TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 1849.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 7, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday, 21st March next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented, are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on the Tuesday previous to the Levee on the 22d February and on the Mondays previous to the Levees on the 23th February and the 21st March, on each day before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levees but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 7, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 29th of March next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM.

The Ladies, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, on Monday the 26th of March, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which names shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

It is particularly requested, that in every case written cards only be delivered.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of March 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Order was made by Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, whereby Her Majesty was graciously pleased to order that the ports of Waterloo Bay and East London, in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope should be free ports and free warehousing ports for the importation, exportation, and warehousing of goods:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke the said Order:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered that the said Order of the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, shall be, and the same is hereby, revoked accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of March 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament made in the session of Parliament, holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council, to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the continent of Europe or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa or within the limits of the East India Company's Charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary:

And whereas Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in pursuance and exercise of the power so vested in Her, did, by a certain Order in Council made on the twenty-fourth day of April in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty seven, order that no goods should be imported into, and that no goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, should be exported from the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, the same not to include the district of Port Natal by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other British possession, except into or from the several ports of Cape Town, Simon's Town, and Port Elizabeth, or such other ports within the said colony as might be thereafter declared by Her Majesty in Council to be fit for such importation and exportation:

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty in Council that the port of East London, in the said colony is fit for such importation and exportation, it is hereby ordered that goods may be imported into and exported from the said last-mentioned port from or to other places than the United Kingdom, or some other British possession:

And whereas by the said Order made on the twenty-fourth of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, it is declared to be expedient to constitute and appoint certain ports in the said colony, to be free warehousing ports for all the goods which might be legally imported into the same; and it was, therefore, thereby ordered, that the ports of Cape Town, Simon's Town, and Port Elizabeth, and such other ports within the colony as might thereafter be declared by Her Majesty in Council to be fit for that purpose, should be free warehousing ports for the purposes of that Order; and whereas, it appears to Her Majesty in Council, that the said port of East London is fit for the said last-mentioned purposes.

It is hereby further ordered, that the said last-mentioned port, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Order, and that all regulations made by the said Order for the appointing proper warehouses at the ports mentioned in the said Order, and for the lodging and securing of goods therein, shall extend to the appointing proper warehouses in the said port of East London, and to the lodging and securing goods in such warehouses.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the governor or the officer for the time being, administering the government of the said colony, shall promulgate this present Order within one calendar month next, after the receipt thereof by him; and this Order shall take effect, from, and after the date of such promulgation thereof, as aforesaid, and not before.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of March, 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eight years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of County Coroner," it is enacted, that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts, for the purposes of that Act, it shall be lawful for the said justices in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty praying that such division be made, and that such petition, with the reasons upon which it is founded, and a description of the proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, shall be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition shall be agreed to. And it is further enacted by the said Act that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and any petition which may be presented to Her Majesty by any coroner of the county from which the petition proceeds, concerning the proposed division, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of the said Act as to Her Majesty with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the court for the election of coroner shall be holden, and that every such order shall be published in the London Gazette.

And whereas a petition of the justices of the peace of the county of Northampton, in quarter session assembled, on the eighteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, has been presented to Her Majesty, representing that it would be expedient that the said county should be divided into three districts, in manner hereinafter provided; and the said petition, with the reasons upon which it is founded, and a description of the proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, has been certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of six of the justices, present when the said petition was agreed to.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the county of Northampton shall be divided into three districts for the purposes of the said Act, and that such districts shall be respectively called, the Eastern District, the Midland District, and the Western District; and that such districts respectively shall be constituted as follows, that is to say:

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Hugh-Henry Rose, Esq. a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, and Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Consul-General in Syria, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the Cross of the Prussian Order of St. John of Jerusalem, which His Majesty the King of Prussia hath been pleased to confer upon him, in approbation of the services rendered by that officer in the course of the Campaign in Syria, in the year 1841, and particularly for his distinguished conduct in the engagement which took place near Mejdal on the 15th day of January in that year: Provided, nevertheless, that this licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege, appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And also to command, that this Her Majesty's concession and especial mark of Her Royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in the College of Arms.

Whereas, by date the fifteenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, We, the General Board of Health, issued an Order "To the Parochial Board for the management of the poor in the Barony parish, Glasgow," and in such Order we directed, "that a sufficient number, both of houses of refuge and of hospitals, be opened forthwith, provided with the necessary means of affording relief, whether medical or otherwise, and also provided with the proper number of nurses for attending on the sick night and day;" and whereas an hospital was opened at Woodside, Glasgow, for the reception of cholera patients, and provided with medical and other attendants; and whereas we have been informed, that the disease has so far abated that the services of such attendants are no longer necessary. We, the General Board of Health, do hereby authorize that such service be henceforth discontinued; provided always, that the hospital, with all its furniture and fixtures be retained as at present; and that, in case of a fresh outbreak of the disease, the said hospital shall be immediately re-opened for the reception of all cases happening in the locality where it is situated.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 3d day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.
