Genova, Decemb. 3.

THE Prince de Monaco arrived here on Wednesday last; He is lodged in the Convent of the Carmelites, where he has been Complimented on the part of the Republick. The 6th Instant parted from hence one of this States Gallies for Marseilles, to bring from thence the Marquis de Martini, late Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick at the Court of France. The Governour of Milan is expected here against the Carnaval. We have an account from Rome, that the Pope has granted the Tenths of the Ecclesiastical Revenues in Spain for the War against the Turks.

Naples, Decemb. 5. The 2d Instant arrived in this Port the Spanish Gallies, 21 in number, which are to winter here. The Resident of Venice has demanded of our Viceroy, that in pursuance of the Leave obtained by the Venetian Ambassador at Madrid, he may make in this Kingdom a Levy of 2000 Men for the Service of that Republick, but the Orders from the Court of Spain not being positive in this matter, his Excellency has not yet given any Answer therein. His Excellency has received directions from Madrid, to remit 50000 Crowns to the Governour of Milan. The Fort built in the Province of Abruzzo, to stop the Incurfions of the Banditti, is quite finished, and 200 Spaniards are put into it.

Venice, Decemb. 22. The Senate have, we are told, made an agreement with the Princes of Lunenburg for 4000 Foot, which are to march to Trieſte, to embark there. Part of the Troops, for which they have treated with the Governour of Milan, arrived in the beginning of this week at the Lido, and the rest are expected in few days. Count Coningmarke who is to command the Forces of this State, under the Captain General, is expected here the next Month, by which time he hopes, as he has written hither, the Levy he is making for the service of the Republick will be compleated. The Count de Lodron, General of the Croats, is now here, with several other Officers who came with him to serve the Republick. Signior Cornaro is preparing for his departure for Dalmatia, being to succeed Signior Pietro Valier as Provveditor General of that Province; The last Letters we had from thence, informed us, that the Turks had had a design upon Cattaro, but had not succeeded in it. We have advice from the Morea, that Ismael Bassa had of late appeared several times with strong Parties of Horse in the Neighborhood of Coron, but that the Garrison of that place had as often sallied out upon them, and obliged them to retire. And that the Bacha of Romania having sent an Aga to endeavor to regain the Mainotes, who have put themselves under the Protection of the Republick, by promising them an Exemption for five years from all manner of Contributions, they had given him a very ill Reception, having cut off his Ears, Nose and Lips, to shew how little they thought of returning under the Obedience of the Grand Signior. The Duke of Mantua is gone home, but it's believed will be here again against the Carnaval. The Count de St. Paul is going to quit the Command he has in the Service of the Republick, the ill state of his health making him desirous to retire from Publick Employment.

Warsaw, Decemb. 15. The Forces of this Crown are gone into their Winter-quarters, having suffered very much for the short time they were in the Field through the want of Provisions, as well as through the continual Skirmishes they had with the Enemy for 22 days together. The Officers have Orders to recruit their respective Companies; And we are told that several new Regiments will be raised. The Tartars make frequent Incursions into the Province of Volhinia. The Seraskier Solyman has put his Troops into Winter-quarters in Valachia.

Vienna, Decemb. 23. Frequent Councils are held here, at which the Emperour is for the most part present, to regulate the Operations of the approaching Campaign, which will be begun much earlier than the last, by the help of the great Magazines that are providing at Comorra, and other places, for the subsistence of the Troops. The Expresses that were sent to Poland and Kenice with the Proposals of Peace made by the Turkish Aga at Comorra, being come back with the Resolutions of that King and the Republick thereupon, the said Aga will now be dispatched with an Answer in the Name of all the Allies. They write from Zolnocke, that the Baron de Mercy having received advice that the Turks of Gyula had fallen upon an Imperial Convoy that was going to Sarava, he immediately sent out a strong Detachment under the Command of Colonel Heuffer, who coming up with the Enemy, had a very sharp Dispute with them, in which, its said, 2000 of the Enemy were slain, and that the rest retired in great disorder towards Gyula, being pursued by the Imperialists, but this account, though it comes from several hands, still needs a Confirmation. The Advices concerning Teckesley are very different, but the best account we have, is, that he is still at Belgrade, kept there under a Guard, but with more favour and liberty than he was at first, and that he may hope to be yet better treated, if the Proposals the Turks have made for a Peace be rejected by the Emperour. The Prince of Transylvania offers to furnish Provisions and Forage for the subsistence of the Garrisons of Zolnocke, Sarava, St. Nicholas, and some other places on that side, upon condition his Countrey may be eased of the Imperial Troops that have taken their Winter-quarters there under the Command of General Cassaffa. Cardinal Bonvisi, the Pope's

Nun-

Nuncio, has acquainted the Emperor, that his Holiness has given Orders for the remitting hither 40000 Florins to be employed in the Preparations for the next Campaign.

Ratisbonne, Decemb. 26. The Count de Windgratz is returned hither from Vienna. The States of Suabia are now assembled at Nuremberg, to resolve about the recruiting their Troops at present in the Service of the Emperor.

Cologne, Dec. 29. Our present Burghers have sent Deputies to Bonne, to make their Compliment to his Electoral Highness upon their being restored to the Magistracy, who have been very well receiv'd at that Court. The Imperial Sub-Commissioners are expected here again the next Week, to finish the settlement of the Affairs of this City. The last Letters from Vienna gave an account, that a Project of Conditions hath been drawn up, to be delivered to the Turkish Aga at Comorra, in the Name of the Emperor, the King of Poland, and the Republick of Venice, upon which they are willing to begin a Treaty of Peace, and to agree to some convenient place to meet in for that purpose. The Letters from Hungary give an account of a sharp Encounter between the Turks and Imperialists, not far from Saravus, in which the former are said to have lost two thousand Men. They write from Caschau, that General Caprara having sent again to summon the Princes Ragotzi to surrender the Castle of Montgat, the Hungarians in Garrison there had fired upon the Imperialists that were charged with the Message.

Hamburg, Decemb. 28. The Letters from Copenhagen of the 23th Instant tell us, that the Count de Nollitz, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor, had passed through that City in his Journey to Sweden. Add that Deputies were arrived there from the West-India Company of Brandenburg, who had been in Conference with the Ministers at that Court, upon some Agreement that is proposed to be made between the said Company and that of Denmark. They write from Berlin, That the Elector of Brandenburg hath written to the Emperor on the behalf of this City, that their Deputies at Vienna may be admitted to an Audience of his Imperial Majesty, which they have not hitherto been able to obtain. The Sieur Kaunitz, who we told you in our last was returned hither, has since had a Conference with some of our Magistrates, to remove the difficulties which hinder the composition of the differences between the Duke of Zell and this City, but we cannot say with what success. The Letters from Poland do not speak of any thing but the Preparations that are making for the next Campaign, which, they say, are carried on with all the diligence and application imaginable.

Hague, Jan. 4. The States General have, we are told, given the necessary Orders for the making the first Payment of the Arrears of Subsidies, being 140000 Guilders, to the Heer Van Stille, the Brandenburg Minister, who is thereupon gone to Amsterdam to get Bills of Exchange for the remitting this Money to Berlin or Hamburg. The Heer Guldenstolpe, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sweden, was yesterday again in Conference with the Deputies of this State, on the Subject of the Alliance that's going to be renewed with that Crown. Lieutenant General Spaen continues still here. Prince Waldecke is expected here this Month from Germany; it has been reported that he would quit his Command in the Service of this State, but there does not appear to be any ground for it. The States General have given an Answer to the Memorial presented to them by the Sieur Kumecken, demanding the payment of the Arrears of Subsidies due to the Duke of Hanover from this State, but we do not hear what it is. The Letters from Stockholm tell us, that the King of Sweden has given the Marschal Comingsmarke leave to command the Forces of the Republick of Venice the next Campaign, and to raise two Regiments for the Service of that State.

Whitehall, Jan. 3. His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Edmund Nicholson Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Nottingham for the Year ensuing.

His Majesty being informed of the great Detriment and Damage which the Loyal Indigent Officers have lately sustained by the Liberty which divers Persons have taken to Erect and Exercise several new invented Games, Lotteries, and Games resembling Lotteries in and about the City of London, and divers other Places, pretending to vend and put off certain Wares and Commodities thereby, with other false Pretences and Disguises, in Contempt of His Majesties Letters Patents granted to the said Officers, expressly prohibiting the same, and thereby rendering the Lotteries altogether insignificant and useless, is pleased to signify His Will and Pleasure, That all Magistrates and Others whom it may concern, do take effectual Care to suppress and punish according to Law, and the tenor of His Majesties said Letters Patents, all such Persons as shall so presume to Erect, Use, or Exercise any such Lotteries or Games resembling them, without the Licence of the Patentees and Commissioners for the Lotteries first had and obtained. Given at the Court at Whitehall the 2d day of January, 1685.
