission of the proper Officer of the Customs, such goods shall be forfeited.

14. And it is hereby further ordered, that upon the entry and landing of any goods to be warehoused under the provisions of this Order, the proper Officer of the Customs shall take a particular account of the same, and shall mark the contents on each package, and shall enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose; and no goods which have been so warehoused shall be taken or delivered from the warehouse, except upon due entry and under the care of the proper officers.

15. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the collector, under such regulations as he shall see fit, to permit moderate samples to be taken of any goods so warehoused.

16. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the collector, under such regulations as he shall see fit, to permit the proprietor or other person having control over the goods so warehoused to sort, separate, pack, and repack any such goods, and to make such lawful alterations therein, or arrangements and assortments thereof, as may be necessary for the preservation of such goods, or in order to the sale, shipment, or legal disposal of the same; and also to permit any parts of such goods so separated to be destroyed.

17. And it is hereby further ordered, that all goods which have been so warehoused or rewarehoused under the provisions of this Order shall be duly cleared for exportation, or otherwise accounted for within two years from the day of first entry for the warehousing thereof; and if any such goods be not so cleared or accounted for, it shall be lawful for the collector to cause the same to be sold, and the produce shall be applied, first, to the payment of warehouse rent and other charges, and the overplus (if any) shall be paid to the proprietor.

Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the collector to grant further time for any such goods to remain warehoused if he shall see fit so to do.

18. And it is hereby further ordered, that upon the entry outwards of any goods to be exported from the warehouse under the provisions of this Order, the person entering the same shall give security by bond, in double the value of such goods, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the collector, that the same shall be landed at the place for which they be entered outwards, or be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the collector.

19. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful to reimport into the port of Bathurst any goods which shall have been legally exported therefrom to any place on the western coast of Africa, and to enter the same by bill of store, referring to the entry outwards and exportation thereof, provided the property in such goods continue in the person by whom or on whose account the same have been exported, and that such reimportation take place within two years from the date of the exportation.

20. And it is hereby further ordered, that the person in whose name any goods so reimported were entered for exportation, shall deliver to the collector or other proper officer of the customs, an exact account signed by him of the particulars of such goods, referring to the entry and clearance outwards and to the return inwards of the same, with the marks and numbers of the packages both inwards and outwards, and thereupon the said officer finding that such goods had been legally exported, shall grant a bill of store for the same; and if the person in whose name such goods were entered for exportation was not the proprietor thereof but his agent, he shall declare on such bill of store the name of the person by whom he was employed as such agent; and if the person to whom such returned goods are consigned shall not be such proprietor and exporter, he shall make and subscribe a declaration, on such bill of store, of the name of the person for whose use such goods have been consigned to him, and the real proprietor ascertained to be such shall make and subscribe a declaration upon such bill of store to the identity of the goods so exported and so returned, and that he was at the time of exportation and of re-importation, the proprietor of such goods, and that the same had not during such time been sold or disposed of to any other person, and such declaration shall be made before the collector or other proper officer at the port of Bathurst, and thereupon the said officer shall admit such goods to entry by bill of store.

Provided always, that where the real proprietor of any such goods shall be absent from such settlements and their dependencies at the time of such re-importation, such goods if legally entitled to be entered by bill of store, shall be permitted to be so entered upon production of a declaration subscribed by the original consignee, or by the authorised agent of such real proprietor, setting forth the identity of the goods so exported and so returned, and that [name the real proprietor] was at the time of exportation from such settlements and their dependencies, and will be at the time of re-importation therein the proprietor of such goods, and that the same have not during such time been sold or disposed of to any other person, such declaration to be made before the collector or other proper officer of the customs, and upon such further proof of the identity of the goods as the collector of customs shall require, and upon compliance with all the other regulations required by law on the entry of goods by bill of store.

21. And it is hereby further ordered, that all vessels, boats, carriages, implements, and cattle, made use of in the removal of any goods liable to forfeiture under this Order, or under any Act or Order relating to the customs, or to trade, or navigation, shall be forfeited; and every person who shall assist or be otherwise concerned in the unshipping, landing, or removal, or in the harbouring of such goods, or to whose hands or possession the same shall knowingly come, shall forfeit the treble value thereof or the penalty of one hundred pounds, at the election of the officers of the customs, and the averment in any information or libel to be exhibited for the recovery of such penalty that the officer proceeding has elected to sue for, the sum mentioned in the information or libel shall be deemed sufficient proof of such election without any other or further evidence of such fact.

22. And it is hereby further ordered, that all goods and all ships, vessels and boats, and all carriages, and all cattle, liable to forfeiture under this order, or any order or Act relating to the customs or to trade or navigation, shall and may be seized and secured by any officer of the customs or navy, or by any person employed for that purpose, by or with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and every person who shall in any way hinder, oppose, molest or obstruct any officer of the customs or navy, or any person so employed as aforesaid in the exercise of his office, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds.

23. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any officer of the customs, or any person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, shall make any collusive seizure, or deliver up or make any agreement to deliver up or not to seize any vessel, boat, or goods liable to forfeiture under this order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, or shall take any bribe, recompence, gratuity or reward, for the neglect or non-performance of his duty, every such officer or other person shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of five hundred pounds, and be rendered incapable of serving Her Majesty in any office whatever, and every person who shall give or offer or promise to give or procure to be given any bribe, recompence, or reward to, or shall make any collusive agreement with, any such officer or person as aforesaid, in the said settlements and their dependencies, to induce him in any way to neglect his duty, or to do, or conceal, or connive at anything whereby the provisions of this Order or any such Order or Act may be evaded, shall forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds.

24. And it is hereby further ordered, that all vessels, boats, goods, and other things, which shall have been, or shall hereafter be, seized as forfeited in the said settlements and their dependencies, under this Order or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, shall be deemed and taken to be condemned, and may be dealt with in the manner directed by law in respect to vessels, boats, goods, and other things seized and condemned for breach of any such Order or Act, unless the person from whom such vessel, boat, goods, and other things shall have been seized, or the owner of them or some person authorized by him shall, within one calendar month from the day of seizing the same, give Notice in writing to the person or persons seizing the same, or to the collector or other chief officer of the customs, at the port within the said settlements and their dependencies where the same shall have been seized, that he claims the vessel, boat, goods, or other things, or intends to claim them.

32. And it is hereby further ordered, that under the authority of a writ of assistance granted by the superior or supreme courts of justice or court of vice-admiralty having jurisdiction in the said settlements and their dependencies, which court or courts are hereby authorized and required to grant such writ of assistance, upon application made to them for that purpose by the principal officers of Her Majesty's customs, it shall be lawful for any officer of the customs, taking with him a peace officer, to enter any building or other place in the day-time, and to search for and seize and secure any goods liable to forfeiture under this Order; or any Order or Act relating to the customs or to trade or navigation, and in case of necessity to break open any doors and any chests or other packages for that purpose, and such writ of assistance when issued shall be deemed to be in force during the whole of the reign in which the same shall have been granted, and for twelve months from the conclusion of such reign.

26. And it is hereby further ordered that all things which shall be seized as being liable to forfeiture under this order, or any order or act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, shall be taken forthwith, and delivered into the custody of the collector of the customs at the port of Bathurst, and after condemnation, he shall cause the same to be sold by public auction to the best bidder.

27. And it is hereby further ordered, that all penalties and forfeitures which may have been heretofore, or may be hereafter incurred under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, shall and may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered, in any court of record or of vice-admiralty having jurisdiction in such settlements and their dependencies.

28. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any goods or any ship or vessel shall be seized as forfeited, under this Order, or any order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, and detained, it shall be lawful for the judge or judges of any Court having jurisdiction, to try and determine such seizures, to order the delivery thereof on security by bond, with two sufficient sureties to be first approved of by the collector of customs, to answer double the value of the same in case of condemnation, and such bond shall be taken to the use of Her Majesty, in the name of the collector or officer of the customs in whose custody the goods or the ship or vessel may be lodged, and such bond shall be delivered into and kept in the custody of such collector or officer, and in case the goods or the ship or vessel shall be condemned, the value thereof shall be paid into the hands of such collector or officer, who shall thereupon cancel such bond.

29. And it is hereby further ordered, that no suit shall be commenced in the said settlements and their dependencies, for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, except in the name of some superior officer of the customs, or of some officer of the navy, or of Her Majesty's Advocate or Attorney-General for the said settlements; and if a question shall arise whether any person is an officer of the customs or of the navy, vivâ voce evidence may be given of such fact, and shall be deemed legal and sufficient evidence.

30. And it is hereby ordered, that if any goods shall be seized for any cause of forfeiture under this order, and any dispute shall arise whether the same have been lawfully imported, or lawfully laden or exported, the proof thereof shall lie on the owner or claimer of such goods, and not on the officer who shall seize or stop the same.

31. And it is hereby further ordered, that no claim to anything seized under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, and returned into any of Her Majesty's courts for adjudication, shall be admitted, unless such claim be entered in the name of the owner, with his residence and occupation, nor unless oath to the property in such thing be made, by the owner, or by his attorney or agent, by whom such claim shall be entered to the best of his knowledge and belief, and every person making a false oath thereto shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to the pains and penalties to which persons are liable for a misdemeanor.

32. And it is hereby further ordered, that no person shall be admitted to enter a claim to anything seized, in pursuance of this Order, or any Act or Order relating to the Customs, or to trade or navigation, and prosecuted in the said settlements and their dependencies, until sufficient security shall have been given in the court where such seizure is prosecuted, in a penalty not exceeding sixty pounds to answer and pay the costs occasioned by such claim, and in default of giving such security such things shall be adjudged to be forfeited, and shall be condemned.

33. And it is hereby further ordered, that, if upon any trial a question shall arise whether any person is an officer of the customs or navy, evidence of his having acted as such shall be deemed sufficient, and such person shall not be required to produce his commission or deputation unless sufficient proof shall be given to the contrary, and every such officer and every person acting in his aid or assistance shall be deemed a competent witness upon the trial of any suit or information on account of any seizure or penalty as aforesaid, notwithstanding such officer or other person may be entitled to the whole or any part of such seizure or penalty upon the conviction of the party charged in such suit or information.

34. And it is hereby further ordered, that no writ shall be sued out against nor a copy of any process served upon any officer of the customs or navy, or other person as aforesaid, for any thing done by him in pursuance of this Order or any Order or Act relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation or otherwise in the exercise of his office, until one calendar month after notice in writing shall have been delivered to him or left at his usual place of abode by the attorney or agent of the party who intends to sue out such writ or process, in which notice shall be clearly and explicitly contained, the cause of action, the name and place of abode of the person who is to bring such action, and the name and place of abode of the attorney or agent; and no evidence of any cause of action shall be produced except such as shall be stated in such notice; and in case the plaintiff shall not prove on the trial that such notice was given, the jury shall find for the defendant.

35. And it is hereby further ordered, that every such action shall be brought within three calendar months after the accrual of the causes of action, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and under it give the special matter in evidence; and whenever, in any such action, the plaintiff shall become nonsuited or shall discontinue the action, or if a verdict shall be found or judgment shall be given for the defendant, he shall be entitled to full costs of suit, and have such remedy for the same as any defendant can have in other cases where costs are given by law.

36. And it is hereby further ordered, that in case any information or suit shall be brought to trial, on account of any seizure made under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the Customs, or to trade or navigation, and a verdict shall be found for the claimant thereof, and the Judge or Court before whom the cause shall have been tried, shall certify that there was probable cause of seizure, the claimant shall not be entitled to any costs of suit, nor shall the person who made such seizure be liable to any action, indictment, or other suit, or prosecution on account of such seizure; and if any action, indictment, or other suit or prosecution shall be brought to trial against any person, on account of such seizure, wherein a verdict shall be given against the defendant, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to recover, nor shall the defendant be liable for any fine, damages, or thing, beyond the things seized, or the value thereof.

37. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for such officer or other person as aforesaid, within one calendar month after such notice, to tender amends to the plaintiff or his agent, and to plead such tender in bar with or without other pleas, and if the jury shall find the amends tendered sufficient, they shall find for the defendant, and he shall be entitled to full costs of suit, in the same manner as if he had pleaded the general issue only, and a verdict had been found for him thereon.

Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such defendant, by leave of the Court wherein such action shall be brought, at any time before issue joined to pay money into Court as in other actions.

38. And it is hereby further ordered, that in any such action, if the Judge or Court before whom such action shall be tried, shall certify that the defendant or defendants in such action acted upon probable cause, then the plaintiff in such action shall not be entitled to more than twopence damages, nor to any costs of suit.

39. And it is hereby further ordered, that all penalties and forfeitures recovered in the said settlements and their dependencies under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade, or navigation, other than colonial ordinances, shall be paid into the hands of the collector of Port Bathurst, and shall be divided, paid, and applied as follows (that is to say): after deducting the charges of prosecution from the produce thereof, one-third part of the net produce shall be paid into the hands of the collector of Her Majesty's customs at the port of Bathurst for the use of Her Majesty, one-third part to the governor or lieutenant-governor of the said settlements and their dependencies, and the other third part to the person who shall seize, inform, and sue for the same, excepting in the case of seizures made at sea by the commanders or officers of Her Majesty's ships of war duly authorized to make seizures, one moiety of which last-mentioned seizures, and of the penalties and forfeitures recovered thereon, first deducting the charges of prosecution from the gross proceeds thereof, shall be paid as aforesaid to the collector of Her Majesty's customs, to and for the use of Her Majesty, and the other moiety to him or them who shall seize, inform, and sue for the same, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, subject nevertheless to such distribution of the produce of the seizures so made at sea, as well with regard to the moiety hereinbefore granted to Her Majesty, as with regard to the other moiety given to the seizer or prosecutor as Her Majesty shall think fit to order and direct by any Order or Orders in Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be made for that purpose.

40. And it is hereby further ordered, that all actions or suits for the recovery of any of the penalties or forfeitures imposed by this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade, or navigation, may be commenced or prosecuted at any time within three years after the offence committed, by reason whereof such penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

41. And it is hereby further ordered that no appeal shall be prosecuted from any decree or sentence of any of Her Majesty's courts in the said settlements and their dependencies touching any penalty or forfeiture imposed by this Order or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, unless the inhibition shall be applied for and decreed within twelve months from the time when such decree or sentence was pronounced.

42. And it is hereby ordered, that all persons authorized to make seizures under an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to amend" and consolidate the laws relating to the abolition "of the Slave Trade," shall, in making and prosecuting any such seizures have the benefit of all the provisions granted to persons authorized to make seizures under this Order. WHEREAS, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of the property formerly belonging to the Prebend of North Leverton, in the collegiate church of Southwell, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer and conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein; and with a further proviso, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

" And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments and endowments (excepting any right of patronage) formerly belonging to the said Prebend of North Leverton, comprising, among other estates, certain lands, tenements and hereditaments situate in the parish of North Leverton, in the county of Nottingham, became vested in us on the vacancy of the said Prebend, subject to any subsisting lease or leases thereof :

" And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in the said lands, tenements and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable :

" We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments (except as aforesaid) heretofore belonging to the said Prebend of North Leverton, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, have in pursuance of the fourth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act concerning Banns and Marriages in certain District Churches or Chapels," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following, viz.:

" Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that on the twenty-fourth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, your Majesty's said Commissioners (with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward late Lord Archbishop of York, testified by his having signed and sealed the same), made a representation to your Majesty in Council, that it appeared to them to be expedient, and therefore humbly prayed that a particular district might be assigned to the consecrated church or chapel called Christ Church, situate at Bridlington-quay, in the parish of Bridlington, in the East Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and that such proposed district should be called 'The Chapelry District of Christ Church, Bridlington-quay,' and that the boundaries thereof should be such as were mentioned or described in the said representation:

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, your Majesty was graciously pleased, by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the assignment of the said district, and was further pleased to order that the same should be accordingly made; and also that the recommendations of your Majesty's Commissioners in respect of the solemnization of baptisms and churchings, and the fees arising therefrom should be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Act:

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that the said Order in Council did not direct that banns of marriage should be published and marriages solemnized in the said church, called Christ Church, and that, having taken into their consideration the present circumstances of the said district so assigned to the said church, it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient that banns of marriage should hereafter be published, and that marriages should hereafter be solemnized or performed in the said church, called Christ Church, and that a supplemental Order for such purpose should be made, pursuant to the provisions of the fourth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels,' and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong and be paid to the incumbent for the time being of the said church, called Christ Church, for his own use and benefit.

That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Lord Archbishop of York (as Archbishop of the diocese within which the said parish of Bridlington is situate), has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section lastly hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Thomas, Lord Archbishop of York, has signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

REGULATIONS BY THE GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH, acting under the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act 1848," applicable to the Parochial Boards for the management of the Poor in the City of Glasgow, and the following Parishes near thereto, viz. Barony, Gorbals, Govan Annexation, and Govan.

Whereas by the Act 11 and 12 Victoria, c. 123, entitled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the 10th year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain Nuisances and the prevention of epidemic and contagious Diseases," the General Board of Health is empowered to issue such directions and regulations, for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, as to them may seem fit: Now we, the said General Board of Health, do hereby authorize and direct the Parochial Boards for the management of the Poor in the City of Glasgow and the following Parishes near thereto, namely, Barony, Gorbals, Govan Annexation, and Govan, to execute or see to the execution of the directions and regulations following, viz. :—

1. We hereby authorize and require the said Parochial Boards to provide dispensaries at suitable stations, with sufficient medical aid; such dispensaries to be accessible at all times, by night and by day, to persons requiring medical aid for themselves or others attacked by cholera, or by any of its premonitory symptoms; and to provide the medicines to be distributed to such applicants at such dispensaries, and such medicines and cordials as may be required elsewhere in their respective parishes, for necessitous persons attacked as aforesaid, who may be under medical treatment.

2. And we do further authorize and require the Parochial Boards of the said parishes and places to make arrangements for the distribution of notices, stating the places where such dispensaries shall have been provided.

3. Whereas it has heretofore been found to be impracticable to ensure proper treatment in their own houses to many of the poorer classes, we authorize and require the said Parochial Boards respectively to provide houses or suitable rooms, capable of accommodating necessitous cases, to which persons attacked by cholera, who cannot be properly treated in their own houses may be conveyed.

4. We authorize and require the said Parochial Boards to provide houses of refuge, to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons living under the same roof or in the vicinity of persons so attacked, as the medical officers, acting under the authority of the said Parochial Boards, may deem it necessary to remove, the houses, rooms, or dwellings from which persons may have been so removed to the houses of refuge, to be cleansed and purified by the owners or persons having the care or ordering thereof, or in their default by the said Parochial Boards respectively.

5. And we hereby authorize and require the said Parochial Boards to provide for the frequent visitation, by themselves, or their officers, or such persons as they may appoint in this behalf, of the several houses and dwellings throughout the bounds of their several parishes, and to inquire into the condition of and matters affecting the health of such houses and dwellings respectively, and their liability to contagious, epidemic, or endemic diseases, and especially as to the existence among them of bowel complaints.

6. We authorize and require the said Parochial Boards, on their own inspection, or the report of the officers or persons by whom such visitations may be made, or other information which they may acquire from their own committees or from visitors or others, as to the condition of the Poor who may be affected with or threatened by the cholera or other epidemic disease, to supply such medical aid as may appear requisite.

7. And we hereby authorize and require the Parochial Board, or the officer or person visiting as aforesaid, subject to the special instructions of the Parochial Board, in such place where symptoms are found of a premonitory attack of bowel complaint, to send the person so affected to the nearest dispensary within the bounds of the parish, or, where that may be inexpedient, to despatch some member of the family or other person for advice and medical aid, and immediately to report to the medical officer the case of every such person found so affected, who shall not have proceeded to the dispensary.

8. And we do authorize and direct the said several Parochial Boards to make arrangements for obtaining daily lists of persons attacked by cholera within their respective parishes, with the particulars of their cases and treatment, and for communicating the same daily to the other Boards respectively and to the President of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

9. And we do hereby authorize and direct the said Parochial Boards to appoint such additional medical officers, and also to appoint such other officers as may be necessary to carry, execute, and superintend the execution of these regulations.

The General Board of Health, Gwydyr House, Whitehall.

ORDER,

Sanctioning the reduction of the Medical Staff at Dumfries and Maxwelltown.

Whereas by date the ninth day of December, 1848, We, the General Board of Health, issued an order "To the Parochial Board of the Parish of Dumfries, in the County of Dumfries, and of the Burgh of the Barony of Maxwelltown, in the Parish of Troqueer, in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, and to all others whom it may concern." And in such order we directed that twenty-four persons should be employed as district medical officers, in consequence of the prevalence of epidemic cholera in the said parish and burgh. And whereas we have been informed that in consequence of the measures taken in pursuance of such order, the disease has so far abated, that only a few scattered cases occur daily, and that the same extent of medical service is no longer necessary. We, the General Board of Health do hereby revoke Article Second of the aforesaid Order, which is as follows:—

2nd. "That to each of these (twelve) districts they (the Parochial Board) appoint forthwith two competent medical officers."

And we do hereby authorize and require that nine persons acting as medical officers give their services to the parish and burgh aforesaid until a further diminution of their number shall, upon cause shown to us, be intimated by letter from our secretary.

disease, in any room occupied as a living or sleeping room, the district medical superintendent, or other medical practitioner who may have been in attendance on the deceased, shall notify the fact in writing to the inspector of the poor, who shall remove the body to some place where it may be kept until, at an appointed time made known to the relatives, and in a suitable manner with the due performance of religious rites, it be interred.

21. And we further direct the police to assist, if necessary, the inspector of the poor in the execution of this order.

22. REGULATIONS BY THE GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH acting under the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," applicable to the Parochial Board for the management of the poor in the city parish, Glasgow.

Whereas by the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, and by virtue of an order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 28th day of September 1848, directing that the said provisions of the said Act be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases: And whereas, by the said Act, it is provided that the directions and regulations to be issued as aforesaid shall extend to all parts or places in which the said provisions of the said Act shall, for the time being, be in force under the order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, unless such directions or regulations shall be expressly confined to some of such parts or places, and then to such parts or places as in such directions or regulations shall be specified: And whereas, in exercise of the authority vested in us as aforesaid, we have issued certain directions and regulations, bearing date the 9th November 1848, to extend to Scotland, and be enforced through that part of the United Kingdom; and certain other directions and regulations, bearing date the 17th November 1848, to extend to and be enforced in the city and suburbs of Glasgow: And whereas the city parish, Glasgow, appears to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease: Now in further exercise of the authority vested in us as aforesaid, we, the General Board of Health, do issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the city parish, Glasgow:—

1. That the Parochial Board divide the city parish into seventeen districts.

2. That each of these districts be subdivided into a convenient number of sub-districts.

3. That each district surgeon shall act as the superintending surgeon of his respective district.

4. That the consulting physician of the city parish shall act as the general superintendent of the entire district, and shall be the chairman at the meetings of the district surgeons.

5. That to each sub-district there shall be appointed at least one advanced medical student, who, under the superintendence of the district surgeon, shall perform the duties required by his office; that is to say,—

He shall visit every house within his sub-district at least once daily.

He shall inquire into the state of the health of the inmates, and particularly as to the existence among them of bowel complaints and other premonitory symptoms of cholera.

He shall at all times carry with him proper medicines for the treatment of all premonitory cases, and shall administer them on the spot.

He shall report immediately to the medical superintendent of his district, all cases of emergency, as well as all instances in which cleansing is required.

6. Each district medical superintendent shall visit with as little delay as possible, all cases of emergency or necessity, whether of cholera or of its premonitory symptoms, which may be reported to him by any of the visitors within his district, or which may otherwise come to his knowledge.

7. Each such district medical superintendent shall report immediately to the responsible officer, charged with cleansing operations, all cases reported to him by the visitors of his district, where cleansing may be required, including thorough and complete lime washing of the interior of dwellings, whether living-rooms, passages, or stair-cases; the external walls of houses, and other buildings, and the interior and exterior of all privies.

8. Each such district medical superintendent shall meet the visitors of his district at a stated hour each day, to receive their reports as to the number of cases of premonitory diarrhoea, which may have happened within their respective sub-districts in the course of the preceding twenty-four hours; and to advise with the visitors on the general management and concerns of each sub-district.

9. All such district medical superintendents shall meet at a stated hour each day, along with the general superintendent as their chairman, to whom they shall give

A summary of all cases of diarrhoea occurring within their respective districts, during the preceding twenty-four hours, and distinguishing the cases under treatment from the new cases.

A return of all cases of developed cholera, distinguishing in like manner the cases under treatment from the new cases, stating specially in every developed case of cholera, whether the patient had been previously treated medically for diarrhoea, and if so, furnishing the details of the treatment.

10. From these returns, copies of which shall be separately preserved, an aggregate return shall be made under the same heads by the general superintendent, as chairman of all the districts, to be sent each day to the General Board of Health.

11. Each such district medical superintendent shall have his surgery open all day, for the purpose of dispensing gratuitously to all applicants, such medicines as may be necessary for the relief of premonitory symptoms, and he shall also keep a list of the number of such applicants, and produce the same at the daily meeting of the several district medical superintendents in order that the same may be included in the general return to be made up each day.

12. In order to afford immediate relief to all persons seized in the night, either with premonitory diarrhoea or with cholera, a sufficient number of the houses of the district medical superintendents shall, in addition to the several hospitals and houses of refuge, be kept open all night, to each of which such houses, a legally qualified medical man shall be appointed, for the purpose of affording immediate assistance during the night, to those who may be attacked, as well as a senior student to dispense the medicines, and otherwise to assist the medical attendant.

13. That a sufficient number both of houses of refuge and of hospitals be opened forthwith, provided with the necessary means of affording relief, whether medical or otherwise, and also provided with the proper number of nurses to attend on the sick, night and day.

14. Every such house of refuge shall be visited daily by one of the district medical superintendents, or by some duly qualified medical practitioner; and every such hospital shall have at least one resident senior student, or if practicable, a duly qualified medical practitioner, and shall in like manner be visited at least once daily, by a district medical superintendent.

15. That a convenient place in each sub-district be provided, where a supply of blankets, sand, salt, fuel, &c., shall be kept for the use of the sick, but no article of this kind shall be given out except on the order in writing of a district medical superintendent, or of the general medical superintendent.

16. The Parochial Board shall cause to be printed and distributed to every dwelling-house in the city parish, notices describing the arrangements which may be made in pursuance of these orders for the public safety.

17. And we do hereby order, that in case any dwelling-house shall appear to the district medical superintendent to be dangerously overcrowded, he shall certify in writing to the inspector of the poor the number of persons that may be safely lodged in any living or sleeping-room, and the inspector of the poor shall take orders for the removal of all persons beyond such numbers.

18. And we hereby direct the police to aid, if necessary, the inspector of the poor in the execution of this order.

19. And we further order that the inspector of the poor shall provide suitable accommodation for persons, not in the receipt of wages, or who from bodily infirmity or other causes are destitute, whom it may be necessary to remove.

20. And we do hereby order, that on the occurrence of any death from cholera or other epidemic disease, in any room occupied as a living or sleeping-room, the district medical superintendent, or other medical practitioner who may have been in attendance on the deceased, shall notify the fact in writing to the inspector of the poor, who shall remove the body to some place where it may be kept until at an appointed time made known to the relatives, and in a suitable manner, with the due performance of religious rites, it be interred

21. And we further direct the police to assist, if necessary, the inspector of the poor in the execution of this order.

22. And we do hereby order that the Parochial Board of the city parish, provide such service of bearers, and other assistance, as the inspector of the poor may require in removing the dead body from the dwelling of the living and conveying it to the place provided for its reception, until the time of interment.

23. And whereas by the said Act it is provided that whosoever shall wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority, or employed in the execution of the same, or shall wilfully violate any direction or regulation issued by the General Board of Health, shall be liable, for every such offence, to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, recoverable by summary process before the sheriff or two justices of the peace at the instance of the procurator fiscal, or any other person; all procurators fiscal or other persons who may be concerned, are hereby required to institute such proceedings according to law, as may be necessary for the enforcement of these regulations.

Whereas by date the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, We, the General Board of Health, issued an order "To the Parochial Board for the Management of the Poor in the Barony Parish Glasgow," and in such order we directed that a staff of district medical officers and visitors should be employed in consequence of the prevalence of cholera in the said parish. And whereas we have been informed that the disease has, in a great measure, abated throughout the parish, and that the same extent of service is no longer necessary: We, the General Board of Health, do hereby authorize that in the second and fifth districts of the said parish, all such services be henceforth discontinued; and that in the first, third, fourth, and sixth districts, the Staff be immediately reduced to one assistant for each district, and that at the end of one week from this date such remaining assistant shall likewise be discontinued: Provided always, that in case of a fresh outbreak of the disease the Staff shall be restored to its former number.
