

said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health ;”

And whereas Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, superintending inspector to the said Board, has inquired into the state of the burial ground in Benjamin-street, belonging to the parish of Saint John, Clerkenwell, and has reported the said burial ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof ;

We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion that in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said burial ground, it is expedient that interments should be discontinued therein for the present, do hereby order and require the aforesaid Churchwardens, and other persons having the care and control of the same, to cause the discontinuance of interments in the said burial ground until further order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere as to them may appear necessary, under the tenth section of the Nuisances' Amendment Act aforesaid, or otherwise.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 19th day of September 1849.

To the Churchwardens of the Parish of St. John, Clerkenwell; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act twelfth and thirteenth Victoria, cap. 3, intituled “ An Act to amend the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848,” it is provided, “ That it shall be lawful in England or Wales for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by a superintending inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the burial grounds in any part of England or Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales, to which for the time being the said Act has not been applied, and if it appear to the General Board of Health that any such burial ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more members thereof, to issue such orders as the said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health ;”

And whereas Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, superintending inspector to the said Board, has inquired into the state of the burial ground known as the churchyard of St. John, Clerkenwell, and has reported the said burial ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof ;

We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion that in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said

burial ground, it is expedient that interments should be discontinued therein for the present, do hereby order and require the aforesaid Churchwardens, and other persons having the care and control of the same, to cause the discontinuance of interments in the said burial ground until further order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere as to them may appear necessary, under the tenth section of the Nuisances' Amendment Act aforesaid, or otherwise.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 19th day of September 1849.

By Authority of Parliament,

HENRY BICKNELL,
Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Grocers'-Hall, September 21, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Congregational Church, situated at Snow-hill, in the parish of Wolverhampton, and county of Stafford, in the district of Wolverhampton and Seisdon, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 15th day of September 1849, duly substituted and registered for solemnizing marriages therein, instead of Temple-street Chapel, in the parish of Wolverhampton aforesaid, which has been disused by the Congregation now using, instead thereof, the above-named Congregational Church.

Witness my hand this 19th day of September 1849

Isaac Fellows, Superintendent Registrar.
