TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1849.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 3, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, 31st May next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM.

The Ladies, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on the Tuesday previous to the Drawing-Room on the 31st of May, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which names shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested, that in every case written cards only be delivered.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, May 25, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages proceeding to her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Thursday the 31st of May, are to fall into line and come down the left-hand side of St. James's-street, enter at the iron gate nearest the Palace, set down at the Arcade, turn round, and go out by the iron gate nearest Marlborough-house, to wait in St. James's-square. When called, they are to pass from the square through Charles-street, into Regent-street and Jernyn-street, come down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney carriages will be admitted within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Tuesday next, from eleven till three o'clock: their carriages are to pass through Constitution-hill-gate, into St. James's-park: those belonging to the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers are to set down at the Ambassadors'-entrance in Marlborough-court, at the east end of St. James's-palace, and wait there till called: those belonging to the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State are to set down in the Middle-court, and wait there: the carriages of all other persons having the entrée are likewise to set down in the Middle-court, and wait in Stable-yard, or St. James's-park, till called: they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket; to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than as above directed.

FORTESCUE, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of May 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, your Majesty's said Commissioners (with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Lord Bishop of London, signified under his hand and seal) made a representation to His Majesty King George the Fourth, in Council, stating (among
