Genoua, Decemb. 8.

HE Prince de Monaco arrived here on Weinelday lait; He is lodged in the Convect of the Carmelites, where he has been Complimented on the part of the Republick. The 6th Inftant parted from hence one of this States Gallies for Marfeides, to bring from thence the Marquis de Marini, late Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick at the Court of France. The Governor of Milan is expected here against the Carnaval, We have an account from Rome, that the Pope has granted the Tenths of the Ecclefiaftical Revenues in Spain for the War against the Turks. Naples, Decemb. 5. The 2d inftant arrived in Naples, Decemb. 5. The 2d inftant arrived in this Port the Spanifb Gallies, 21 in number, which are to winter here. The Refident of Venice has demanded of our Viceroy, that in purfuance of the Leave obtained by the Venetian Ambaffador at Madrid, he may make in this Kingdom a Levy of 2000 Men for the Service of that Republick, but the Orders from the Court of Spain not being politive in this matter, his Excellency has not yet given any Aufwer therein. His Excellency has received directions from Madrid, to remit 50000 Crowns to the Governor of Milan. The Fort built in the Province of Abruzzo, to ftop the Incurfio s of the Banditi, is quite finithed, and 200 Spaniards are put into it.

Spaniards are put into it. Venice, Decemb. 22. The Senate have, we are told, made an agreement with the Princes of Lunenburgh for 4000 Foot, which are to march to Triefle, to embark there. Part of the Troops, for which they have treated with the Governor of Milan, arrived in the beginning of this week at the Lido, and the reft are expected in few days. Count Coningfinarke who is to command the For-ces of this State, under the Captain General, is expected here the next Month, by which time he hop s, as he has written hither, the Levy he is making for the fervice of the Republick will be compleated., The Count de Lodron, General of the Croats, is now here, with feveral other Officers who came with him to ferve the Republick. Signior Cornaro is preparing for his departure for Dalmatia, being to fucceed Signior Pietro Valier as Provedicor General of that Province; The laft Letters we had from thence, informed us, that the Turks had had a defign upon Cattaro, but had not fucceeded in it. We have advice from the Morea, that Ifmael Baffa had of late appeared feveral pimes with firong Parties of Horie in the Neighborhood of Coron, but that the Garifon of that place had as often fallied out upon them, and obliged them to retire. And that the Bacha of Romania having fent an Aga to endeavor to regain the Mainotes, who have put hemfelves under the Protection of the Republick, by promifing them an Exemption for Five years from all manner of Contributions, they had given him a very ill Reception, shaving cut off his Ears, Nofe and Lips, to thew how littly they thought of returning under the Obedience 3af the Grand Signior. The Duke of Manfua is gone home, but it's believed will be here again againft the Carnaval. The Count de St. Paul it going to quit the Command he has in the Service of the Republick, the ill flate of his health making him defirous to retire from Publick Employment.

Warfaw, Decemb. 15. The Forces of this Crown are gone into their Winter-quarters; having full fered very much for the fhort time they mere at the Field through the want of Provisions, as well as through the condinual Skirmidnes they had with the Enemy for 12 days together. The Officers have Orders to recruit their refrective Compannics; And we are told that leveral new Regiments will be railed. The Tartars make frequent Incurfions into the Province of Volbinial The Seralquier Solyman has put his Troops into Winterquarters in Valachia.

Fienna, Decemb. 23. Frequent Councils are held here, at which the Emperor is for the moft part present, to regulate the Operations of the approaching Campagne, which will be begun much, carlier than the lait, by the h-lp of the great Magazines that are providing at Compare, and other places, for the sublishence of the Troops. Ine Ex-1 preffes that were fent to Poland and Kenice with the Propofals of Peace made by the Jurkifh Aga at Comorra, being come back with the Refolutions of that King and the Republick thereupon, the faid Aga will now be dispatched with an Answer in the Name of all the Allies. They write from Zolzockey that the Baron de Mercy having received advice that the Turks of Gyula had fallen upon an Imen nerial Convoy that was going to Sarauss, he im-mediately fent out a flrong Detachement under the Command of Colonel Heusler, who coming up with the Enemy, had a very fharp Dispute with them, in which, its faid, 2000 of the Enemywere flain, and that the reft retired in great diforder towards Gyula, being purfued by the Imperialifts, but this account, though it comes from feveral hands, full needs a Confirmation. The Advices concerning Teckeley are very different, but the best account we have, is, that he is fiill at Belgrade, kept there under a Guard, but with more favour and liberty than he was at first, and that he may hope to be yet better treated, if the Proposals the Turks have made for a Peace be rejected by the Emperor. The Prince of Transitvania offers to furnish Provisions and Forage for the fublifience of the Garifons of Zolnocke, Saravas, St. Nicholas, and fome other places on that fide, upon condition his Countrey may be cafed of the Imperial Troops that have taken their Winter-quarters there under the Command * of General Caraffa.
