TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1849.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen, on the occasion of Her Majesty's late return from Scotland, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor and Magistrates of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects, the Mayor and Magistrates of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough in council assembled, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our unfeigned loyalty and attachment.

We cannot on such an occasion forget how much the public and private morality of the people and the safety and stability of the State depend upon the conduct and character of the Sovereign; and we gladly proclaim our belief that the love and reverence which your Majesty's private life and public career have inspired greatly conduced to avert from our shores the shock of that political tempest which on the Continent rent society to its foundations, and overturned the most established governments.

We beg to express our grateful sense of the warm and lively interest which your Majesty evinces in the welfare and happiness of the people committed to your charge; and we fervently pray that God may shield from every harm that sacred life which is bound up with the destiny of millions, and preserve your Majesty to enjoy many happy years to be the ornament and example of the age in which we live.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, and under the hands of the said Mayor and Magistrates, at Berwick-upon-Tweed, this 24th day of September 1849.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, in council assembled, approach your Majesty with the tender of a respectful but heartfelt welcome.

We recur with a grateful recollection to the period of your Majesty's former visit to the town of Birmingham, in the company of your Majesty's August Mother, when the hopes of the people hailed your Majesty as heir presumptive to the Throne, and we rejoice in this opportunity of renewing to your Majesty those expressions of sincere attachment with which the inhabitants then so cordially greeted the presence of their future Sovereign.

We beg most respectfully to express to your Majesty our warm admiration of your Majesty's constitutional Government, our affectionate devotion to your Majesty's Person, and our unswerving loyalty to the Throne.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty, blessed in the affections of your Illustrious Consort and the tender love of your Children, may long be spared to extend the genial influence of your Majesty's bright example throughout all classes in these kingdoms, and to receive the grateful homage of a loyal and faithful people.

In testimony whereof the corporate common seal of the said borough is hereunto affixed, the 28th day of September 1849.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Magistrates, Clergy, Ministers, Gentry, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the town of Darlington and the neighbourhood, approach your Majesty with feelings of the most respectful and dutiful attachment to your august Person and Throne, and beg to offer the warmest and most cordial expression of our welcome on this your first royal progress through the county of Durham.

We beg to express our grateful sense of the deep interest which your Majesty has ever been graciously pleased to evince in the welfare of your Majesty's subjects at large, and which has been so especially shown towards the inhabitants of Ireland by the late royal visit to that country, which we fervently hope will strengthen the ties that attach them to your Majesty's Throne and Person.

We pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, characterised by that continued progress in social advancement which has rendered Great Britain so pre-eminent amongst surrounding nations.

We heartily desire that the remainder of your Majesty's journey may be safely accomplished, and that you, your Royal Consort, and Children, may possess every blessing which the Almighty can bestow, and every happiness which this world can afford.

Signed, on behalf of the Nobility, Magistrates, Clergy, Ministers, Gentry, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the town of Darlington and the neighbourhood, in the county of Durham, in public meeting assembled,

Francis Mewburn, Chief Bailiff of Darlington.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and devoted subjects, the Clergy of the Deanery of Derby, beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of hearty loyalty and profound veneration.

Recent eventful occurrences constrain us to express our thankfulness to Him who controlleth all things, that the constitution under which it is our privilege to live, and which we regard as the bulwark of civil and religious liberty, has been preserved in safety amidst the political convulsions of other countries; and that loyalty to your Majesty's Throne and Person reigns unabated amongst all classes of the British Empire.

Alive to the influence which descends from regal example through every grade in society, we regard with unfeigned admiration and gratitude your Majesty's unvarying and faithful discharge of all domestic duties, together with your anxious solicitude to uphold the interests of true religion.

We hail with thankfulness your Majesty's firm attachment to that pure branch of Christ's Catholic Church established in these realms, in which it is our happiness to discharge our ministerial functions; and we desire to assure your Majesty that it is our constant endeavour to instruct the people committed to our care in the principles of that pure Christianity which inculcates supreme love to God, obedience to the higher powers, and the exercise of fervent charity to all men.

We avail ourselves of the opportunity thus graciously afforded us of testifying our dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, to offer up our earnest prayer to Him, whose "Providence ordereth all things in heaven and in earth," that He may be pleased long to spare your Majesty to reign in peace and happiness, in piety and justice, over an enlightened, godly, and prosperous people.

We beg leave to subscribe ourselves, with fervent sentiments of loyalty and devotion, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Derby, in council assembled, avail ourselves with heartfelt pleasure of the approach of your Majesty to this ancient borough, to assure your Majesty of our deep attachment and loyal devotion to your Majesty's Person.

We humbly congratulate your Majesty on those most important and beneficial results which have already manifested themselves in Ireland since your Majesty's auspicious visit to that part of your dominions.

On the conclusion of that excursion, during which your Majesty has encountered none but loyal hearts, we beg your Majesty to believe that you have not met with any more loyal and true than those of the inhabitants of this borough.

We pray heartily for the blessing of God on your Majesty; for the health and happiness of your Majesty's Royal Consort and Children; and for the long continuance in peace and prosperity of your Majesty's reign.

Robt. Forman, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient borough of Gateshead, avail ourselves, with pride and pleasure, of the opportunity afforded by this your Majesty's first visit to these parts, to tender to your Majesty the sincerest homage of our fidelity, and to your Majesty and your Royal Consort and Children our warmest welcome and most cordial congratulations.

We entreat your Majesty to be permitted to express the pleasure we experience in witnessing an instance of that high and truly royal determination of your Majesty to make yourself acquainted, by actual observation and intercourse, with the various portions of your Majesty's dominions; thereby strengthening, more and more, the bond of union so happily subsisting between the British people and their Sovereign, by confirming it in person and sealing it with a smile.

And we fervently pray that your Majesty and your Majesty's Royal Consort and Family may long enjoy the blessings of health and the proud satisfaction of beholding, on every side, the grandeur of your empire, and the happiness of your people.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Gateshead, this 26th day of September 1849.

G. Hawks, Mayor.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Clergy of the Cathedral and of the City of Gloucester, beg leave to avail ourselves of your Majesty's passage through this ancient city, to approach you with the expression of our loyal and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

At a time when so many nations are distracted by fearful civil commotions, we rejoice in the opportunity offered us of testifying our deep gratitude for the successful efforts of your Majesty to preserve the people committed to your charge in wealth, peace, and godliness, and our sense of those virtues, which render the house of your Majesty and the Prince Consort a model to all the families of the land.

That Almighty God may be pleased to endue your Majesty and your Royal Family with His Heavenly Grace, and to prosper you with all happiness, is, and ever must be, Madam, the earnest prayer of our hearts.

J. H. C. Seymour, Sub-Dean, on behalf of the Clergy of Gloucester.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the City of Gloucester in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of your Majesty's ancient and loyal city of Gloucester, joyfully avail ourselves of your Majesty's auspicious presence, humbly to assure your Majesty of the profound loyalty and attachment which we and our fellow citizens at large bear towards your Majesty's sacred Person and Crown.

And we earnestly pray, that under the protection of Divine Providence, continued and increased blessings may be shed upon your Majesty and your Royal Consort; that your Majesty's reign may be distinguished by the glory and undisturbed prosperity of this great country; and that your Majesty may be visited with every personal and domestic blessing, and long preserved to reign over a loyal and devoted people.

Given under the Common Seal of the said city the 25th day of September, in the 13th year of Her Majesty's reign.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, respectfully tender to your Majesty, on the occasion of this your first visit to the ancient town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the cordial and sincere expression of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Crown and Person.

In past times, the visits of the Sovereign to this town have been for the purposes of war. We congratulate your Majesty that your visit is made in happier times and under more auspicious circumstances.

We are sensible of the value of the blessings we enjoy, and are firmly persuaded that to the virtues of the Sovereign, as well as to the Constitutional Government under which we live, are we indebted, under Divine Providence, for the preservation of peace and tranquillity throughout your Majesty's dominions during a period of trial and difficulty.

We pray that your Majesty may long reign over a happy, prosperous, and united people.

Given under the common seal of the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, this 25th day of September 1849.

James Dent Weatherley, Mayor of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of York, on behalf of ourselves and our fellow citizens, humbly approach your Majesty, and hail with heartfelt joy and delight the arrival of your Majesty, and your Illustrious Consort, in this your Majesty's ancient and loyal city.

Deeply sensible of the numerous blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and happy sway, we cordially join in the acclamations with which your Majesty has recently been welcomed by your loving subjects in your progress through various parts of your Majesty's dominions, and we earnestly pray, that your Majesty may long be blessed with uninterrupted health to rule over a loyal and contented people.

Given under our common seal this 28th day of September 1849.

Whitehall, September 29, 1849.

To the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, Surrey; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act twelfth and thirteenth Victoria, cap. 3, intituled "An Act to amend the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848," it is provided, "That it shall be lawful, in England or Wales, for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by a superintending inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the burial grounds in any part of England or Wales, excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales to which for the time being the said Act has not been applied; and if it appear to the General Board of Health that any such burial ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more members thereof to issue such orders as the said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health;"

And whereas in pursuance thereof the said General Board of Health issued an Order for the temporary discontinuance of interments in the churchyard of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey;

And whereas it has been this day represented to the said Board that application has been made to the Churchwardens of the said parish for the interment of three persons in family vaults or built graves in the said churchyard which have been for long periods unopened;

Now We, the General Board of Health, do hereby revoke the said Order, in so far as to authorize the said Churchwardens to bury the three persons aforesaid in their family graves respectively; provided always, that in each case a quantity of chloride of lime, amounting to not less than twelve pounds' weight, be strewn beneath and above the coffin.

Given under the hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 21st day of September 1849.

(Signed) Edwin Chadwick.
T. Southwood Smith.

To the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Andrew, in the town of Hertford, in the county of Hertford; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act twelfth and thirteenth Victoria, cap. 3, intituled "An Act to amend the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848," it is provided, "That it shall be lawful in England or Wales for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by the superintending inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the burial grounds in any part of England or Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales, to which for the time being the said Act has not been applied, and if it appear to the General Board of Health that any such burial ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more members thereof, to issue such orders as the said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health ;”

And whereas William Ranger, superintending inspector to the said Board, has inquired into the state of the burial ground of Saint Andrew, in the town of Hertford, in the county of Hertford, and has reported the said burial ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof ;

We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion that in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said burial ground, it is expedient that interments should be discontinued therein for the present, do hereby order and require the aforesaid Churchwardens, and other persons having the care and control of the same, to cause the discontinuance of interments in the said burial ground until further order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere as to them may appear necessary, under the tenth section of the Nuisances' Amendment Act aforesaid, or otherwise.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 21st day of September 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled “An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases,” and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain ; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases ;

And whereas various parts and places included in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease ;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to the said parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth; and we do hereby order and require you, the said Guardians, to carry into effect the said directions and regulations forthwith :

That five additional properly qualified medical officers be immediately appointed, or (in case so many properly qualified medical men cannot be obtained) advanced medical students be selected, to devote their whole time to a regular house to house visitation of the affected districts of the aforesaid parish, and that they carry medicines with them and administer them on the spot to all who may be attacked by cholera or any of its premonitory symptoms.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 21st day of September 1849.

To the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Olave, Silver-street; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act twelfth and thirteenth Victoria, cap. 3, intituled “An Act to amend the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1818,” it is provided, “That it shall be lawful in England or Wales for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by the superintending inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the burial grounds in any part of England or Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales, to which for the time being the said Act has not been applied, and if it appear to the General Board of Health that any such burial ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more Members thereof, to issue such orders as the said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health ;”

And whereas Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, superintending inspector to the said Board, has inquired into the state of the burial ground of Saint Olave, Silver-street, and has reported the said burial ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof ;

We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion that in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said burial ground, it is expedient that interments should be discontinued therein for the present, do hereby order and require the aforesaid Churchwardens, and other persons having the care and control of the same, to cause the discontinuance of interments in the said burial ground until further order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere as to them may appear necessary, under the tenth section of the Nuisances' Amendment Act aforesaid, or otherwise ;

And we further order the said Churchwardens to spread over the entire surface of the said burial ground a quantity of chloride of lime, dissolved in water, in the proportion of not less than four ounces to the imperial gallon, and to the amount of not less than six gallons per week for four weeks from this date, to the surface of each grave, or, in lieu of chloride of lime, to cover the entire surface of the said burial ground with quicklime to the thickness of not less than six inches.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 22nd day of September 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Bridlington Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas we have been informed that vessels have arrived at Bridlington-quay, having on board persons affected with cholera;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the direction and regulation hereinafter contained to extend to the said Bridlington Union; and we do hereby order and require you, the said Guardians, to carry into effect the said direction and regulation forthwith:

That the said vessels, or any other vessels arriving at Bridlington-quay, in which cholera or other epidemic disease has occurred, be entered for the purpose of examining their sanitary condition and the health of their crews, and, if need be, of ordering, cleansing, purification, and the removal of the whole or any portion of the crew to suitable places provided for their reception, and all other necessary measures for the prevention of disease which are authorized or required to be adopted in any dwellings on land by the general regulations of the said Board of the 4th day of April 1849, issued to the Guardians of the Poor throughout England and Wales.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 22nd day of September 1849.

To the Governor and Guardians of the Poor of the borough and town of Kingston-upon-Hull; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places included in the borough and town of Kingston-upon-Hull appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease;

And whereas it is expedient to extend the precautionary measures already ordered to be adopted throughout the said borough and town to the Docks and Shipping in the port of Hull;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to the said town of Kingston-upon-Hull;

And we do hereby order and require you, the said Governor and Guardians, to carry into effect the said directions and regulations forthwith;

That the system of medical relief, and the measures for preventing the spread of cholera that are already in operation in the various parts of the borough and town at present affected with epidemic disease, be extended to the Docks and Shipping of the port of Kingston-upon-Hull.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Wolverhampton Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas on the 10th day of September, 1849, We, the General Board of Health, issued an order to the Guardians of the Poor of the Wolverhampton Union in the county of Stafford, and did thereby make certain directions and regulations, amongst other purposes, for the appointment of medical officers and visitors to be employed in and for the said union, and also that three dispensaries should be established within the said union, with one duly qualified dispenser to each of such dispensaries, in consequence of the prevalence of cholera in the said union;

And whereas it has been represented unto us that the disease has in some measure abated throughout the said union, and that the same amount of medical aid and service are no longer necessary;

Now We, the General Board of Health, do hereby authorize the said Guardians to discontinue the employment of four of the medical officers, and also to discontinue one of the dispensaries by the said Order respectively directed to be provided in and for the said union: provided always, that in case of a fresh outbreak or increase of the disease within the said union, the said recited Order and the directions and regulations therein contained shall revive and be in full force.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 27th day of September 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by an Act passed in the twelfth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 25th day of September 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places of and within the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease;

Now, in exercise of the authority vested in us as aforesaid, We, the General Board of Health, do issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey; that is to say:

We direct the Guardians of the Poor of the said parish forthwith to appoint, for one month from the date hereof, four medical officers, in addition to the regular medical officers now employed by the said Guardians in and for the said parish, for the purpose of making, and we do authorize and require the said Guardians, to cause the medical officers so to be appointed, to make a daily house to house visitation in such parts and localities of and within the said parish as are affected by cholera, or any of its premonitory symptoms;

And we do direct that the said medical officers so to be appointed as aforesaid be placed and act under the direction of the regular medical officers of the said parish, and do devote their whole time to the performance of the said service.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 27th day of September 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Union of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster; and to all else whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848, it was enacted that when any part of the United Kingdom should appear to be threatened by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords, and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), might, by order or orders, to be by them made, direct that the provisions contained in the said Act for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases be put in force in Great Britain, and that every such Order should be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order should be expressed; and whereas by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State), bearing date the 28th September 1848, the said provisions of the said recited Act were directed to be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, for a period of six calendar months thence next ensuing; and whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the most Honourable the Lord President of the said Council being one, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, the said recited Order of the 28th September 1848 was renewed for a period of six calendar months from the date of the said last-mentioned Order; and whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the most Honourable the Lord President of the said Council being one, bearing date the 25th September 1849, the said first-mentioned Order was renewed for a further period of six calendar months, from the said 25th day of September 1849, which said last-mentioned Order is now in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; and whereas the General Board of Health in Great Britain are, by the said recited Act, empowered, during the continuance in force of any such Order as above recited, to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of such epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases;

Now We, the General Board of Health, in exercise of the powers vested in us by the said recited Act, do hereby issue the following directions and regulations to extend to, and to be observed in the township of Manchester, within the Manchester Union, in the county of Lancaster, in Great Britain, and which directions and regulations we do hereby confine to the limits of the said township of Manchester, within the said union:

1st. That the existing division of the Manchester township into five districts for medical relief be retained.

2nd. That the five medical officers at present attached to those districts shall act as medical superintendents, each acting as such within his respective district, and that each such superintendent shall be responsible for the proper carrying out of the measures of prevention and relief hereinafter directed.

3rd. That five dispensaries, situated in convenient parts of the said township, be opened, and continue open every day and every night; each dispensary to be provided with a person in constant attendance, capable of administering medicine to all necessitous applicants; and that one of the medical officers of each district shall, in rotation, attend during every night at the dispensary of his district, who shall attend to all calls throughout the district during the night.

4th. That a staff of thirteen medical officers be provided and located in the five medical relief districts, in such proportions as the necessities of each district may require, and who shall take the medical charge of all persons who may apply, or who may be referred to them within their respective districts; and that all necessitous cases be attended without a relieving officer's note.

5th. That nine medical visitors be appointed to make a daily visitation from house to house in the said districts, or some of them, according to the necessities of each, and that such visitors have with them a sufficient quantity of medicine for the treatment of cholera or its premonitory symptoms.

6th. That a house of refuge, with sixty beds, and suitable accommodations, be provided for the reception of persons whom it may be desirable to remove from infected localities.

7th. That an additional cholera hospital be provided in a convenient situation, with suitable accommodation, and a sufficient number of nurses.

8th. That a supply of nurses for attending on cholera patients, in their own houses, be provided.

9th. That a supply of blankets be provided at the dispensaries, to be lent out to the poor on the recommendation of the district medical officers or superintendents.

10th. That notices be printed and carefully distributed from house to house, throughout the districts, clearly detailing the arrangements made, and the places where application is to be made, in case of attack.

11th. That if the superintendents shall report to the Guardians that additional medical aid is necessary, the Board of Guardians shall immediately provide such additional aid, and the superintendents shall transmit copies of such reports to the General Board of Health.

And in further exercise of the powers vested in us by the said recited Act, We do hereby direct, authorize, and require you, the Guardians of the Poor of the said union, forthwith to provide in the manner specified in the above directions and regulations, for the dispensing of medicines, and for affording to persons afflicted by or threatened with any epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, such medical aid as may be required; and by yourselves or your officers, or by any persons employed by you in the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor, or by officers specially appointed in that behalf, forthwith to superintend and to see to the execution of the above directions and regulations, and to do and provide all such acts, matters, and things, as may be necessary for executing the same.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, in Great Britain, this 27th day of September 1849.

To the Trustees of the Poor of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 25th day of September 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas the parish of Saint Leonard's, Shoreditch, appears to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease;

And whereas the General Board of Health issued an Order, dated the 15th day of August last, to the Trustees of the Poor of the said parish, and certain provisions of the said Order were to remain in force for six weeks;

And whereas it is expedient to renew one of the said provisions of the said Order;

Now We, the General Board of Health, do hereby renew and continue the provision hereunder stated; that is to say:

That three intelligent persons be appointed (for a like period of six weeks) to act throughout the affected districts of the parish as lay visitors, under the directions of the parochial medical officers, and to co-operate with the said medical officers in discovering cases of diarrhoea in their earliest stages, and in instructing persons who may be so affected how and where to procure the necessary medicines, and that they report without delay all serious cases that may come under their observation or knowledge to the nearest medical officer.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 29th day of September 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Aylesbury Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 25th day of September 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas it is provided in the 5th section of the aforesaid recited Act, "That nothing hereinafter contained shall apply to any district, parish, or place, in which the Public Health Act, 1848, or any part thereof, shall be in force, unless and except in so far as the General Board of Health, by order in writing, sealed with the seal of such Board, and signed by two or more members thereof, or (in case there be no such Board in existence) as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by order in writing under his hand, shall otherwise direct;"

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said Act shall continue in force throughout the several parishes comprised in the Aylesbury Union, for the space of three calendar months from and after the date of this Order, notwithstanding the application of the Public Health Act to the town of Aylesbury;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order and declare, that the various provisions and powers of the above-recited Removal of Nuisances' and Prevention of Contagious Diseases' Act shall remain in force within and throughout the several parishes comprised in the Aylesbury Union, for the aforesaid period of three calendar months from and after the date of this present Order.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 29th day of September 1849.

CONTRACT FOR BUNTIN, WORSTED, COLOURS, FLAGS, &c.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, September 23, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 23rd October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dockyards with

Buntin and Worsted; and

Colours and Flags, made of Silk, Buntin, and Linen; and Linen and Thread for making Colours and Flags.

Samples of the Buntin, Worsted, Linen, and Thread, and a form of the tender, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Buntin, &c." and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £2000, for the due performance of the contract.

Tournay to Jurbise and Landen to Hasselt Railway Company.

67 a, Upper Thames-Street, London, this 1st day of October 1849.

THE Shareholders in the above Undertaking are hereby informed that the first General Meeting will take place at the Office of the Company, No. 4, Rue de Bodembroeck, Brussels, on Monday the 5th of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, when the general report of the Board of Management, together with the accounts and balance sheet, will be submitted to the Shareholders.

The Company's accounts will be deposited at the said Office, and will remain open to the inspection of the Shareholders during the fifteen days immediately preceding the General Meeting, in conformity with art. 44 of the statutes of the Company.

In order to be present at the above Meeting, all holders of shares and proxies are bound to deposit them ten days in advance in the hands of Mr. Thomas Westwood, at the Office of the Company in Brussels, or of Mr. George Woods, at 67a, Upper Thames-street, London, the Secretaries of the Company, who are authorized to receive such deposit, and to give a receipt for the same, in conformity with art. 33 of the statutes aforesaid.

By order,

George Woods, Secretary.
