TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1849.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 30, 1849.

THE Remains of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Sophia were this day removed from the Catacomb under the Chapel in which they were placed after the Funeral, and deposited in the Vault prepared for their reception in the General Cemetery, Kensal Green.

The Lord Chamberlain and the Vice-Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household were present, and also Baron Knesebeck and Sir William Martins.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 29th day of June 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Sir David Dundas, Knt. was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 29th day of June 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provisions for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of 'populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Melton Ross cum Scamblesby, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne) all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us) and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments and endowments (excepting any right of patronage) formerly belonging to the said prebend of Melton Ross cum Scamblesby, became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, except as aforesaid, heretofore belonging to the said prebend, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.
