TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1849.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 30, 1849.

THE Remains of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Sophia were this day removed from the Catacomb under the Chapel in which they were placed after the Funeral, and deposited in the Vault prepared for their reception in the General Cemetery, Kensal Green.

The Lord Chamberlain and the Vice-Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household were present, and also Baron Knesebeck and Sir William Martins.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 29th day of June 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Sir David Dundas, Knt. was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 29th day of June 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provisions for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of 'populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Melton Ross cum Scamblesby, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne) all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us) and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments and endowments (excepting any right of patronage) formerly belonging to the said prebend of Melton Ross cum Scamblesby, became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, except as aforesaid, heretofore belonging to the said prebend, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Rother-

ham, in the west riding of the county of York, and within the diocese of York, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Greaseborough, in the said parish of Rotherham, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners, by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should comprise certain portions of the township or chapelry of Greaseborough, and should be called 'The Chapelry District of Greaseborough,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned:

"The chapelry district of Greaseborough is bounded on the east, and partly on the north, by the parish of Rawmarsh, on other part of the north, and on the north-west, by the chapelry of Wentworth, in the parish of Wath-upon-Deerne; on the west, and partly on the south, by the township of Kimberworth, and on the remaining part of the south by the township of Rotherham, both in the parish of Rotherham, as such proposed district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Mary at Greaseborough, and that baptisms, churchings, and burials should be performed or continue to be performed in such church. That the fees to arise from such publication of banns or solemnization of marriages should be reserved for or paid over to the Reverend Richard Mosley, the present vicar or incumbent of the parish church of Rotherham, during his incumbency thereof, and upon his avoidance of such incumbency that the said fees should belong to the incumbent for the time being of the said church of Saint Mary, at Greaseborough. That the fees to arise from baptisms, churchings, and burials should be paid and belong to such last mentioned incumbent and his successors:

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas Lord Archbishop of York, as the Archbishop of the diocese, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said Thomas Lord Archbishop of York has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, church-

ings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Polesworth, in the county of Warwick, and within the diocese of Worcester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church called Trinity Church, situate at Warton, in the said parish of Polesworth, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under and by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners, by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be called 'The Chapelry District of Warton,' with boundaries as hereinbefore mentioned:

"The chapelry district of Warton is bounded on the east-north-east by the parish of Austrey, on the east-south-east by the parish of Orton-on-the-Hill, on the south by the parish of Grendon, on the south-west and west by the road leading from Grendon to Shuttington, and on the north-west and north by the Lordship of Bramcote, in the said parish of Polesworth, as such proposed chapelry district of Warton is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured red:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized and performed in the said church called Trinity Church, at Warton aforesaid; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent of such church for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester (as the Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made ; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 29th day of June 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following ; that is to say :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, and within the diocese of Manchester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church called Trinity Church, situate in the town and parish of Blackburn aforesaid, under or by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be called 'Trinity Chapelry District, Blackburn,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned :

"The Trinity Chapelry District, Blackburn, will consist of so much of the township of Blackburn as is comprized within a line beginning at the bridge on the Blackburn and Accrington-road where it crosses the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, proceeding along the north bank of the said canal, in a westerly direction, to Audley Higher Barn Bridge, over the same canal ; thence north-westerly, up the middle of Audley Higher Barn Lane, to Salford ; thence easterly, along the middle of Salford, to Syke-street ; thence north-westerly, up the middle of Syke-street, to Penny-street ; thence north-easterly, up the middle of Penny-street and Larkhill, to Birley-street ; and thence south-easterly, down the middle of Birley-street, to the north-west corner of Whalley Coppies ; thence continuing southerly, along the westerly side of the said coppies, to Abbot-street, otherwise Bancroft-street ; and thence south-westerly, along Abbot-street, to the Blackburn and Accrington turnpike-road, and along the middle of the said road, south-easterly, to the bridge where it crosses the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, as such proposed district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church, called Trinity Church, and that one moiety of the fees to arise therefrom should, according to ancient parochial usage, be received and paid by the incumbent of such church to the Vicar of Blackburn for the time being, and that the other moiety of such fees should be received by, and belong to, the incumbent of the said church, called Trinity Church, for the time being :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince Lord Bishop of Manchester (as the Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said James Prince Lord Bishop of Manchester has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your consideration, and make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made ; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

Wm. L. Bathurst,

Buckingham Palace, June 29, 1849.

This day had audience of Her Majesty:

His Excellency Mehemed Pacha, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Sublime Ottoman Porte, to deliver a letter from the Sultan:

CONTRACT FOR BRUSHES, BROOMS, AND PENCILS.

Department of the Storekeeper-
General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, June 21, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 17th July next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering at Her Majesty's several Dockyards

Brushes of various sorts, Hair Brooms, and Camels' Hair and other Pencils.

Patterns of the articles and a form of the tender
may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Brushes, &c." and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

SALE OF HER MAJESTY'S SHIPS.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
June 29, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 17th July next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-place, Her Majesty's ships and vessels undermentioned, and which are lying at the Dockyards against the same expressed:

Deptford.

Adder, 241 tons—100 horse power.
Doteril, 237 tons—100 horse power.
Zephyr, 237 tons—100 horse power.

Mastiff, 184 tons.
Charon, 125 tons—60 horse power.
Ariel, 149 tons—70 horse power.

Portsmouth.

Sprightly, 234 tons—100 horse power.

Persons wishing to view the ships must apply to the Superintendents of the Yards for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yards.

No. 22, Surrey-Street, Strand,
July 2, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given to the officers and part of the crew of Her Majesty's ship Alfred, who were employed in the salvage of the brig John Dalton, F. A. Ellis, Esq. Lieutenant Commanding the party, that, on the 18th instant, they will be paid, as above, their proportions for the same, and the shares will be re-called every Wednesday and Thursday for three months after that date, agreeably to Act of Parliament.

Vice-Chancellor Knight Bruce.—Thursday the 21st day of June in the 13th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1849, between Fielder King, Plaintiff, Augustus Ligonier Mieningen, Defendant.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Southgate, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this cause against the defendant and took out process of subpoena against him, on the 19th day of December 1848, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill, that it appears by the affidavit of William King, that the said defendant has been within the jurisdiction of the Court, at some time not more than two years before the subpoena issued, and that it appears by the said affidavit and by the affidavits of Frederick Woolbert and George Mackenzie Mackay, that upon enquiry at his usual place of abode, that the defendant could not be found so as to be served with process, and that there is just ground to believe that the said defendant has gone out of the realm or otherwise absconded to avoid being served with process. It is thereupon ordered that the defendant do appear to the plaintiff's bill, on or before the 31st day of July next; and it is ordered that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this order, together with the notice, pursuant to the general order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette of Tuesday the 3rd day of July next, and in two newspapers published in London, on or before the said 3rd day of July next.

J. COLLIS, Registrar.

Notice.—Augustus Ligonier Mieningen, take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own showing.
