To the Guardians of the Poor of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, Westminster; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts of the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields appear to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the direction and regulation hereinafter contained, to extend to the said parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, Westminster:

That two legally qualified medical officers, or (in case two legally qualified medical men cannot be obtained) advanced medical students, be forthwith appointed, whose whole time shall be given to a careful house to house visitation throughout the parish, especially in its affected districts.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 5th day of September 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the United Parishes of Saint James and Saint John, Clerkenwell; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places within the united parishes of Saint James and Saint John, Clerkenwell, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease, and it is desirable that further provisions should be made to meet the emergency;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to the aforesaid united parishes of Saint James and Saint John, Clerkenwell:

1. That an inspector of nuisances be forthwith appointed, to examine into the condition of the district, and to report upon all cases of nuisances injurious to health, requiring removal or abatement.

2. That two additional legally qualified medical men, or (in case they cannot be obtained) two advanced medical students, be appointed forthwith, to aid in carrying out a regular and effective house to house visitation, especially throughout the affected districts.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 5th day of September 1849.
