

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of March 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, parts and places, liberties and franchises therein contained, or thereunto adjoining) into districts, and to order that the County Court shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Courts shall be holden in each district.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the 9th day of March 1847, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly;

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be advantageous to the public if certain alterations were made in some of the districts of the Courts specified or set forth in the aforesaid Order;

And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted that any Order in Council made for the purposes of the said Act shall be published in the London Gazette, and notice of the intention of Her Majesty to take into consideration the propriety of making any such Order, shall be published in the London Gazette one calendar month at least before any such Order shall be made;

Notice is hereby given, that after the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the publication of this notice in the London Gazette, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, will take into consideration the propriety of making the following Order for the purposes of the said Act—that is to say:

"The parishes of Dinas, Newport, and Llanychlwydog, now in the district of the County Court of Cardiganshire, holden at Cardigan, and the parishes of Burton, Rose-Market, and Llanstadwell, now in the district of the County Court of Pembrokeshire, holden at Pembroke, shall be in the district of the County Court of Pembrokeshire, holden at Haverfordwest.

"The parish of Mynyddyslwyn, now in the district of the County Court of Monmouthshire, holden at Newport, shall be in the district of the County Court of Monmouthshire, holden at Pontypool.

"The parishes of Badley, Battisford, Barking, Creeting All Saints, Creeting Saint Mary, Creeting Saint Olave, Earl Stonham, Great Bricett, Little Stonham, Mickfield, Stonham Aspall, and Ringshall; and the hamlets of Needham Market and Darmsden, now in the district of the County Court of Suffolk, holden at Ipswich, and the parishes of Bacton, Cotton, Finningham, Mendleshams, Westhorpe, and Wyverstone, now in the district of the County Court of Suffolk, holden at Eye, shall be in the district of the County Court of Suffolk, holden at Stowmarket.

"The parish of Augmering, now in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at Worthing, shall be in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at Arundel."

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of February 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the fifth and sixth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law of Copyright," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall not be lawful for any person not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any part of the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire, any printed book first composed, or written, or printed and published, in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions; and whereas, by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions abroad," books wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed, or written, or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad; and whereas, by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to the Protection in the Colonies of Works entitled to Copyright in the United Kingdom," it is enacted that, in case the legislature or proper legislative authorities in any British possession, shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same in the proper manner to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty, and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her Royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or in any other Acts, against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended so far as regards such colony; and whereas, an Act has been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Bermuda, No. 699, intituled "An Act to regulate the Importation of Books, and to protect the British Author," whereby provision is made for securing to British
