And whereas by an Order in Council, made on the ninth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in pursuance of the powers given by the said Act, it was ordered that it should be lawful for the governor or officer, for the time being administering the government of the colony of New South Wales, to grant leases of land, for pastoral purposes (hereinafter described as pastoral leases), in such manner and subject to such restrictions as are therein described.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty’s reign, intituled ‘ An Act to make better provision for the ‘ spiritual care of populous parishes,’ have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London.

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any such scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the mean time, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district, we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as therein-after provided:

“ And whereas a considerable annual revenue is accruing to us in respect of certain property, situate within the said parish of Saint Pancras, and the said parish is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of such parish herein-after mentioned, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named ‘ The District of Saint Luke, King’s Cross.’

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of two hundred pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, or two hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November, as the case may be, next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy or his personal representative or representatives and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The District of SAINT LUKE, KING’S CROSS, being

“ All that part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, comprised within an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed), on the eastern boundary of the said parish, and at the southern extremity of Maidenlane, and thence extending southward in a straight direction to King’s Cross, and thence westward along the middle of the New-road, to a point (marked b as aforesaid), opposite to the middle of Wilsted-street, and thence northward along the middle of such street as far as the middle of Chapel-street, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned street, as far as the middle of the street or road called Brill-row, and thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned street or road as far as the middle of Weston-street, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as the middle of Brewer-street, and thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned street across the Old Saint Pancras-road, and along the middle of Cambridge-road as far as the middle of the bridge over the Regent's-canal, and thence eastward along the middle of such canal as far as the eastern boundary of the said parish."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the church of the parish, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbent and patrons have respectively consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 29th day of June 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of his late Majesty, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for substituting a money payment to the Bishop of Exeter for an estate belonging to his see.

"Whereas it was by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same) and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts or of the said first recited Act, any arrangements might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes or other hereditaments, in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes or other hereditaments:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter is seised, in right of his see, of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, comprising the manor of Burneir, particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, subject nevertheless to a subsisting lease thereof, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and now dependent upon one life of the age of forty-six years or thereabouts; and by virtue of such lease the lessee claims the right to grant copies to other parties, and to renew the same from time to time, so long as any life named in such lease shall continue in being:

"And whereas the said Henry Bishop of Exeter is now entitled to grant a renewal of the said lease by the insertion therein of two additional lives, and it has been represented to us by the said bishop that the lessee is desirous of taking such renewal, but declines paying an adequate fine for the same:

"And whereas after full inquiry and calculation we have estimated the fine which ought to be paid for such renewal at the net amount of two thousand nine hundred and five pounds, after deducting from the annual value of the whole of the said property the rent and other annual payments reserved by the now subsisting lease thereof:

"And whereas one of the purposes of the first recited Act is, to provide a fund for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund, that the said manor, lands, tenements and hereditaments should be transferred from the said see of Exeter to us, and that a money payment to the said Henry Bishop of Exeter should forthwith be substituted for his interest in the same:

"And whereas the said bishop has consented to accept a money payment accordingly, and that the same shall be the sum of two thousand three hundred and twenty-four pounds, being the amount of such fine as aforesaid, after deducting therefrom the sum of five hundred and eighty-one pounds, that is to say, at the rate of twenty pounds for every hundred pounds, together with an annual sum, so long as he shall remain such bishop, equivalent to the rent and other reserved payments hereinbefore mentioned; and thereupon to relinquish all further benefit by renewal of the said lease or otherwise in respect of the said manor, lands, tenements and hereditaments:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, testified by his having signed this scheme and sealed the same with his corporate seal, that from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the manor, lands, tenements and hereditaments particularly described and set forth in the schedule hereto annexed, shall be and become conveyed and transferred from the said bishop and his successors bishops of Exeter, and shall be absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said first recited Act.

"And we further recommend and propose, that at the same time there shall be paid by us to the said Henry Bishop of Exeter, as a consideration for such transfer, so far as it applies to all his estate and interest in the said manor, lands, tenements and hereditaments as aforesaid, the aforesaid sum of two thousand three hundred and twenty-four pounds; and that there shall further be paid by us out of the same monies to the said Henry Bishop of Exeter, so long as he shall continue to hold the said bishoprick, the annual sum of seventy-six pounds three shillings and fourpence, being the amount of such rent and other reserved payments as aforesaid, by equal half-yearly payments, the first of such payments to be made at the expiration of six months from the date of such gazetting as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"All that the manor of Burneyre (otherwise Burneir), with the appurtenances, situate, lying and being in the county of Cornwall; and all and singular the messuages, lands, tenements, rents, reversions and services, mills, dovehouses, meadows, feedings, woods, underwoods, commons, ways, fishings, fishing-places and all other the hereditaments whatsoever of the said Henry Lord Bishop of Exeter, with all their appurtenances, situate, lying and being in Burneyre (otherwise Burneir), in the county of Cornwall (except as hereinafter excepted), together also with the profits of court leets, view of frank-pledge, and all other liberties, privileges and commodities whatsoever, within the said county of Cornwall or elsewhere to the said manor of Burneyre (otherwise Burneir), and all other the premises, or any part or parcel thereof whatsoever, belonging or appertaining; and all lands, tenements and hereditaments now or lately used, occupied, accepted, reputed or taken as any part, parcel or member of the said manor (except and always reserved out of the conveyance and transfer hereinbefore recommended and referred to, all that messuage and tenement called or known by the name of the Above Town and Waterlands, otherwise Bishop's Land, otherwise Church Land, lying and being within the parish of Egloshayle, parcel of the aforesaid manor of Burneyre (otherwise Burneir), heretofore in the tenure or possession of Henry Hole and Mary his wife, or one of them, their or

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant, and from time to time by warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time by warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid. And it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas it is considered expedient to alter the rates of postage payable on letters conveyed by British packet-boats between Halifax and Boston and between Halifax and New York:

Now we, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power reserved to us in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this warrant under our hands order and direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by British packet-boats between the port of Halifax in British North America and the port of Boston in the United States, and between the ports of Halifax and New York, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, a packet rate of British postage of four-pence.

And we direct that on every letter transmitted as is before mentioned in this warrant exceeding half an ounce in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage according to the scale of weight and number of rates following; that is to say:

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would have been charged with under this warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we direct that nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend to any letters sent by the post to or from the United Kingdom.

And we direct that all letters brought into the United Kingdom by British or United States' packet-boats, otherwise than in a mail bag, shall be charged and chargeable with the like rates of postage as such letters would be liable to and chargeable with if the same had been contained in the mail bags brought by any such packets.

And whereas, by a warrant under the hands of three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 8th day of March 1849, the said Commissioners did amongst other things order and direct, that on every printed foreign newspaper posted in or addressed to the United States, and transmitted between the United States and any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, and on every printed colonial newspaper transmitted between any of Her Majesty's colonies and the United States, through the United Kingdom (such newspapers being conveyed between the United Kingdom and the United States by British or United States' packet-boats), there should be charged and taken an uniform rate of British postage of one penny, except in any case in which a lower rate was or should be provided by any treaty between the United Kingdom and any foreign country or state.

Now We, the undersigned Commissioners, do hereby further direct, that on every printed foreign or colonial newspaper posted in the United States, addressed to the United Kingdom, and on every colonial newspaper addressed to the United Kingdom and forwarded via the United States (the conveyance of all such newspapers from the United States to the United Kingdom being either by British or United States' packet-boats), and on every other printed foreign or colonial newspaper brought into the United Kingdom by any such packet-boats from the United States, addressed to places within the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of British postage of one penny; and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we direct, that no such printed newspaper shall be sent by the post at the rate aforesaid, unless the following conditions shall be observed :

- 1st. It shall be sent without a cover or in a band or cover open at the sides or end.
- 2nd. There shall be no word or communication printed on the newspaper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon it, or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent.
- 3rd. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.

And in case any one of such conditions shall not be fulfilled, the whole paper or packet shall be charged with the letter rates of postage.

And we direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or by an Act, made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office," or by any Treasury Warrant issued under or by virtue of the said first-mentioned Act.

And we direct, that the several terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the 20th day of September 1849.

Provided lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time, being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

By the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Whereas, by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 159, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's dockyards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," it is enacted (among other things), that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks or any portion of the shores or banks of any port, harbour, or haven of this kingdom, from which the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the time being shall find it necessary for the protection of such port, harbour, or haven, or the works thereof, by order under their hands, or the hand of their Secretary, and published in the "London Gazette," shall prohibit the taking or removing of such shingle or ballast, upon pain of forfeiting for every such offence the sum of ten pounds :

And whereas We, as Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, have found it necessary for the protection of the harbour of St. Andrew's, in the county of Fife, in that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, and of the shores and banks thereof, to prohibit the taking of any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks of the said harbour ; and we do therefore order that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks of the said harbour of St. Andrew's.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases;" and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain ;

We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases ;

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Merthyr Tydfil Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases;" and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases ;

And whereas various parts of the Merthyr Tydfil Union appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease ; and it is desirable that further provisions should be made to meet the emergency ;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the directions and regulations following ; viz :

1. That a daily list be forwarded to the superintendent medical inspector by each medical officer, setting forth all cases of premonitory symptoms or of cholera that may have occurred within each such medical officer's district during the preceding twenty-four hours.

2. That a duly qualified medical assistant be appointed to aid in carrying out the measures that may be considered requisite under the circumstances.

3. That three efficient nurses be appointed to attend upon the sick, according to the directions of the medical superintending inspector or other person approved by him.

4. That a person approved as properly qualified by the superintending medical inspector be appointed for the purpose of administering the medicines he may have prescribed.

5. That such arrangements may be made as the medical inspector shall approve, for the purpose of securing careful house to house visitation at least once daily, and twice each day, if he shall certify that such an extent of visitation be necessary.

6. That there be forthwith provided houses of refuge, to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked with cholera, and also such necessitous persons living under the same roof, or in the vicinity of persons so attacked, as the medical officers may deem it necessary to remove ; the houses, rooms, or dwellings from which persons may have been removed to the houses of refuge, to be cleansed and purified by the owners or persons having the care or ordering thereof, or in their default by the said Parochial Board.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain ; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases ;

And whereas the parish of Liverpool appearing to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease, it was deemed desirable to make further provision for securing effective house to house visitation ; We, the General Board of Health, on the 6th day of the present month of August, issued an Order directing the appointment of twenty duly qualified medical men, whose whole time should be employed in making careful house to house visitation throughout the affected or threatened districts of the parish of Liverpool.

And whereas it is represented to us by the medical officer of health of Liverpool that it may be difficult to obtain twenty sufficiently qualified medical men to give their whole time to the said house to house visitation, We, the General Board of Health, hereby authorize the appointment of the said number of such medical practitioners as the said medical officer of health or any medical superintending inspector to the General Board of Health, if there be such in Liverpool at the time, shall approve, and to give so much of their time to the service as shall be deemed sufficient by the said medical officer of health or medical superintending inspector.

Vice-Chancellor of England.—Thursday the 2nd day of August, in the 13th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1849, between Charles Grevile, Plaintiff, James Spooner Alexander Milburn, and John Little, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Bagshawe, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this Court, which was afterwards amended against the defendants, and took out process of subpoena against the defendant Alexander Milburn, on the 3rd day of May 1849, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's said amended bill, that it appears by the affidavit of James Knight that the said defendant has been within the jurisdiction of the Court, at some time not more than two years before the subpoena issued, but the place of abode of the said defendant Alexander Milburn had never been known to the said James Knight, nor was it known either to him or, to the best of his knowledge, to the said plaintiff Charles Grevile, and that since the said subpoena issued application had been made to Mr. Dawson, of Charlotte-street, Bloomsbury, the late Solicitor of the said defendant Alexander Milburn, and also to Mr. George Milburn, at his house, No. 5, Brompton-square, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, son of the said Alexander Milburn, and who was in correspondence with the said Alexander Milburn, but he could not be found so as to be served with process, and that there is just reason to believe that the said defendant Alexander Milburn has absconded or keeps out of the way to avoid being served with process. It is thereupon ordered that the said defendant Alexander Milburn do appear to the plaintiff's amended bill, on or before the 24th day of August instant; and it is ordered that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this order, together with the notice, pursuant to the general order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette of Tuesday the 14th day of August instant, and in two newspapers published in London, that is to say, the Times and the Morning Chronicle, on or before the 18th day of August instant.

Notice. Alexander Milburn,—Take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own showing.
