

square; thence nearly in the same direction, on the west side of Sable-street to Sebbon-street; thence nearly in the same direction, in the centre of the road to the south end of the said street; thence east, by an imaginary line, to the north end of Halton-street; thence south-west, on the outer edge of the footpath, on the east side of the said street, to Cross-street, south-east crosses the Lower-road to the rear walls of houses, on the east side of the Elder-walk; thence nearly in the same direction to the south-west corner of South-place; thence crosses South-place to a watercourse, on the south side of South-street; thence by the line of the said watercourse to the New-road; thence north-west, on the south-west side of the outer edge of the footpath, in the New North-road, to the Lower-road; thence, nearly in the same direction, crosses the Lower-road, and on the outer edge of the footpath, on the south-west side of Portland-place, to the centre of the bridge, in the New North-road, on the south side of Canonbury-terrace, to the rear wall of house in the north angle of Marquis-terrace; thence west to the front of the said house, in the said terrace, as such district was more particularly delineated, and set forth on the map or plan annexed to the last-mentioned representation, and was thereon coloured green:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, your Majesty having taken the premises into your royal consideration, was graciously pleased, by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the proposed assignment of such last-mentioned district chapelry called Saint Stephen's District, and was also pleased to order that the same should be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that a description of the boundaries of the said district chapelry, called Saint Stephen's District, was enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery on the thirteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said district chapelry called Saint Stephen's District Chapelry, it appears to them to be expedient that the boundaries thereof should be altered under the provisions of the sixth section of the said Act, passed in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, and that the boundaries next hereinafter mentioned should be substituted for those comprised in the Order in Council, bearing date the thirty-first of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, and so enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery as aforesaid; and further, that the said district chapelry, called Saint Stephen's District, should henceforth be called or distinguished by the name of 'The Chapelry District of Saint Stephen, Islington.'

"The chapelry district of Saint Stephen, Islington, is bounded on the west and south and partly on the north by the parish of Saint Mary, Islington; partly on the north, and wholly on the east, by the district parish of Saint Paul, Ball's Pond, as the boundary thereof is hereinafter more particularly described; thus:—commencing at the east end of Cross-street, in the Lower-road; thence in a northerly direction through Halton-street, and along the same to the north end thereof; thence westward through the middle of Allan-street, to a point, given by the line of Sebbon-street and Sable-street; thence in an imaginary line to the south end of Sebbon-street, crossing Spencer-street, in an oblique direction; thence to the north through Sable-street, in the middle thereof to the north end of the same; thence, nearly in the same direction, in an imaginary line through the gardens to the south-west corner of Canonbury-square, and between the houses No. 1, Canonbury-square, and No. 1, Canonbury-lane; thence eastward on the south side of the square, on the line of the footpath crossing the New North-road, through the same to the south-east angle thereof; thence to the north on the eastern side of the square to the north-east angle thereof; thence easterly to the corner of Canonbury-terrace; thence southerly in Canonbury-terrace, to a point opposite the middle of Canonbury-place; thence eastward in Canonbury-place, in the middle thereof, passing through the house on the eastern side in the said place in the south-east angle thereof to the rear of the same; thence southward in an imaginary line across the New River to the north end of Northampton-street; thence in about the same direction through the middle of that street to the south end thereof; thence in a south-west direction along the middle of the Lower-road to the corner of Scott's-place, in the New North-road; thence in a south-easterly direction along the middle of King-street and the New North-road to the south-east end of South-street to the watercourse passing under the new North-road; thence in a westerly direction by the line of watercourse on the south side of South-street to the west end thereof in Popham-terrace; thence southerly, in Popham-terrace, to the corner of the rear walls of the houses in Elder-walk; thence westerly by an imaginary line to the east end of Cross-street, as first named, and which said chapelry district of Saint Stephen, Islington, is more particularly delineated on the said map hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured yellow:

"That the consents of the said Charles James Lord Bishop of London (as the Bishop of the diocese), and of the said Daniel Wilson, as the patron and incumbent of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Mary, Islington, within which parish the said chapelry district of Saint Stephen, Islington, is situate, have been severally obtained to the before-mentioned alteration of the boundaries of such last-mentioned district, as required by the sixth section of the said Act of Parliament passed in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign; in testimony whereof the said Charles James Lord Bishop of London, and Daniel Wilson have respectively signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the boundaries of the said district parish, district and chapelry district, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to direct that this Order be enrolled, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, and forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst.