Office of Ordnance, 4th September 1849.

Corps of Royal Engineers.

Brevet-Major William Faris to be Lieutenant-Colonel, vice Fenwick, deceased. Dated 6th August 1849.

Admiralty, September 6, 1849.

The following promotions, dated the 1st instant, have taken place, consequent upon the death of Rear-Admiral of the Red, Hood Hanway Christian.

Rear-Admiral of the White, William Bowles, C.B. to be Rear-Admiral of the Red.
Rear-Admiral of the Blue, Sir Thomas Fellowes, C.B. to be Rear-Admiral of the White.
Captain George Edward Watts to be Rear-Admiral of the Blue.

Retired Captains

Robert Gambier,
Charles Frederick Payne, and Colin Macdonald, C. B.

have also been promoted to be Retired Rear-Admirals, on the terms proposed in the London Gazette of the 1st September 1846.

Whitehall, September 7, 1849.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto Alexander-Bateman-Periam Hood, Esq. late a Captain in the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards, eldest son and heir apparent of Sir Alexander Hood, of Wootton, in the county of Somerset, Bart. and unto Isabel-Harriet Fuller-Palmer-Acland, Spinster, only child and heir expectant of Sir Peregrine-Palmer Fuller-Palmer-Acland, of Fairfield and St. Audries, both in the county of Somerset, Bart. Her royal licence and authority that, from and immediately after the solemnization of their intended marriage, they may take and use the surnames of Fuller-Acland, in addition to and before that of Hood, and that he, the said Alexander-Bateman-Periam Hood, may bear the arms of Fuller and Acland quarterly with those of his own family, and that such surnames and arms may in like manner be taken, borne, and used by the issue of their marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Folkstone.—Legal Quays.

We, the undersigned, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs," appoint the following places, within the port of Folkstone, to be legal quays for the lading and unloading of goods, and we do hereby declare the bounds and extents of such quays to be as follow; that is to say, all that open place, quay, or wharf, situate on the south side of the harbour, commencing at the Custom-house, and extending in an easterly direction to the gates on the western side of the railway, and being in length two hundred and thirty-three feet; and from the gates on the eastern side of the railway extending, in an easterly direction, to the end of the pier, and being in length five hundred and sixty-two feet.

Also all that open place, quay, or wharf, situate on the western side of the harbour, commencing at the Custom-house, and extending in a northerly direction to the forge on the Sandgate-road, being in length four hundred and seventy-five feet.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Parish of Bethnal Green; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places included in the parish of Bethnal Green appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the said parish of Bethnal Green:

1. That one duly qualified medical assistant be forthwith appointed to aid the district medical officer of the Church-street district of the above-mentioned parish.

2. That a dispensary be immediately established in a convenient and suitable position, in the aforesaid Church-street district of the parish of Bethnal Green, to be open at all hours, day and night, and with proper attendance, to supply to necessitous persons such medicines as may be required by those attacked by cholera, or by any of its premonitory symptoms.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 3rd day of September 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Kensington Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places included in the Kensington Union appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the several parishes included in the Kensington Union:

1. That three additional properly qualified medical men, or (in case such properly qualified medical men cannot be obtained) advanced medical students be forthwith appointed, to devote their whole time to a house to house visitation of the affected districts.

2. That a house or houses, or suitable rooms, be forthwith prepared, wherever it may be deemed most convenient (being as near as practicable to the affected districts), to serve as a house or houses of refuge, for the reception of the families of those who have been attacked by cholera, and also of those necessitous persons living under the same roof, or in the immediate vicinity of those so attacked; and that the houses or rooms, from which such persons have been so removed shall be thoroughly cleansed and purified by the owners, or those having the care or ordering thereof, or in their default, by the Board of Guardians of the aforesaid union.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 4th day of September 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Greenwich Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases;" and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places, within the Greenwich Union, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to the Greenwich Union:

1. That four additional properly qualified medical officers be forthwith appointed, to make a house to house visitation throughout the Greenwich parish of the aforesaid Union.

2. That two additional properly qualified medical officers be forthwith appointed to make a house to house visitation throughout the Woolwich parish of the same Union.

3. That two additional properly qualified medical officers be forthwith appointed to make a house to house visitation throughout the parish of Deptford, in the same Union.

4. That adequate and convenient hospital accommodation be provided, without delay, for the two parishes of Woolwich and Deptford, within the Greenwich Union aforesaid, for the treatment of necessitous persons who may be attacked with cholera, or with any of its premonitory symptoms.

5. That a house of refuge be immediately provided for and within each of the above-mentioned parishes of Woolwich and Deptford, to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked with cholera, and also such necessitous persons living under the same roof, or in the vicinity of persons so attacked, as the medical officers may deem it necessary to remove; the houses, rooms, or dwellings from which persons may have been so removed to the houses of refuge to be cleansed and purified by the owners or persons having the care or ordering thereof, or in their default by the Guardians of the Poor of the Greenwich Union.

To the Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Clement Danes, Middlesex; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act twelfth and thirteenth Victoria, cap. 3, intituled "An Act to amend the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848," it is provided that it shall be lawful, in England or Wales, for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by a superintending inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the burial grounds in any part of England or Wales, excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales to which for the time being the said Act has not been applied; and if it appear to the General Board of Health that any such burial ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health, in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more members thereof, to issue such orders as the said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health;

And whereas Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, Superintending Inspector to the said Board, has inquired into the state of the burial ground in Portugal-street, in the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, and has reported the said burial ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof:

Now We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion that in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said burial ground, it is expedient that it should be temporarily closed, do hereby order and require the Churchwardens, and other persons having the care and control of the same, to close the said burial ground until further order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere as to them may appear necessary, under the tenth section of the Nuisances' Amendment Act aforesaid, or otherwise.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the City of London Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places within the City of London Union appear to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the City of London Union:

1. That nine additional legally qualified medical officers, or (in case so many legally qualified medical men cannot be obtained for the service) advanced medical students, be forthwith appointed, to give up their whole time to a regular and careful house to house visitation throughout the affected districts of the aforesaid Union, at least once each day, and if requisite or expedient, more frequently.

2. That adequate hospital accommodation be immediately provided, in a suitable and central position, for the reception and treatment of necessitous persons who may be attacked by cholera or by any of its premonitory symptoms.

3. That a house or houses of refuge be at once prepared in suitable positions, to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked by cholera, or others living near to persons so attacked; and that the houses or rooms from which persons may have been removed shall be thoroughly cleansed and purified by the owners, or those having the care thereof, or in their default, by the Guardians.

4. That depôts be forthwith opened, in sufficient numbers and in convenient localities, for the supply of medicine, at all hours of the day or night, to such necessitous persons as may be attacked by cholera or by any of its premonitory symptoms.

5. That hand-bills and notices be issued throughout the Union, and especially in the affected districts, giving full directions where medical aid and other assistance may be procured by those who may be attacked by cholera or by any of its premonitory symptoms.

CONTRACT FOR POLICE CLOTHING.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 29, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 4th October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such articles of

for the use of the Police Force employed in Her Majesty's several Dock and Victualling Yards, as shall from time to time be demanded for twelve months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Police Clothing," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR BRAZIERS' FOUNDERS' AND COPPERSMITHS' GOODS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, August 22, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 25th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dockyards with Braziers' Founders' and Coppersmiths' Goods.

Patterns of the articles may be seen, and a form of tender, schedule, and conditions of the contract obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Braziers' Goods, &c." and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR MARINE CLOTHING AND NECESSARIES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Service, Somerset-Place, August 23, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 20th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling

Stores at Deptford, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning, all such and Woollen and Linen Articles of Necessaries as may from time to time be demanded for the Royal Marines, and for the Artillery Companies of the Royal Marines.

The Clothing to be supplied either made up, or in materials for making up.

A form of the tender, and the conditions of the contract may be obtained at the said Office, and patterns of the articles may be seen on application at the Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of eleven and three.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Marine Clothing," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £3000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT PORK of the CURE of the UNITED KINGDOM, or of any FOREIGN COUNTRY WHATSOEVER.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 30, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 27th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT PORK,

Of the Cure of the United Kingdom, or of any Foreign Country whatsoever, equal to 6,000 Tierces, to be cured in the ensuing season, and to be delivered in tierces, excepting a part thereof, equal to 100 tierces, which is to be delivered in casks containing 100lbs. each, and for which separate tenders are to be made; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for not contracting for any part; and also an unlimited power of selection, according to quality.

Every tender to specify where the meat is intended to be cured, and a separate price for each denomination of cure comprised therein.

The pork to be delivered into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

One-third on or before the 31st March 1850,

Two-thirds on or before the 31st May 1850, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantity beyond that specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 300 tierces, except for the quantity to be delivered in casks containing 100lbs. each.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Pork," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons engaging to become bound with the person tendering in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract for the due performance of the same.
