FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1849.

Whitehall, August 1, 1849.

THIS afternoon, at three o'clock, Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, embarked, at Osborne, on board Her Majesty's yacht the "Victoria and Albert," and immediately proceeded on Her voyage to Cork.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Wednesday, August 1, 1849.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE have it in command from Her Majesty to inform you, that the state of public business enables Her to dispense with your attendance in Parliament, and to close the present session.

Her Majesty has directed us to express Her satisfaction with the zeal and assiduity with which you have discharged the laborious and anxious duties, in the performance of which you have been occupied.

Her Majesty has given Her assent to the important measure you have passed to amend the navigation laws, in full confidence that the enterprise, skill, and hardihood of Her people will assure to them a full share of the commerce of the world, and maintain upon the seas the ancient renown of this nation.

Her Majesty has commanded us to acquaint you, that the friendly character of Her relations with foreign powers affords Her a just confidence in the continuance of peace.

The preliminaries of peace between Prussia and Denmark have been signed, under the mediation of Her Majesty, and Her Majesty trusts that this convention may prove the forerunner of a definitive and permanent treaty.

Her Majesty's efforts will continue to be directed to promote the restoration of peace in those parts of Europe in which it has been interrupted.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to return you Her thanks for the provision which you have made for the public service.

The public expenditure has undergone considerable reductions within the present year, and Her Majesty will continue to apply a watchful economy in every branch of the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to congratulate you on the happy termination of the war in the Punjaub. The exertions made by the Government of India, and the valour displayed by the army in the field, demand Her Majesty's warmest acknowledgments.

Her Majesty has observed with gratification the spirit of obedience to the laws which has been manifested by her subjects during the period which has elapsed since Her Majesty last addressed Her Parliament.

It is the characteristic of our constitution that it renders the maintenance of order compatible with the fullest enjoyment of political and civil liberty.

The satisfaction with which Her Majesty has viewed the peaceful progress of Her people in arts and industry has been greatly alloyed by the continuance of severe distress in one part of the United Kingdom.

Her Majesty has observed with pleasure your liberal exertions to mitigate the pressure of this calamity; and Her Majesty commands us to thank you for your unremitting attention to measures calculated to improve the general condition of Ireland. It is Her Majesty's fervent hope that it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events to favour the operation of those laws which have been sanctioned by Parliament, and to grant to Her Irish people, as the reward of that patience and resignation with which they have borne their protracted sufferings, the blessings of an abundant harvest, and of internal peace.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday the ninth day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the ninth day of October next.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the second of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; viz.:

"Whereas your Majesty was graciously pleased, by your Royal Proclamations of the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, to regulate, according to the scheme set forth therein or recognized thereby, the distribution of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, of captures and seizures under the several Acts of Parliament passed relating to the revenues of customs and to trade and navigation, for the abolition of the slave trade, for the capture and destruction of piratical vessels and of the rewards conferred for the same, as also of the awards for all salvage granted to the crews of your Majesty's ships and vessels of war when not otherwise specially apportioned by the terms of the respective awards and allowances. And whereas in consequence of several new ratings and denominations of officers, and others having been introduced into your Majesty's naval service since the dates of your Majesty's said former Proclamations, and for other causes, it is expedient that provision should be made for the future distribution of such net proceeds and salvage not otherwise specially apportioned, and all other moneys whatsoever granted to be shared in the manner of prize-money, We do therefore most humbly submit that your Majesty will be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, to annul the above-mentioned Proclamations from and after the thirty-first day of December next, and to direct that the Proclamation, transmitted herewith for your Majesty's approval, be substituted in lieu thereof."

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is hereby pleased to direct that the aforesaid Proclamations, of the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, be annulled from and after the thirty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and the same are hereby annulled accordingly, save and except as to any captures or seizures which may have been made before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and any captures or seizures which shall be made after the said thirty-first day of December, and which shall be condemned and adjudged in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Mixed Commission, before notice of this Order shall have been received by the Court of Vice Admiralty or of Mixed Commission in which such condemnation or adjudication shall pass; and further, that the proceeds of all such captures and seizures made before the said first day of January, or which shall be made after the said thirty-first day of December, and which shall be condemned or adjudged in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Mixed Commission, antecedent to the notice of Her Majesty's Royal Proclamation having been received in such Courts, together with all rewards aforesaid, shall continue to be distributed in the proportions and manner directed in and by Her Majesty's said Proclamations, dated the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council of this day's date, We were graciously pleased to annul, from and after the thirty-first day of December next, Our Royal Proclamations of the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, regulating, according to the scheme set forth therein, or recognised thereby, the distribution of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, of captures and seizures under the several Acts of Parliament passed relating to the revenues of customs and to trade and navigation, for the abolition of the slave trade, for the capture and destruction of piratical vessels and of the rewards conferred for the same, as also of the awards for all salvage granted to the crews of Our ships and vessels of war, when not otherwise specially apportioned by the terms of the respective awards and allowances. And in consequence of several new ratings and denominations of officers and others having been introduced into Our naval service since the dates of Our said former Proclamations, and for other causes, it is expedient that provision should be made for the future distribution of such net proceeds and salvage not otherwise specially apportioned, and all other moneys whatsoever granted to be shared in the manner of prize-money:

We do therefore now make known to all Our loving subjects, and to all others whom it may concern, by this Our proclamation, by and with the advice and consent of Our Privy Council, that Our royal will and pleasure is, and We do hereby direct that the distribution of all such net proceeds of prizes, rewards, allowances, salvage, awards, and of all bounties and grants whatsoever, distributable to Our royal navy in the manner of prize-money, shall be made as follows; videlicet:

That the flag officer or officers shall have one-sixteenth part of the whole net proceeds arising from prizes captured from the enemy and from all other captures, seizures, &c. as aforesaid made by any of the ships or vessels under his or their command, and of the rewards conferred for the same, according to the following conditions and modifications—save and except as hereinafter provided and directed;—that is to say: when there is but one flag officer, he shall have the entire one-sixteenth: when two flag officers shall be sharing together, the chief shall have two-thirds and the other flag officer shall have the remaining one-third of the one-sixteenth part: and when there shall be more than two flag officers, the chief shall receive one-half of the said one-sixteenth, and the remaining half shall be equally divided among the junior flag officers: Commodores of the first class and captains of the fleet to share as flag officers:—

- Provided always, that no flag officer, unless actually on board any of our ships or vessels of war, and at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any ship or ships of war, or privateers belonging to the enemy, shall share in the distribution of any head-money or bounty-money granted as a reward for the taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any such ship or vessel of the enemy :

That no flag officer, unless actually present at the capture or destruction of any pirate ship, vessel, or boat, shall be entitled to share in any distribution of the proceeds or bounty in respect of the crews of such piratical ship, vessel, or boat :

That no flag officer shall share in any remuneration or reward conferred or awarded to any of our ships or vessels as salvage, unless he shall have been actually on board the ship or vessel to which the award shall be made, or have personally aided and assisted in the transaction at the time the service was rendered.

That no flag officer commanding in any port in the United Kingdom shall share in the proceeds of any prizes captured from the enemy, nor in other captures, seizures, rewards, or any distributive proceeds as aforesaid, made by any ships or vessels which shall sail from, or leave such port, by order of the Lord High Admiral, or of Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral :

That when ships or vessels under the command of several flag officers belonging to separate stations shall be joint captors, &c. each flag officer shall receive a proportion of the one-sixteenth, according to the number of officers and men present under the command of each such flag officer : and when ships or vessels under orders from the Lord High Admiral, or from Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, are joint captors, &c. with other ships or vessels under a flag or flags, the like regulation as to the apportionment of the flag share to the flag officer or officers is to be observed.

And with reference to these regulations it is to be noted that a captain, commander, or other commanding officer, of a ship or vessel, shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag, when he shall actually have received some order from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by, a flag officer, whether he be or be not within the limits of the station of such flag officer ; and in the event of his being directed to join a flag officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag officer, from the time when he arrives within the limits of the station, which circumstance is always to be carefully noted in the log-book ; and it shall be considered that he continues under the flag officer of such station until he shall have received some order directly, from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by, some other flag officer, duly authorized, or by the Lord High Admiral, or Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral.

And we hereby direct that the captain, commander, lieutenant commanding, or master commanding, or any other officer commanding any ship, sloop, or vessel of war, singly making a capture, or seizure, or otherwise entitled to the distributive benefit arising from any proceeds, reward, grant, bounty, salvage, or award, as aforesaid ; that is to say, the officer actually in command at the time, shall have one-eighth of the remainder, or if there is no flag, one-eighth of the entire net proceeds ; and if more than one commanding officer of the same rank of command shall be entitled to share as joint captors, &c. the one-eighth shall be equally divided between them ; but when captains, commanders, lieutenants commanding, and masters commanding, respectively, our ships, sloops, and vessels of war, shall share together, in whatever variety of combination, the one-eighth shall be so divided into parts for a graduated apportionment as to provide for each captain receiving six parts, each commander of a sloop three parts, and each lieutenant commanding, or master commanding a vessel of war, two parts, which We hereby direct shall be the proportion in which they shall respectively share : commodores of the second class, and field officers of marines, or of land forces serving as marines, doing duty as field officers above the rank of major, to share as captains : and field officers of marines, or of land forces serving as marines, and doing duty in the rank of major, to share as commanders of sloops.

And We hereby further direct that, after provision shall thus have been made for the flag share (if any) and for the portion of the commanding officer or officers, the remainder of the net proceeds shall be distributed in ten classes, so that each officer, man, and boy, composing the rest of the complements of our ships, sloops, and vessels of war, and actually on board at the time of any such capture, seizure, &c. as aforesaid, and every person present and assisting, shall receive shares, or parts of shares, according to his class, as set forth in the following scale :

To the Guardians of the Poor of the East Stonehouse Union, Devon; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas the East Stonehouse Union, Devon, appears to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease;

Now We, the General Board of Health, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, do issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to the East Stonehouse Union :

1. We hereby authorize and require the Board of Guardians to appoint three additional medical men besides the parochial surgeon, so as to provide for a daily visitation of the several houses and dwellings throughout the bounds of the said Union, and to inquire into the condition and matters affecting the health of the inmates of such houses and dwellings respectively and their liability to contagious, epidemic, or endemic diseases, and especially as to the existence among them of bowel complaints.

2. We further authorize and require the said Board of Guardians to provide two dispensaries, depôts, or suitable places in suitable stations, with sufficient medical aid, such dispensaries to be accessible at all times by night and by day to persons requiring medical aid for themselves or others attacked by cholera, or by any of its premonitory symptoms, and to provide the medicines to be distributed to such applicants at such dispensaries or depôts, and such medicines and cordials as may be required elsewhere in the said parish for necessitous persons attacked as aforesaid, who may be under medical treatment, and further to make arrangements for the distribution of notices stating the places where the dispensaries or depôts shall have been provided.

3. We further authorize and require the said Board of Guardians to provide a house of refuge to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked with cholera, and also such necessitous persons living under the same roof, or in the vicinity of persons so attacked, as the medical officers acting under the authority of the said Board may deem it necessary to remove; the houses, rooms, or dwellings, from which persons may have been removed to the house of refuge to be cleansed and purified by the owners or persons having the care or ordering thereof, or in their default by the said Board of Guardians.

4. We further authorize and require the aforesaid Board of Guardians to provide a hospital capable of at once receiving ten or twelve cholera patients at the least, and which may be enlarged, if the occasion should arise so as to render it requisite to accommodate a greater number of cholera cases at one and the same time.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 30th day of July 1849.

Whereas by the Act, eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas it is provided in the 5th section of the aforesaid recited Act, "That nothing hereinbefore contained shall apply to any district, parish, or place, in which the Public Health Act 1848, or any part thereof, shall be in force, unless and except in so far as the General Board of Health, by order in writing, sealed with the seal of such Board, and signed by two or more members thereof, or (in case there be no such Board in existence) as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by order in writing under his hand, shall otherwise direct:"

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said Act shall continue in force throughout the several parishes comprising the Leicester Union, for the space of three calendar months, from and after the date of this Order, notwithstanding the application of the Public Health Act to Leicester;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order and declare, that the various provisions and powers of the above-recited Removal of Nuisances and Prevention of Contagious Diseases Act shall remain in force within and throughout the several parishes comprised in the Leicester Union, for the aforesaid period of three calendar months, from and after the date of this present Order.
