TO all to whom these presents shall come. We, the undersigned, the major part of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Chester, assembled at the court of general quarter sessions of the peace, holden at the Castle of Chester, in and for the same county, on Monday the 9th day of April, in the year of our Lord 1849, send greeting; Whereas by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to authorize the appointment of additional Coroners for the county palatine of Chester," it was amongst other things enacted, that from and immediately after the passing of the said Act, it should be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, from time to time, upon the application or representation of the Justices of the Peace for the said county of Chester, in quarter sessions assembled, or at any adjournment thereof, to issue, or cause to be issued, Her Majesty's writ De Coronatore Eligendo for the election of one or more additional head coroner or coroners for the said county of Chester, as in any such application or representation should be required. And it was by the said Act further enacted, that the Justices of the Peace for the said county, assembled at the quarter sessions to be holden in the month of October, in the then present year, or at some adjournment thereof, or at some special sessions to be appointed by them so assembled as aforesaid, should divide the said county (with the exception of that district or portion of the county which was commonly called or known by the name of Halton Fee) into three or more divisions, and should set out and determine the extent of limits of such divisions, and what parishes, townships, extra-parochial places, and other portions of the said county should be included therein respectively, and should fix and determine at what place within each division the court for the election of head coroner for such division should be holden, and should cause an instrument to be prepared under the hands and seals of the Justices so assembled as aforesaid, or the major part of them, describing the divisions into which the said county should be divided, and the name by which each such division was to be distinguished, and the parishes, townships, extra-parochial places, and other portions of the county intended to be included therein respectively, and the place at which the court for the election of the head coroner for such division was to be held, a copy of which instrument should be published in the London Gazette, and also in two or more newspapers published or usually circulated within the said county, and that the original thereof should be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to be by him safely kept amongst the public records of the said county; and that the said county should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such divisions as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid; and such divisions should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by the authority and in manner in the said Act mentioned.

And it was by the said Act further enacted, That if the Justices of the Peace for the said county assembled at the quarter sessions, or at any adjournment thereof, should at any time thereafter think it expedient that the divisions into which the said county might at that time happen to be divided, should be increased or augmented by the creation of an additional division or divisions, or be in any manner varied or altered, or that the places for the time being appointed for holding the courts for the election of head coroners for such divisions, or any of them, should be altered or changed, it should be lawful for such Justices so assembled as aforesaid, or at some special sessions to be appointed by them for that purpose, to increase the number of divisions into which the said county might for the time being be divided, and to set out and determine the extent and limits of such additional division or divisions, and the parishes, townships, extra-parochial places, and other portions of the said county, to be included therein respectively, and the place or places within such additional division or divisions at which the court for the election of head coroners for such division or divisions should be holden, and either with or without increasing the number of divisions, to alter and vary the divisions into which the county might for the time being be divided, and the parishes, townships, extra-parochial places, and other portions of the county to be included therein, and to vary or alter the places at which the courts for the election of head coroners for any such division or divisions should be holden; and whenever any such additional division or divisions should be made, or any such alteration as aforesaid should be made, the said Justices should cause an instrument to be prepared under the hands and seals of the Justices so assembled as aforesaid, or the major part of them, describing the additional division or divisions, and the name by which each was to be distinguished, and the parishes, townships, extra-parochial places, and other portions of the said county intended to be included therein, and the place at which the court for the election of the head coroner for such division was to be held, and the alteration which should be made in the existing divisions of the county, and the variation or alteration which should be made in the places at which the court for the election of head coroners should be held, and any other alteration which should from time to time be made, and that a copy of such instrument should be published in the London Gazette, and in two newspapers printed or usually circulated within the said county, and that the original thereof should be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to be by him safely kept, amongst the public records of the said county, and that the said county should, after such publication, be deemed to be divided into such divisions as should be so determined and set out as last aforesaid, or as the same should be so altered or varied, and that such divisions should continue and be in force until the same should be again varied or altered in the manner thereinbefore directed.

And whereas by an instrument now deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, and kept with the public records of the said county, under the hands and seals of the major part of the Justices of the Peace for the said county assembled at the quarter sessions, held at Nether Knutsford, in and for the said county, on Monday, the 19th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1840, a copy of which was published in the manner prescribed by the said recited Act, they, the said last-mentioned Justices, did, pursuant to the said recited Act, order, declare, and direct, that so much and such part or parts of the several parishes mentioned and set forth in the first schedule to the order or instrument now in recital annexed as comprised the several townships in the same schedule also set forth, and also the same several townships and the several extra-parochial places and other portions of the said county in the same schedule also mentioned and set forth, should form one division within, and for which a head coroner should be appointed, under the provisions of the said recited Act, which said division should thenceforth and for ever thereafter be called the Knutsford Division. And they, the said Justices, did, by the said order or instrument, now in recital, further order, declare, and direct, that the place of election of head coroner for such division should from time to time thereafter, in the event of any vacancy in the said office, be at Nether Knutsford, in the said county. And they, the same Justices, did, by the said order or instrument, now in recital, further order, declare, and direct, that so much and such parts of the several parishes mentioned and set forth in the second schedule to the said order or instrument now in recital annexed, as comprised the several townships in the same schedule also set forth, and also the same several townships and the several extra-parochial places and other portions of the said county in the same second schedule also mentioned and set forth, should form one other or second division, within and for which a head coroner should be appointed, under the provisions of the said recited Act, which said last-mentioned division should thenceforth and for ever thereafter be called the Chester Division. And they, the said Justices, did, by the said order or instrument now in recital, further order, declare, and direct, that the place of election of head coroner for such last-mentioned division should from time to time thereafter, in the event of any vacancy in such office, be at the Castle of Chester. And they, the same Justices, did, by the said order or instrument now in recital, further order, declare, and direct, that so much and such parts of the several parishes mentioned and set forth in the third schedule to the said order or instrument now in recital annexed, as comprised the several townships in the same third schedule also set forth, and also the same several last-mentioned townships and the several extra-parochial places and other portions of the said county in the third schedule also mentioned and set forth, should form one other or third division within and for which a head coroner should be appointed, under the provisions of the said recited Act, which said last-mentioned division should thenceforth and for ever thereafter be called the Stockport Division; and they, the said Justices, did, by the said order or instrument now in recital, further order, declare, and direct, that the place of election of head coroner for such last-mentioned division should be within that portion of the borough of Stockport which was situate within the county of Chester.

And whereas it hath been represented to Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace, holden at the Castle of Chester, in and for the said county of Chester, on Monday the 9th day of this instant April, that the townships or places of Antrobus, Aston by Budworth, Great Budworth, Cogshall, Comberbach, Crowley, Dutton, Little Leigh, and Seven Oaks, all within the parish of Great Budworth; the township or place of Lymm, within the parish of Lymm, the several townships or places of Aston Grange, Clifton, Hatton, Kekewick, Stockham, Sutton and Thelwall, all within the parish of Runcorn, comprised in the first schedule to the said order or instrument hereinbefore recited, forming part of the Knutsford division thereby constituted, are severally within or are reputed to be within the said district or portion of the county which is commonly called or known by the name of Halton Fee. And it having in like manner been represented to the said last-mentioned Justices so assembled as last aforesaid, that the several townships or places of Acton Grange, Moor, Norton, Runcorn and Walton Superior, all within the parish of Runcorn, in the said county, comprised in the second schedule to the hereinbefore recited instrument, and forming part of the Chester division thereby constituted, are severally also within or are reputed to be within the said district or portion of the said county commonly called or known by the name of Halton Fee. And whereas the said Justices so assembled having made due enquiry into the circumstances, are of opinion that the several townships or places hereinbefore mentioned are severally within the said district or portion of the county which is commonly called or known by the name of Halton Fee, and in consequence whereof it appeared to the said last-mentioned Justices expedient that the said two divisions respectively called the Knutsford Division and the Chester Division should be varied or altered by the exclusion from the said Knutsford division of the several townships or places first hereinbefore mentioned, and by the exclusion from the said Chester division of the several townships or places secondly hereinbefore mentioned, and that the same two divisions should henceforth consist of the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial places and other portions of the said county respectively mentioned and set forth in the two schedules annexed to these presents; but that in all other respects the said hereinbefore recited order or instrument should remain in full force and effect. Now we, the undersigned, being the major part of Her Majesty's said Justices of the Peace, assembled at the said general quarter sessions of the peace holden at the Castle of Chester, in and for the said county, this 9th day of April, in the year of our Lord 1849, do, by this instrument in writing, under our respective hands and seals, order, declare, and direct, that from henceforth the said several townships or places of Antrobus, Aston by Budworth, Great Budworth, Cogshall, Comberbach, Crowley, Dutton, Little Leigh and Seven Oaks, all within the parish of Great Budworth; the township or place of Lymm, in the parish of Lymm, and the said several townships or places of Aston Grange, Clifton, Hatton, Kekewick, Stockham, Sutton and Thelwall, all within the parish of Runcorn, shall be excluded from and shall not form part of the said Knutsford division. And that the said Knutsford division shall hereafter consist of so much and such part or parts of the several parishes mentioned and set forth in the first schedule to these presents annexed as comprise the several townships in the same schedule also set forth; and also of the same several townships and of the several extra-parochial places and other portions of the said county in the same schedule also mentioned and set forth. And we, the said Justices, do hereby further order, declare, and direct, that from henceforth the said several townships or places of Acton Grange, Moor, Norton, Runcorn, and Walton Superior, all within the said parish of Runcorn, shall be excluded from and shall not form part of the said Chester division, and that the said Chester division shall hereafter consist of so much and such part or parts of the several parishes mentioned and set forth in the second schedule to these presents annexed as comprise the several townships in the same second schedule also set forth, and also of the same several townships and of the several extra-parochial places and other portions of the said county, in the said second schedule also mentioned and set forth.

In witness whereof we, the said Justices, have hereunto set our hands and seals the day and year first before written.

MARINE BARRACK CANTEENS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, April 12, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Thursday, the 26th instant, at one o'clock, the Canteens in the undermentioned barracks will be let from the 14th of May next, to the 14th May 1852, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person but of unexceptionable character, nor any person for more than one Canteen, or who will not undertake bonâ fide to reside in or occupy the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved; and two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect of the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations of the indenture of lease. The revenue or other licenses to be paid by the tenant.

The person whose proposal shall be accepted, and his sureties, must execute an indenture of lease and covenants relating thereto, the particulars whereof may be known by applying to this Office, or to the Barrack Masters at the several barracks.

The Christian and Surnames of two respectable persons, with their professions and places of abode, who will join the tenant in executing the indenture of lease as his sureties, must be inserted in the proposals. The tenant is to pay half the value of the stamps on the indenture of lease upon executing the same, and it is to be understood that the said Commissioners will not undertake to procure the tenant a license.

A printed form of the tender and indenture of lease may be had at this office, or on application to the respective Barrack Masters. No tender will be received after one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words, "Tender for Marine Barrack Canteen," and must also be delivered at the Office of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, at Somerset-place.

By the Mutiny Act, Canteens are not liable to have troops billeted on them.

As all persons becoming tenants of Canteens will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the indenture of lease, and to the full payment of the rent and privilege of sale to the troops, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, they are hereby cautioned to make themselves fully acquainted with the conditions of letting, prior to their making a proposal.

The rents of the Canteens as tenements or dwellings are to be proposed at the sums stated opposite to each in the following list; therefore the biddings will be upon what is offered for every ten men per month, exclusive of sergeants occupying the barracks, the number being ascertained from the Barrack Master's returns, made up at twelve o'clock at noon on the first day of every month, and no changes in the occupation of the barrack which may take place in the progress of the month, either for or against the tenant, will be taken into account. No less number than ten will be charged against the tenant, nor will any odd number be calculated: thus, if the barrack should be occupied by 148 men on the first day of the month, only 140 will be calculated for that month. The bidders are also desired to introduce no fractional parts of a penny in their offers, as they will not be noticed, nor will any tenders be noticed except such as are strictly according to the form furnished.
