Whereas, by date the fifteenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, We, the General Board of Health, issued an Order "To the Parochial Board for the management of the Poor in the City, Parish, Glasgow," and in such Order we directed that a staff of district medical officers and visitors should be employed in consequence of the prevalence of cholera in the said parish; and whereas, we have been informed, that the disease has in a great measure abated throughout the parish, and that the same extent of service is no longer necessary, We, the General Board of Health, do hereby authorize, that the visiting staff in the Clyde-street Hospital, in the said parish, be henceforth reduced to one visitor during the day, and one during the night; provided always, that in case of a fresh outbreak of the disease, the staff shall be restored to its former number.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 10th day of March, 1849.

(Signed) Edwin Chadwick.
