AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of May 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law of copyright," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any part of the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire any printed book first composed or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the "British possessions abroad," books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed or written or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to "the protection in the colonies of works entitled "to copyright in the United Kingdom," it is enacted, that in case the legislature or proper legislative authorities in any British possession shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same in the proper manner to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty; and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring, that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or in any other Acts against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony:

And whereas an Act has been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the Bahamas, No. 1208, intituled "An Act for protecting "in the Bahamas the Rights of British Authors," whereby provision is made for securing to British authors a certain remuneration in respect of unauthorized copies of works, under copyright, imported into the Bahamas:

And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the same:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the same, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the said Act of the Legislature of the Bahamas shall remain and continue in force within the said Bahamas, all prohibitions in either of the said hereinbefore recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament, or in any other Acts thereof contained, against the importing into the said Bahamas, or against the selling, letting out to hire, or possessing therein foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards foreign reprints imported into the said Bahamas:

Whitehall, June 2, 1849.

The following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart. one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen; which Address, Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

1832

Unto the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland convened in this General Assembly, have received with the deepest gratitude the gracious letter, renewing the assurance of your Majesty's protection to this national church and regard for all its rights and privileges.

We earnestly trust that, under the blessing of Almighty God, the proceedings on which we are about to enter shall be so conducted as in no respect to forfeit the confidence which your Majesty has been pleased to repose in our loyalty and attachment, and it is our fervent prayer that in all our consultations we may be so directed by the wisdom which cometh from above, as to be instrumental in the advancement of true religion, the welfare and efficiency of the Church of Scotland, and the best interests of its members.

The renewed appointment of Lord Belhaven, as your Majesty's High Commissioner and Representative in this Assembly, is regarded by us as an additional proof of your Majesty's favour, as in former years we have had the most gratifying experience of his courtesy, prudence, and fidelity, his affection for the church of which he is a member, and his other peculiar qualifications for the efficient and acceptable discharge of the important duties entrusted to him.

Your Majesty's royal warrant for two thousand pounds to be applied to the reformation of the Highlands of Scotland has been most gratefully received, and it shall be our study to devote this liberal gift to the important object for which it has been conferred.

That the Supreme Governor among the nations, the God and Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, may, in His abundant mercy, bestow on your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and all the Royal Family, every temporal and spiritual blessing, defending you from the pestilence that walketh in darkness, and the arrow that flieth by day, enriching your soul with the grace of His Spirit, rendering you the minister of God for good to this land and to the other nations of the earth, and providing for you in a better country, which is an heavenly, an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, obedient, and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders, convened in the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

A. L. Simpson, Moderator.
